Krishna!  (Porpoise!!)

Where to start? Well, you are such a good friend. I mean last summer was too much fun! Your new license, your mom's car, nowhere to go, Denny's, Main Street, Prince, cherries, Mo Ranch, (I swear it's normally funny!) (Oh and when we were sophomores - J.C.,) Driving to the Finley, Jack-in-the Box ☺, "Caro", "what would you say?", The Spaghetti Contest, Leah's, Alfie, & POZZOISE, Suby's day, Fajitas, and all the other fun stuff we ever did! Writing all this stuff kinda makes me sad cuz it seems as though we've drifted apart. We need to start doing stuff again - I mean there is a new Prince tape!!

Fight Song

Hail, all hail to Sherman High
 Fight, fight, fight, fight, fight
 Loyal to maroon and white
 'Til the day we die.
 Through the years we'll sing your praise
 Ever to be true.
 Win or lose we'll always stand beside you.
 Dear old Sherman High.

Alma Mater

Hail to the Bearcats,
Hats off to you.
Ever you'll find us
Loyal and true.
Firm and undaunted
Always we'll be.
Hail to the school we love.
Here's a toast to thee.

THE Answer!

During the week of August 10, 1987, Athenian editors and staff members spent a week at Texas Woman's University in Denton at a yearbook clinic. While there, the staff speculated upon new ideas to make the Athenian a better book for SHS. After much brainstorming, the staff conceived a theme.

The theme for the 1988 Athenian suggests something everyone wants to know ... what's the answer?

Our high school years are spent trying to answer a myriad of questions. "Should I take auto mechanics or home economics?" "How is the problem $2r(x+8y)-3s(x+8y)$ solved?" "Who am I going with to the dance next Friday night?" "What's the meaning of life?"

The quest for the answers to these questions, ranging from the trivial to the life-changing, have been chronicled in the 368 pages of the 1988 Athenian.

Read each page carefully, examine the pictures closely and try to find WHAT'S THE ANSWER? ...

A Note From The Editors

We the editors of the 1988 Athenian would like to present the 1988 yearbook to the student body of Sherman High School. As always, the production of the Athenian brought many headaches, frustrations and temporary break-ups of friendships between staff members.

Trying to think up a page design, writing the perfect story and choosing the best picture for the page was no easy task. Redrawing and thinking up better ideas brought on headaches and frustrations. Sometimes friendships went sour as staff members screamed and yelled at each other when things didn't go their way.

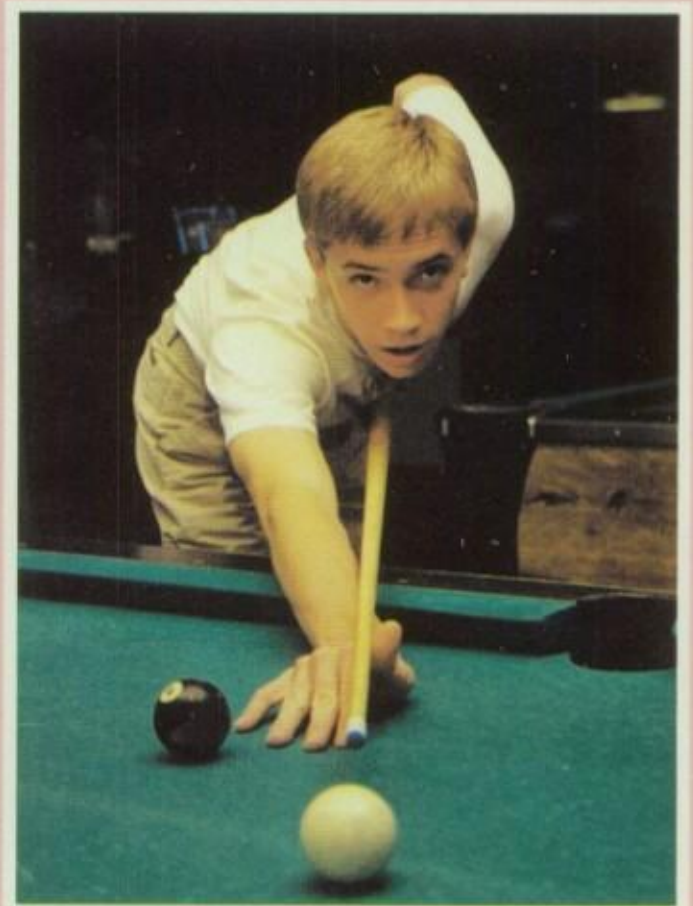

As the book came close to completion, all of the best thoughts and ideas were put to use. The headaches disappeared and the frustrations were relieved. All friendships reunited when all "ways" were compromised.

As the end of the school year approached, everyone had the chance to see what memories and creativity the Athenian staff put into the production of the 1988 Athenian.

The Most Dreaded Week Of All

Students Face A New Year . . . Again

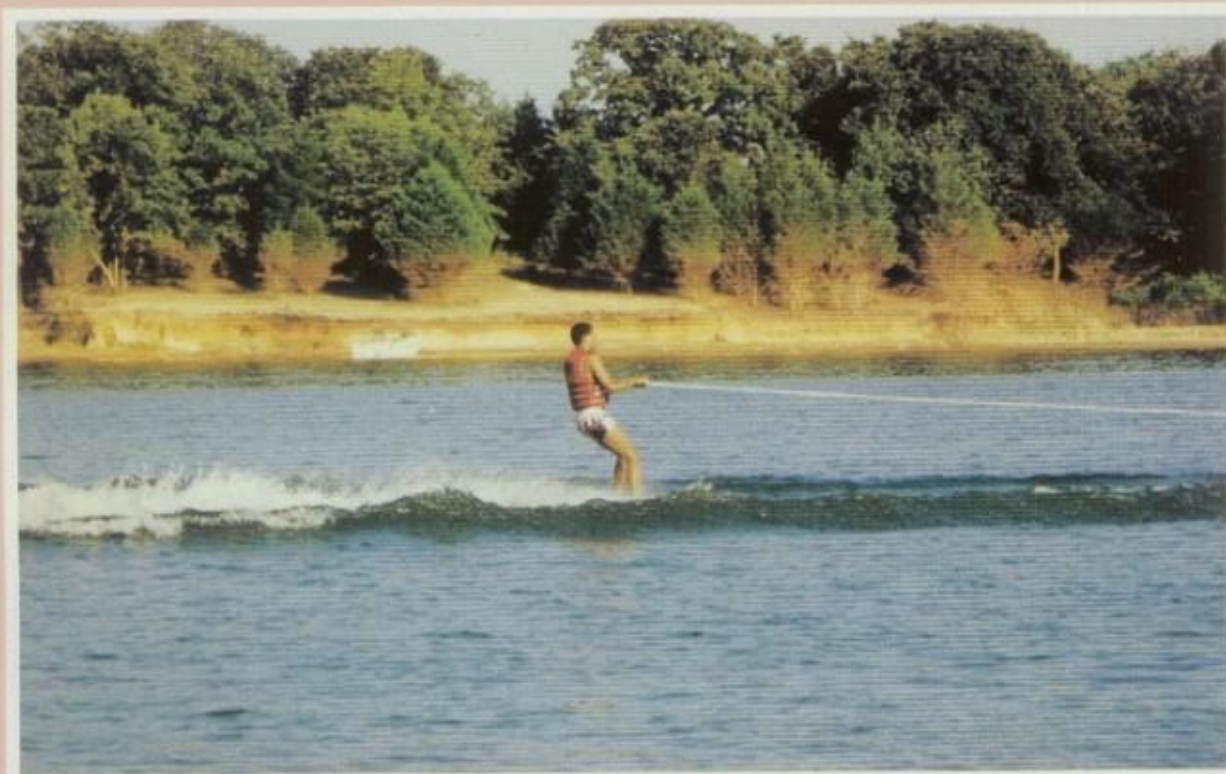

There is one week in the month between August and October that students try to avoid most. It's full of moans and groans about what to wear, where to go and what to do. Everybody tries to get out of this week by telling their mom they have a stomachache or by trying to convince her that they have some made-up disease hoping she will give some motherly sympathy and make them stay in bed. This week is familiar to everyone in the world. This week is the first week of school.

No one wants to be present for the first week of school. Everyone thinks it's the worst week in his life and for some it might be. They got to school and found out their best friend had been moved to another homeroom and then they found out they would be having the meanest teacher for P.E. first period. They go to the cafeteria to eat "D" lunch and realize that all of their friends eat "A" lunch and if things couldn't have gotten any worse, the sixth period algebra teacher assigned the first fifty problems for homework the first night.

Every dark cloud does have a silver lining. Everyone kept at it and made new friends in homeroom and at lunch. Those new to the school realized that Sherman High's halls are in the shape of one big "H" and everyone started getting used to the idea that summer was over and that it would be back in nine months. The first week of school was an experience no one ever forgot no matter how well it ended. The only depressing part was remembering that thirty-five more weeks were yet to come.

On August 31, many students left the house for the last day of summer vacation. Some went shopping and some, went to the lake for their last day.

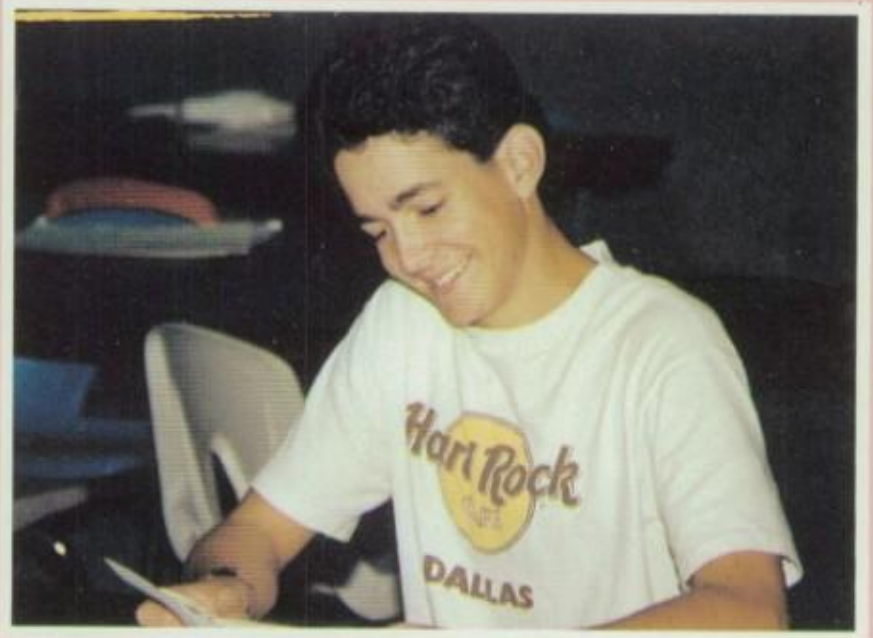

Rhonda Conway psyches herself up as she steps off the bus to begin the fourth and final day of the first week of school.

▲ On the morning of September 1, 1987, students woke up to the first day of school. Like Debra Edwards, they all pulled the sheets over their heads hoping the first day was just a bad dream.

The Moment Of Truth

Graduation Or Bust!!!!

Life as a senior was one of many things. To most it was an amazing triumph. When you reached your senior year, life finally became a reality. Your goals began to materialize, but you also felt like your life was a giant whirlwind of questions without answers.

Questions like "What will I wear to Homecoming?" Who will be my prom date? "What college will I attend?"

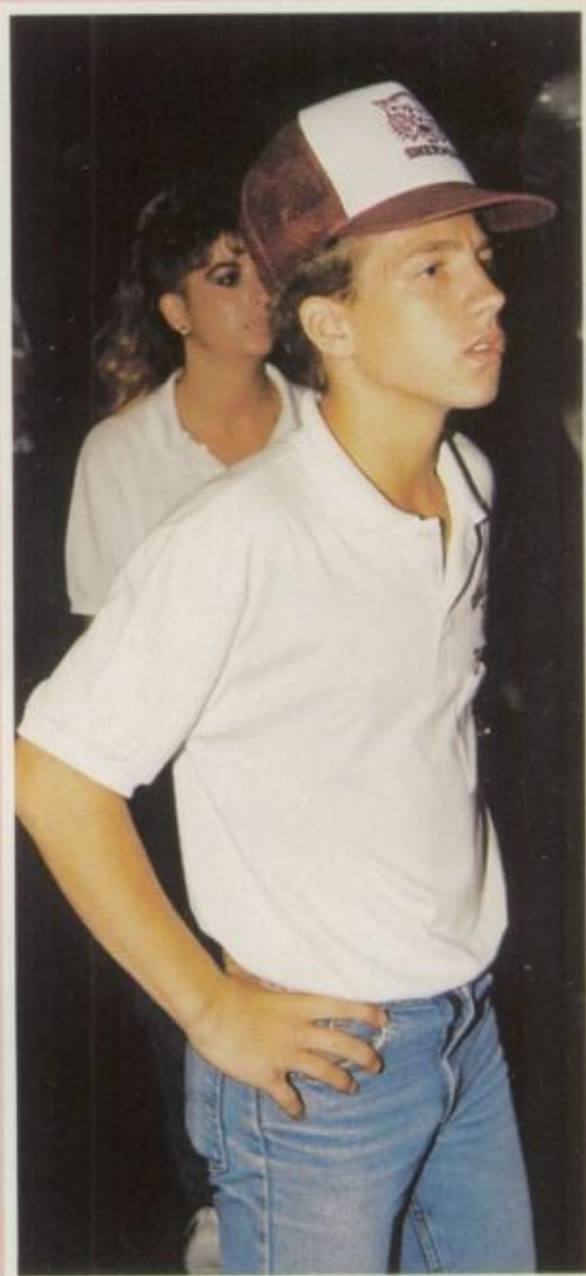

One question almost every senior asked was, "How will my senior year be different from the previous three?"

One difference was your senior year brought you closer to all your friends because you began to realize that this was your last chance to be together.

Another difference was activities for seniors only, such as the Senior Caravan and the Senior Pep-Rally ... the ultimate head-bangers ball. These activities really gave seniors an opportunity to show their class spirit and pride for their school.

Tears were a common sight at each senior activity. Tears over what? Those over leaving your friends and those of the uncertainties of beginning a new life on your own as an adult.

♥ Lang Morrison and Tiniya Anderson try something new and the Sherman/Denison game. Sherman later went on won 21 to 14, which made the record 2 and 0.

♣ Paul Scheibmer leads the students in the reading of the preamble at the assembly celebrating the bicentennial of our constitution. The assembly was created by Micheal Sullivan.

♣ Office worker George Miller helps Byron Whitfield go over his college plans. The counselor's office helped over 150 college-bound seniors this year.

Which of the terms below would every 1988 graduate definitely not use to describe himself?

- A. ruler of the school
- B. party animal
- C. freshman initiator
- D. underclassman

Answer: D

Fact or Foe?

The Third Time's a Charm

It has been said the third time is a charm. What was the charm about being a junior? Being a junior was a unique feeling. It meant that you were somewhat of an heir to the throne of the school. You did not necessarily possess the glamour and glitter of a senior, but you were ready to rule when Senior Skip Day rolled around.

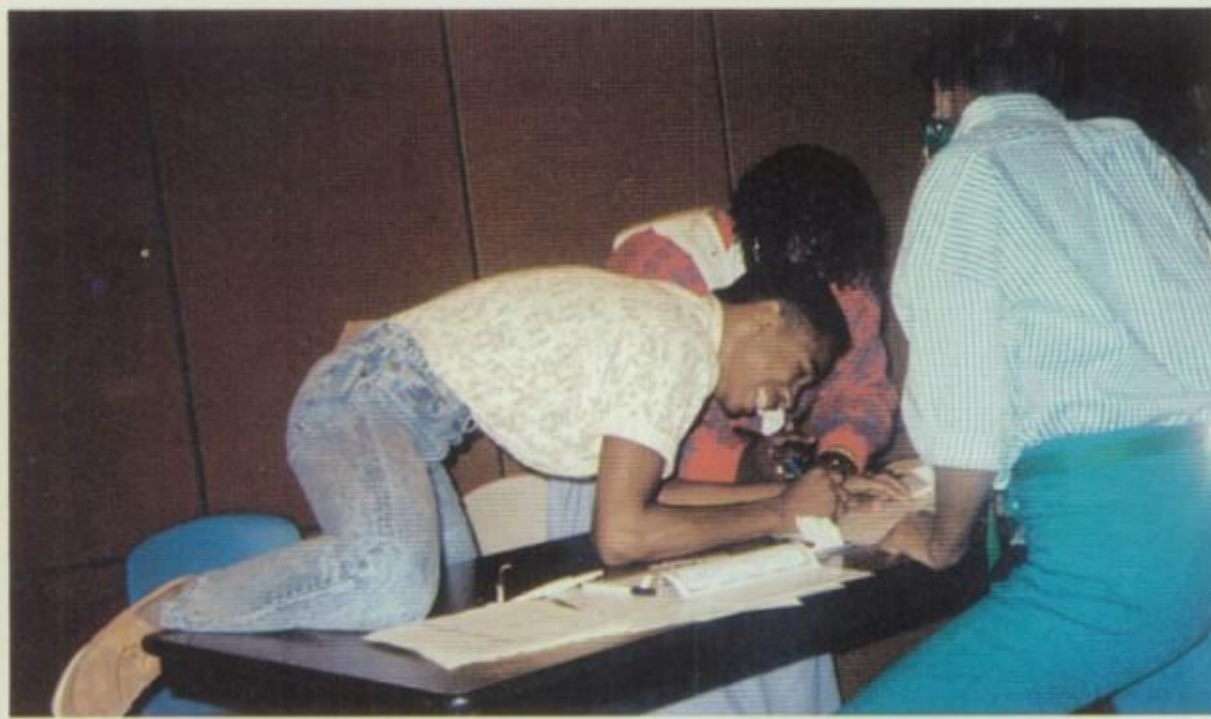

A junior had a lot to look forward to — for some, driver's license, or a car, or the SAT test; for all, the exit TEAMS test.

The greatest thing for a junior was the purchase of a senior ring. The ring will be used the following year as a symbol to show you are at the top of an elite group. Of course, the ring is never used as a freshman and sophomore headknocker.

Along with all the hype and hysteria, a junior also had to accept the fact that in two years he/she would enter a whole new era. He/she had to accept responsibility and prepare for the road that lay ahead.

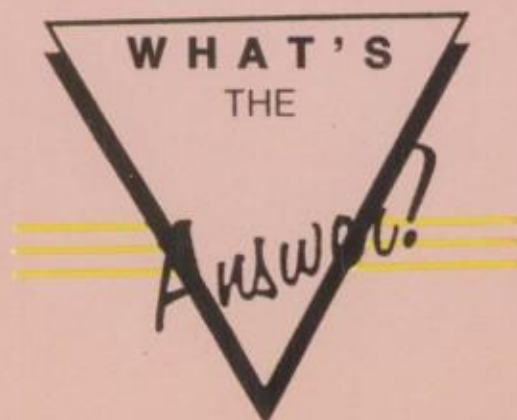

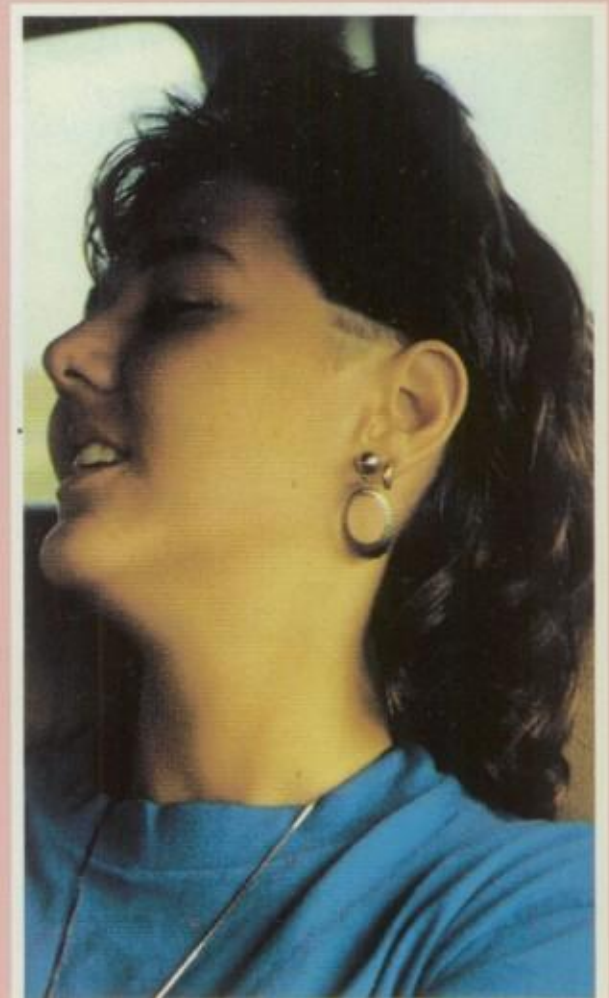

▲ Karen Cole steps off the bus to begin another day of drill team practice. The drill team put in a lot of practice everyday to perform on Fridays.

▲ Michael Wilson climbs on the table to write the names of the people purchasing a picture package on picture day. Over 1,300 underclassmen and faculty were photographed that day.

◆ Denise Spence shows how she feels about coming back to school after she enjoyed a week of summer camp. The Yearbook staff returned from camp in Denton with the second place award in theme development.

◆ Shawn Davis lifts Katie Watson as they boost spirits of the students during the Sherman/Denison game. The Bearcats were cheered on to victory as they defeated Denison 21-14.

▲ On the side lines of the Sherman/Lewisville game, Vince Baker, first tackle, views in disbelief as the clock runs down leaving a score of Lewisville 27, Sherman 16.

▲ Joe McCollugh and Andrea Younts have an intimate conversation while Susanne Ayres tries desperately to ignore them.

What is the best thing about being a junior?
 A. being initiated
 B. getting a class ring
 C. graduating
 D. riding the bus

Answer: B

▲ "The sky is falling, the sky is falling." Kathleen Martin relates the Chicken Little classic after school, to anyone who will listen.

Sophomores Step Up To A Safer Setting

Perhaps you respond to this dreaded remark by turning your head sharply and saying, "What?" with a trembling in your voice, perhaps you merely cower and try to slink away unnoticed, or perhaps ... you hold your head high in defiance and reply that "someone is mistaken," for you are no longer a freshman, you are a sophomore.

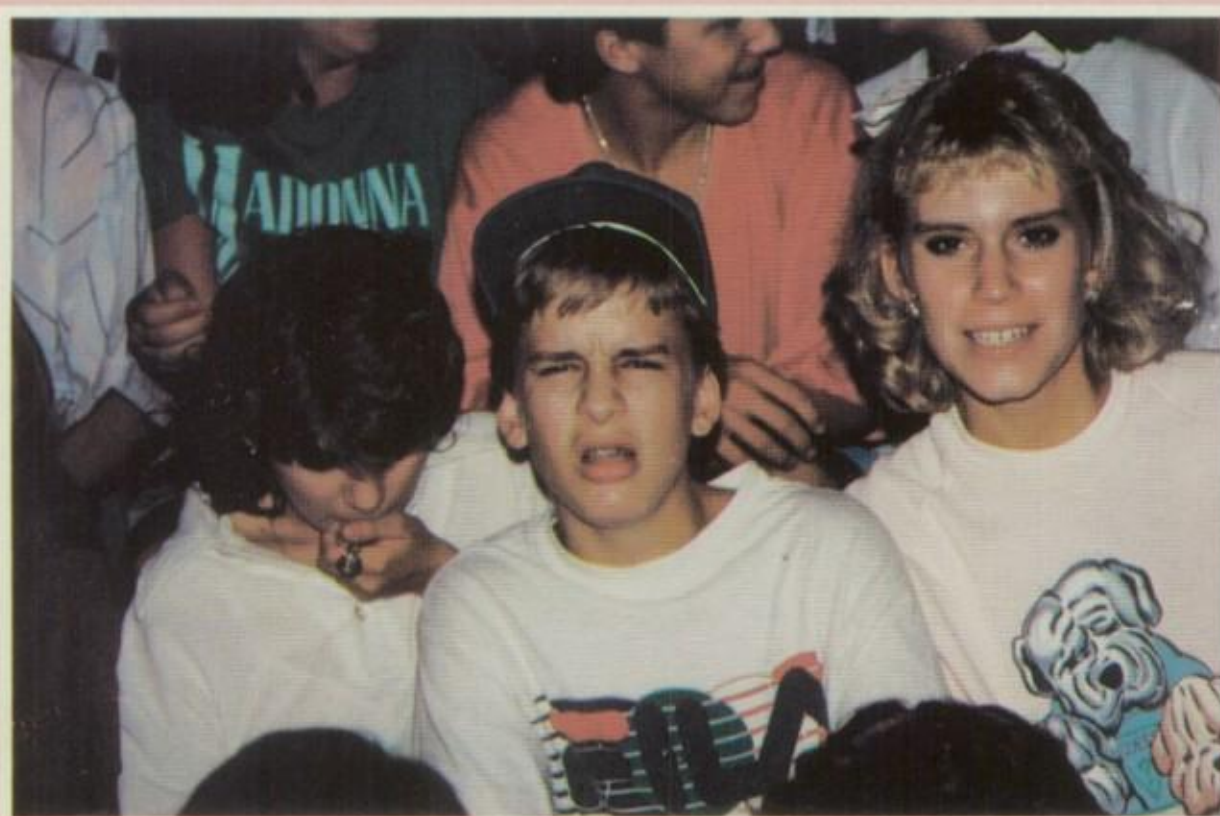

For sophomores, life has virtually begun again. There lingers in the air a feeling of relief, no longer will they be looked down upon and made fun of as FISH.

As sophomore Mike Owens, puts it, "You're able to go into the bathrooms without having to sing jinglebells or the Mexican National Anthem. You're treated with more respect. there's no prejudice against you; it's safe. You can get out in the halls and meet upperclassmen, and you can sit in the commons."

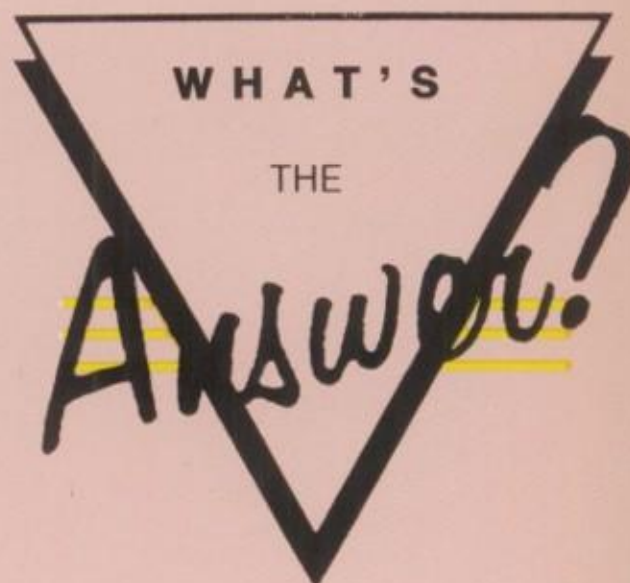

In general, one's sophomore year is merely a stepping stone from a lower to a higher level of education. However, you are still not yet an upperclassman. There are still two years left to go ...

▲ Books in hand, mind in gear, Malcolm Milam shows his eagerness at returning to SHS for his sophomore year as he steps from the bus into his fourth day of school.

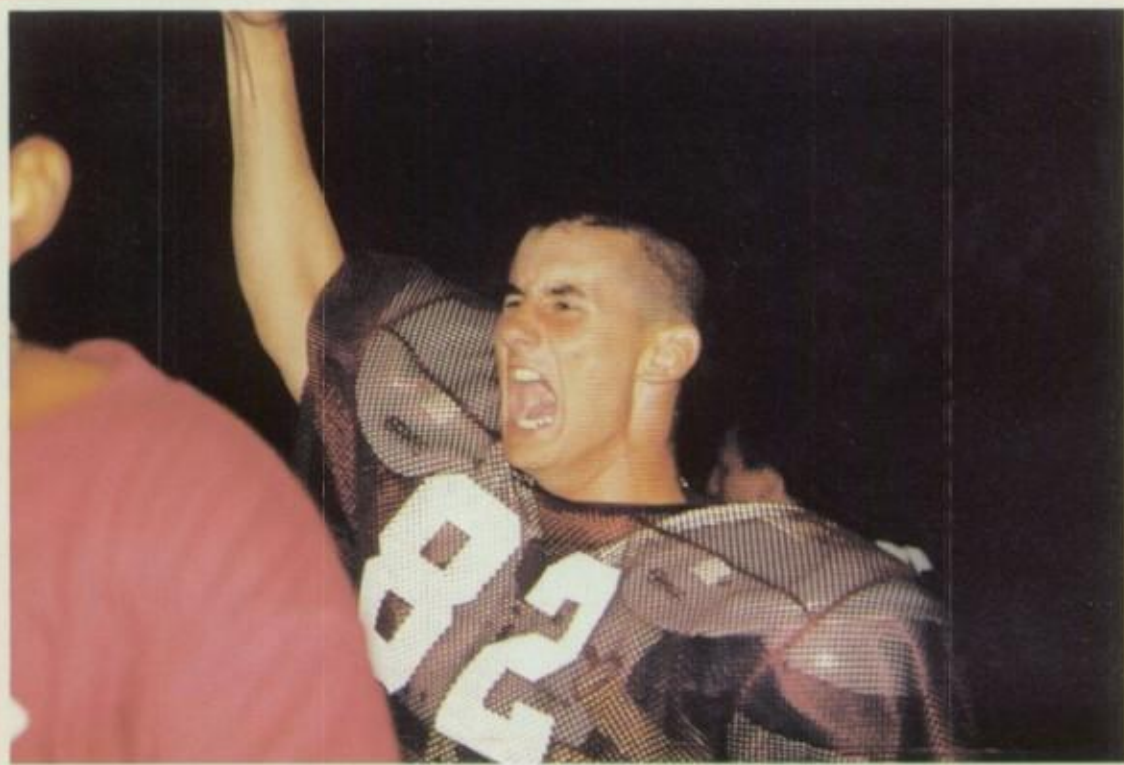

▲ Rob Grooms strains to determine the photographer's intention as Kristi McCoy looks on with a smile. Ann Webb seemed to enjoy her popcorn as much as the 32-0 victory over Gainesville.

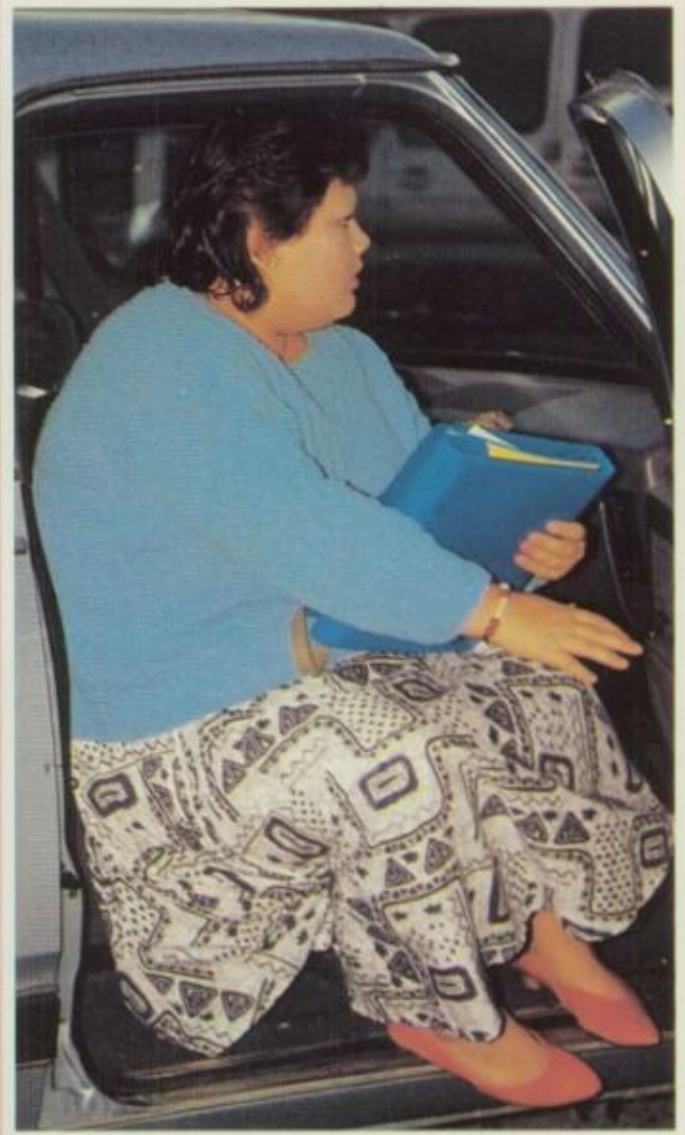

◆ Penny Clark and Carol Young kick back and take a break in their air conditioned vehicle, as they attempt to escape the relentless early September heat.

▲ Danny Pinion screams the "Rebel Yell", as his team scores against the Weatherford Roo's. The Bearcats continued to score, bringing home a 24-8 victory.

▲ Hesitating momentarily, Sharon Barcus decides to begin another day at SHS. She didn't want to ruin her chances of winning prizes in October for perfect attendance.

What do sophomores look forward to most?

- A. getting a drivers license
- B. taking English II
- C. sitting in the commons
- D. walking home

Answer: A

Freshmen Enter New Era

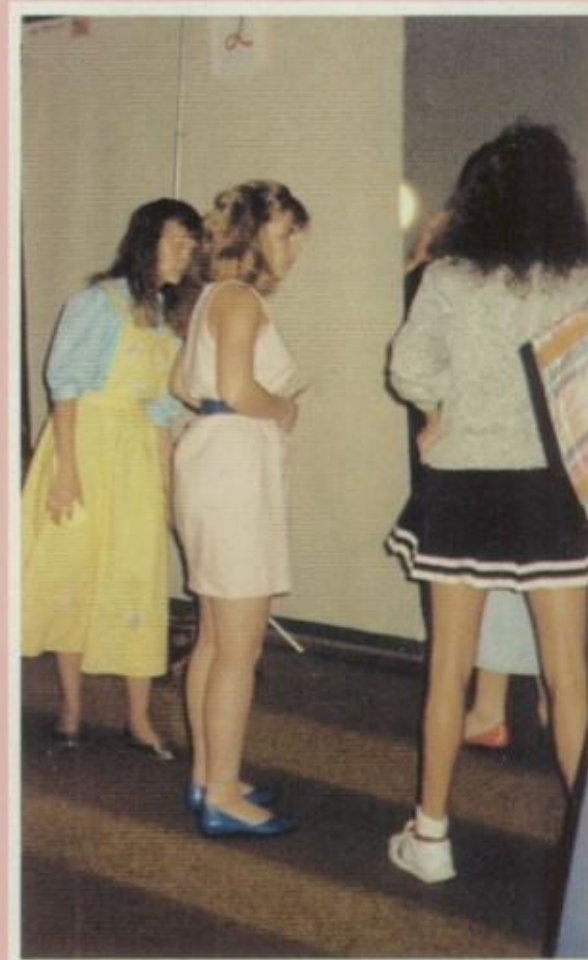

Varied Activities Provide Opportunity For Involvement

You're scared, nervous and anxious. These were the feelings of most freshmen entering SHS. Your freshman year was a new beginning. One of excitement, glamour and suspense. You made friends with the upperclassmen and you ran from the seniors on initiation day.

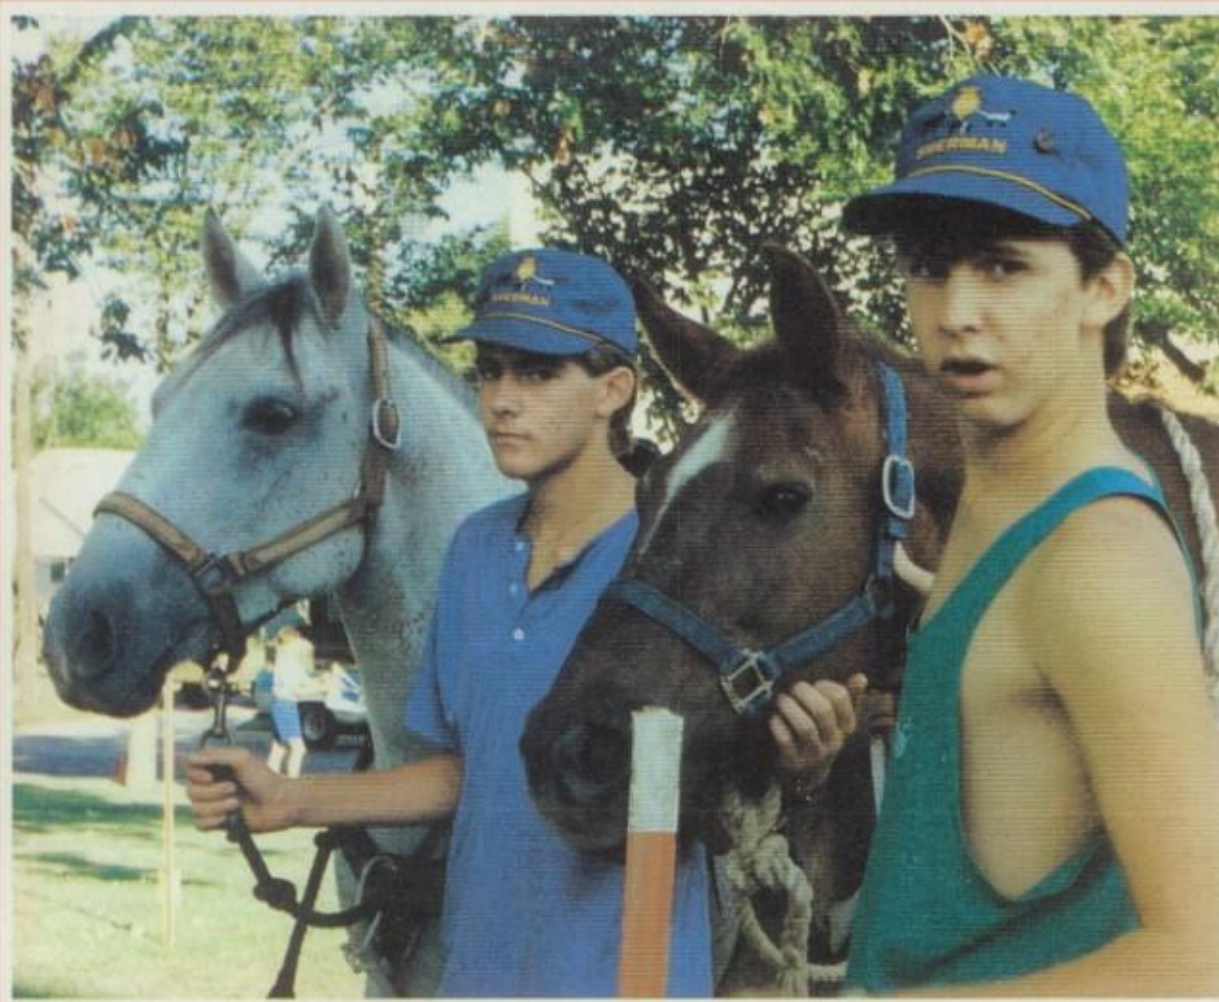

But, through it all you survived. You were involved in several different activities. You shared the halls, the cafeteria and the gym with the almighty seniors.

When you first entered SHS you didn't really know what to expect. Most of you formed a U-line in front of the office and others made their way for the commons. Some of you were just lost in the halls wondering what to do next.

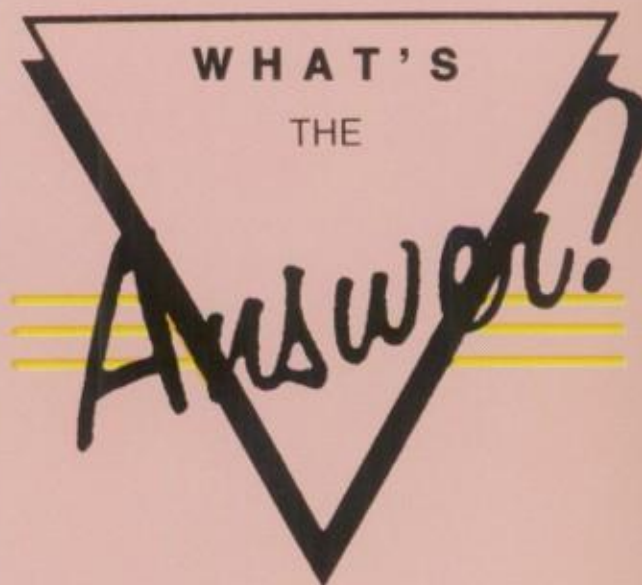

Although you were probably terrified the very first week of school, you have grown accustomed to the rules and regulations of SHS and are ready to begin a second year here.

▲ Tammy Kawls, Jennifer Schultz and Alecia Reynolds wait to have their pictures taken on September 17. Over 400 Freshmen were photographed that day.

◆ While waiting outside the Little Theater, Brian Baca asks Mrs. C. J. Wilson how to fill out his picture envelope. On September 17, over 1,300 students and faculty were photographed.

What do the letters FISH stand for?

- A. Federal Insurance Saves Hospitals
- B. Facts Indicate Safe Health
- C. Freshmen Introduction to Sherman High
- D. Fun In Sunny Hawaii

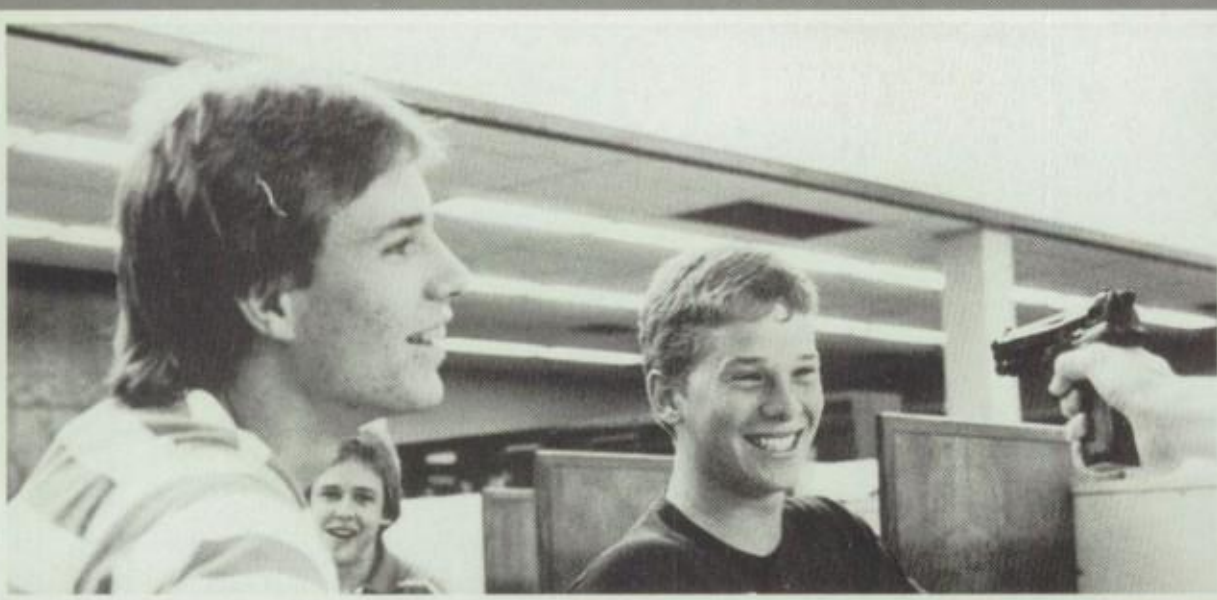

Answer: C

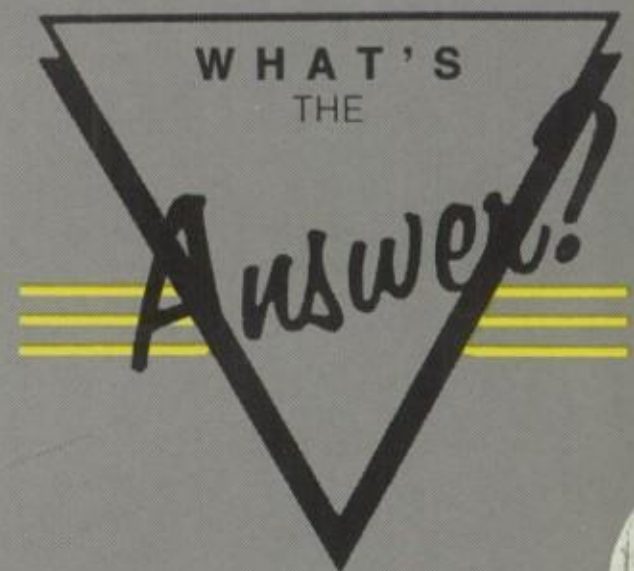

◆ At the yearbook clinic in Denton, Denise Spence and Lisa Gray sigh when they are told they will have to lay out pages and run the Bearcat Store at the same time.

▲ Before going out to dance to "La Bamba", Mark Linn asks his Spanish teacher, Mrs. I. Hudgins, to translate the lyrics. She's taught school and chaperoned dances for nine years.

▲ "Hand over that assignment!" Jeff Raasch and Joe Brown are confronted by a classmate with a fake gun while in the library. Joe laughs at the thought of death.

♥ "Oh, I wanna dance with somebody . . ." The FISH Dance was held in the commons on the night Sherman defeated Denison 21-14 and brought home the Ax, the first time since 1983 — a real reason to celebrate!

◆ Combining the new with the old, Wendy Hagy and friends talk about summer activities while sporting their new school clothes the first week of school.

▲ Mrs. M. Gillespie gets excited when she discovers the copy machine is in running condition. The copy machine has minor to major break downs often, usually when a teacher needs it in an emergency.

◆ Friends since fifth grade, Stacy Ford and Nickie Commons talk about the most important matter of the week, Nickie's new job. Nickie works at O.G. Wilson at Midway Mall.

Adults Showed Devotion — Even Without Pay

“Every school board member is very dedicated to a good education for all students,” Herman Stoner

“I have a devotion to the education process,” stated School Board member Eugene Youree. The Sherman School Board was the decision-making organization that consisted of seven non-paid members led by school administrators. These adults governed many problems and issues that faced hundreds, if not thousands, of faculty, students, and families. To tackle such a responsibility, gratis, was unmistakably admirable.

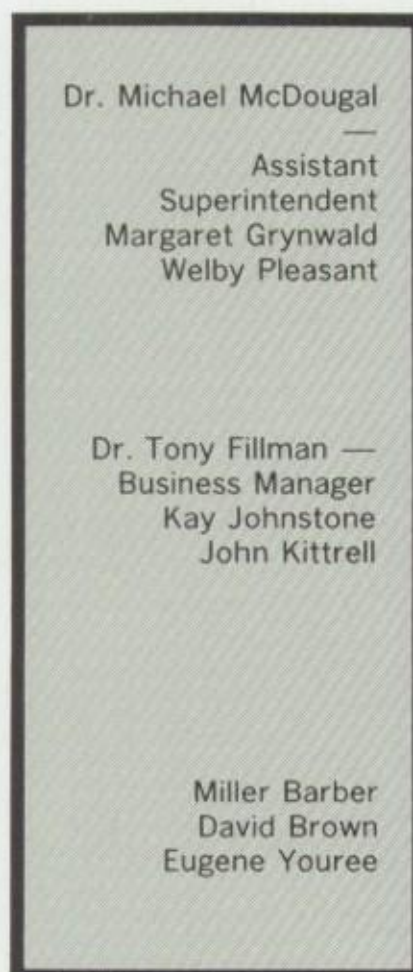

The School Board met the first Tuesday night of each month to address specific issues such as the drop-out rate, attendance and drug problems.

“The programs on the drop-out rate we’ve been implementing will definitely have a positive affect of the drop-out rate,” said member John Kittrell.

Also definitely having a positive effect were attendance initiatives offered to students during the month of October.

Superintendent Dr. Beryl Mackey agreed, “Our attendance has been better thus far than last year.”

Even though School Board members were not rewarded monetarily, their devotion and concern earned the respect of the community and the gratitude of the students.

▲ Serving beside Dr. Beryl Mackey, Dr. Michael McDougal was the Assistant Superintendent for the 1987-88 School year. His dedication assured students' success.

▲ Hard at work, as usual, is Superintendent Dr. Mackey. Dr. Mackey successfully promoted many different programs and reforms which the School Board implemented.

Controlling Traffic Inside The City Limits

◆ Principal Tommy Hudspeth.

♥ After a hectic day at Sherman High controlling a student body of 1600, Mr. T. Hudspeth and Mr. L. Scott enjoy a brief moment of conversation.

"S herman High is like a little city," states Mr. Hudspeth.

"Crowded bathrooms are like Tom Thumb's intersection- too small to get in or out without risking life and limb, pep rallies are like Christmas shopping three days before Christmas, and crowded hallways are like 5 o'clock traffic on Highway 75."

In his second year here as "city manager", Mr. Hudspeth acknowledges, "It is a big responsibility to take care of 1600 students under one roof."

Why would someone want this responsibility? "After twenty-eight years of coaching, I was ready for a change. I felt like I could use my coaching skills to be a good administrator."

He said eight of those twenty-eight years of coaching were spent here in Sherman High as head football coach. In 1977, he led the Bearcats to the Quarter-final District.

After he left Sherman, he served as head coach in Mesquite for five years.

"Coming back to Sherman is like coming home to me," he said.

◆ Mr. T. Hudspeth has no problem helping Sabrina Walker since he has experience as a coach and a superintendent. He really enjoys helping students whenever they need it.

Asst. Principals: Their Admiration Is Well Earned

"In thirty years at Sherman High School, I've never found better . . . "

Bill McClure

You worked until 10:00 p.m. at Tom Thumb, struggled with algebra until midnight, then typed your entire English research report.

Your history teacher announces, "Today we are going to watch a film over the Civil War." Against your will, your eyelids descend with the light switch.

A knock awakens you and an office aide hands you a yellow slip which tells you to go to the office. Wide awake now, you walk slowly to the office to see either Mr. Bill McClure, Mr. Jack Pierce, or Mr. Herman Stoner. You find out when you get to the office that your mom brought your lunch money, and that you're not in any trouble at all!

The duties of our assistant principals are indeed many, with each being just as important as the next. They include keeping control over 1600 students for 7 hours a day, 5 days a week. This is not an easy task. "It is a BIG responsibility. With 1600 students, you get 1600 different problems," stated Mr. B. McClure.

Our principals are also responsible for keeping the school in working order and avoiding as many problems as possible so the year will move more easily for them and Head Principal Mr. Tommy Hudspeth.

The greatest satisfaction this year for the principals was the general rise in attendance which made easier the complicated jobs of these men.

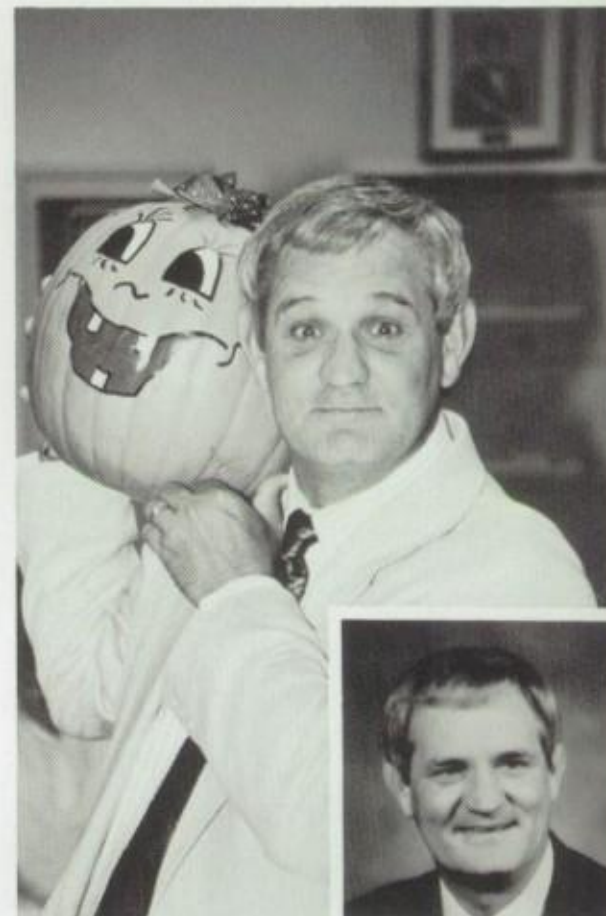

When you see these men, our principals, in the hall, remember that they share in the pride and spirit of our school. They have earned our respect, so let's give them a hand.

♦ Which one is our real Assistant Principal? Mr. Jack Pierce shows his infamous "Headless Horseman" routine in the office. Could it be that Mr. Pierce is a camera ham?

♦ Mr. Bill McClure, the freshman principal, talks to a reporter from the National Enquirer. "Yes, the UFO came down, and took every yellow slip in school."

Good Counselors Want You To Have An

"To be a counselor, you have to want to work with students closer than just teacher to student." Larry Scott

Awesome 4 Years!

♦ Mrs. Jeanne Groff talks to a concerned parent on the phone. Mrs. Groff spends much of her time helping students with their needs. This can sometimes be a tough task!

♥ Mr. Larry Scott looks with dismay at a report card. "This is so much better than I ever made as a sophomore. I just can't believe how times and grades change over the years."

Which of the following problems can a counselor help you with? a) you don't recognize any of the subjects listed on your schedule, b) you want to go to college but can't decide where, c) you are having problems with your girlfriend or boyfriend, d) your water hose just broke on your car, e) a,b&c. If you answered e, you're correct!

Mr. Larry Scott, Mrs. Phillis Armstrong, Mrs. Jeanne Groff, Mr. Jack Anderson, and Mrs. Shirley Nichols were our problem busters for the 1987-88 school year. SHS counselors are ready and able to help you tackle problems which fall into three main areas: academics, schedules, and any other troubles we may have.

The Senior counselor had the biggest challenge of all of the counselors because she had to help them decide their future. "Helping Seniors decide what to do with the rest of their lives," was the greatest satisfaction for Senior counselor Mrs. P. Armstrong.

On the lighter side the greatest satisfaction for Mr. L. Scott was "... surviving the first week of school!"

All of the counselors agreed that the greatest frustration of the job was not having enough time to help everyone who needs help.

Those were just a few reasons for the answer being e, and there are many more. So let's give our counselors for 87-88 a hand for all of their hard work and dedication.

Working Because They Like Us

"The most rewarding thing about being a secretary is working with young people." Pat Crow

What does a telephone, a typewriter and a barrage of questions have in common? These are a few of the things that the high school secretaries deal with each day. The secretaries on the job this year are Mrs. M. Banks, Assistant Principal Secretary; Mrs. P. Crow, Secretary to the Principal; Mrs. S. Graves, Attendance Clerk; Mrs. C. Guynes, Receptionist; Mrs. K. Harris, Counselors Secretary; Mrs. H. Nehrbass, Activity Fund Clerk; Mrs. B. Stoy, Receptionist. Without the dedication of these ladies, the smooth flow of school activities would be halted.

Mrs. Crow stated, "The most rewarding thing about being a secretary is dealing with young people and the fact that my work varies each day." She also stated that her job was to be secretary to the principal, overseeing all office operations, such as word processing, typing, filing, and helping students and teachers.

According to Mrs. Crow, the least rewarding part of being a secretary is, "The mental pressure associated with not always being commended for jobs we do."

In order to become a secretary, Mrs. Crow had to take secretarial science and business administration. She was also a member of DECA and is a graduate of Grayson County College.

Mrs. Nehrbass, the Activity Fund Clerk, has to deal with making bank deposits, writing checks, keeping the various accounts, keeping track of all funds, collections, and unclear records.

Mrs. Nehrbass says "The least rewarding thing about being Activity Fund Clerk is trying to collect funds and money from the students who do not have the money."

When asked why she became a secretary, Mrs. Nehrbass said that she enjoyed all the business courses. Mrs. Nehrbass attended Van Alstyne High School, Dragons Business College, First Word Processing School and Grayson County Junior College. She stated that anyone interested in becoming a secretary must always be ready to answer questions and enjoy contact with people.

◆ Preparing a phone message, Mrs. C. Guynes looks forward to Nov. 20, the last day of yearbook sales. She received over 30 calls concerning the sale.

▲ Mrs. S. Graves listens as a parent phones in his child's absence. She hears the repetitious excuses everyday but continues her job relentlessly.

You Deserve A Break This Year . . .

As An Aide

♦ Chad Oakley looks up a student's schedule before delivering a yellow slip. Sometimes the room number the principal puts on it is incorrect, so double-checking is always necessary.

♥ While Mrs. K. Harris is at lunch, Matt Barnes handles all of her duties which includes answering Jennifer Dill's questions. Matt was a counselor's aide fourth period.

Being an office and library aide is a privilege reserved for seniors. Aides get the opportunity to help in the office and library and get a taste of what it's like being a secretary and librarian.

All day long principals and counselors call students out of class and books and magazines have to be put back on the shelves. The secretaries and librarians already have their hands full answering telephones and taking book inventory so the aides are valuable help to them. Everyday the aides deliver yellow slips, collect and record the daily attendance, check out books to students and check them back in.

There is no credit given for being an aide. It's just something extra a student can do for a semester during his or her senior year. Some aides think a credit should be given for the work, but others just like helping the secretaries and librarians for free.

"I got to work with all the people in the office and saw a side of them not many students see," said Matt Barnes.

"Working in the office is fun and relaxing," said Joanna Krawitz.

♦ Joanna Krawitz and Stanley Carver record the fifth period daily attendance while Mrs. S. Graves takes a parent's phone message. All three keep busy throughout the hour.

All Work - No Play

The Life Of A Teacher Today!

"A teacher could easily work 10-15 extra hours a week grading essays and preparing for the next lesson."
April Icsman

The job as a member of the SHS faculty is not an easy one. Their pay is steady but their requirements change everyday. They have to deal with student's headaches, stomach aches, complaints and excuses as well as their academic strengths and weaknesses.

In an eight hour day teachers try to cope with approximately 150 students and a 150 different personalities. But for most, eight hours is not long enough to get all the work that is needed to be done out of the way. About 75% of SHS teachers spend hours after school grading papers, planning lessons and studying material.

Many things teachers do are overlooked. For instance, they help chaperone all school activities and sponsor all school clubs. Then there are the teachers/coaches — the ones who govern our athletic programs, the ones with amazing school pride and dedication, the ones who suffer through hours of before and after school workouts.

Some students try to take advantage of their teachers. They try to monopolize the conversations during class and pretend that they know it all. But here at SHS the teachers have a way of dealing with these things besides sending students with referrals to the principal's office. They have discovered patience and self-control. They have learned to accept the responsibility of their students and begin each day on a new note knowing they are helping mold them into mature young men and women. Mrs. P. Cook says, "When a student achieves to the fullest extent of his/her ability, I feel I have accomplished my part in their lives."

Although the job appears easy to some, the task is a difficult one. The SHS faculty worked hard to make the year successful for everyone. So the next time you decide to criticize a teacher, think about what you would do if you were in their shoes.

◆ Work never ends at 3:45 for Trainer T. Miller. He was seen at every game assisting players who had been injured.

The Good Ol' Days

Imagine the melodic hit tune "Teen Angel" being sung by Coach Bill Estes in his senior play. How about Mrs. Patti Cook as a high-stepping drill team member? A marvelous actress singing the lead in "Of Thee I Sing", was Mrs. April Icsman, whose yearbook staff career consisted of selling several business ads during her sophomore year, while working at the local Burger Chef.

Visualize a shiny black clarinet being played by Mrs. Mary Lynn Jones in her high school band, or maybe her sitting on the "highly accredited stage" with the top ten students in her grade.

Picture Mrs. Diane Jones spending her senior Thanksgiving as an actress in the play "Hello Dolly". Coach Ron Rogers was active in band and (Surprise!) basketball.

Shockingly enough, Coach Terry Miller was once (ready for this one?) a football and tennis playing wrestler who sang in choir and ensemble while working around a tight band member's schedule that also participated in three school plays. "No, I'm serious," Coach Miller assured us.

Teachers really were teens with similar problems and feelings once. Sometimes memories fade in some teachers, but most realize how difficult a teen's life can be. Teary-eyed girls who walked into class after a breakup session with a very resent ex-boyfriend usually had the comforting eyes of a female teacher lain upon them, according to Mrs. Diane Jones.

Coach Bill Estes remembers when he and about fourteen other coeds went out to the oil fields and played tackle football. "Boys against girls," he smiles.

For each teacher, there lingers those memories of fondness for their high school years. When asked to refer to one of these memories, Mrs. Leslie Allen's eyes wandered back to the cool Be-Bop days of Elvis and surely answered, "My friends ... being really really close. We were a close class."

The pretty blonde with long straight hair, Miss Karla Shipes (Mrs. "Skippy" Skipworth), awaits performing the Hi-Stepper's 1973 Senior routine. She remembers, "Miss Loop let us have a tire changing contest once. We won!"

Diane Meurer, now Mrs. Jones, hugs her Teddy tightly while getting dressed. She tells about her senior prom ending with the entire class going to a rented boat to party from 2-6 a.m.

"Who is this pretty girl?" is the thought running through many minds as they see Mrs. Leslie Allen's senior picture. She agrees with the rest that high school was great, but, "College years were the best ... probably."

What a cute couple! The present Mr. and Mrs. Icsman, seen here as April Nevels and date James Icsman, are prepared to party the night away at the Senior Prom. This past year, the two-some became a threesome with the addition of Devan Nicolle.

“Cruel” Summer?

Summer — sandy beaches, lake cruises, backyard barbecues, pool parties. Not always — for some faculty members, summer meant being a student all over again, summer camps, or summer workouts.

Yearbook, drill team, and cheerleader sponsors all took their students to summer camps in other cities. Football coaches and band directors spent at least three weeks before school started conducting their own camp.

Many teachers worked on their master's or doctorate's degree. Mr. Brian Riley, a student teacher at SHS took psychology and curriculum education classes at Austin College. Aside from the books and classes, he spent his spare time in Dallas playing soccer and softball.

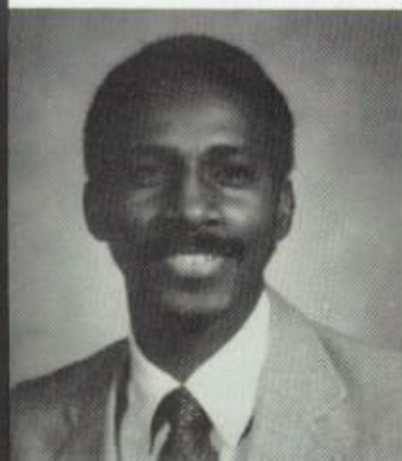

An SHS 20 year veteran, Mrs. Louise Street, traveled first west with old college friends, then to Europe for a 2-week trip with her husband.

Summer was and always will be a time to relax and slow down. “Since teaching is such a taxing profession, everyone needs a breather during the summer!” said Mrs. Sabrina Brewster.

▲ “I think a story about summer activities would be great to go in the faculty section . . . ” Many decisions were made at yearbook camp with Mrs. A. Icsman leading seven staff members.

That's What Friends Are For

The letters L.I.F.T. stand for "Loving Intervention for Teens." There are thirteen of us (teachers) at SHS who took forty hours of training for this program. Why did we do this? Because we at SHS care about the whole student — not only what you are doing in our class academically but also you as a person running in the fast-pace lane of life. We have chosen the hot air balloon as our logo.

The purpose of L.I.F.T. is to provide an active group of concerned teachers and counselors and students to help those who are troubled by life's problems. The most obvious problems come quickly to our minds — alcohol, drugs, smoking, marijuana/chemical dependency, anorexia, bulimia, and most chilling of all, suicide. All you know at least one person who has been affected by one or more of these. Haven't you at times wished you could do something to help them? Or maybe even you yourself have problems and just need someone to listen to you?

Assisting the L.I.F.T. team will be S.O.S. — Students Offering Support — under the direction of Mrs. Shirley Nichols.

We want you to trust us — not because we have answers to every one of your problems but because we want and are willing to help you find the answers within yourself.

And They're Off!

Mrs. Louise Street - one of the Race Walkers here at S.H.S. Others include: Mrs. Fredia Gairruputo, Miss. Yvonne Butler, Mrs. Diane Jones, and Mrs. Sabrina Brewster, and those in the picture.

The Race Walkers are a group of teachers who at the first of the school year started walking before school and during their conference periods. Some did it for health reasons and some just for the satisfaction.

In an interview, Mrs. L. Street said that she started the 2nd six weeks. Mrs. L. Street had polio when she was little and said that the walking really helped her leg not to cramp during the night.

Many teachers walk a distance of 1 mile during their conference period, and 1 mile after school.

When asked, Mrs. L. Street said, "It gives the teachers time to talk, and time to visit with the students." She also said, "I would like to see the male teachers as well as the other teachers and students get involved."

There are approximately 12 -

15 teachers walking now. The teachers feel that the walking is worth it and they enjoy it very much!

Through Thick And Thin, We'll Stick Together- Always

"We've finally made it! It's such a joy to say I'm almost there. It's just great." Sherri Coleman.

"This senior year has been great. Our senior class has participated in so many activities, supported the Bearcats 100%, and has stuck together through thick and thin. I don't think there's any other class like us, and never will be." Nicole Nelson

"My senior year was full of PARTIES! Party, Party, Party ... " Barbie Toland.

"We are the people our parents warned us about." Anne Flippin

"Who is Bill Blass and why is his name on my underwear?" Rob Barrie

"Life is like an elevator, it has its ups and downs!" Rachelle Price

"No brains — No headaches!" Shelly Wright

"School is a state of mind, and I've got a headache." Rob Butler

◆ Yum, yum, yum! Kristy Friend samples the chocolate version of one of the cakes that the Bearcat Moms made for the football team, cheerleaders, and drill team at a pep party.

◆ "No, Rachelle, I think ..." is most likely what Shelly Wright said. Shelly's height added to her strong nature that people admired. She was the tallest officer on the drill team with second falling on Darla Rogers (standing right).

W H A T ' S HIS Face?

▲ Stifling laughter, the pressurous feeling of humor felt when one was about to bust with the chucks, overcame Susie Gadek while opening her locker.

◆ "Y'all, this is due next period!" Getting homework done at home was sometimes an impossible task that led to the "working in the commons" scene. Even Lisa Earnest had to act in this scene with leading man Stephen Shultis.

Just Friends

There comes a time in everyone's life when our thoughts change and mature; although much is gained in this process of development, often some is lost without realizing it. Take for instance an open mind, unending energy, and especially the idea that everyone is basically the same regardless of sex or race.

Remember back, way back, when we were little. When matters of little importance seemed big, and those of great importance seemed small, when life was much simpler, at least as it seems now. When you had buddies that were your best buddies regardless of whether they were girls or boys, black or white, as long as they could throw a football, or dress a Barbie doll.

More and more, the difference between girls and boys became apparent and great importance was put on that difference. A game arose, almost unknowingly, a game of cat and mouse. It was so firmly drilled into our heads, that you forgot there's anything else.

Like an unheard of, forgotten condition, so pure that it was long ago put away in the attic with tin "Winnie-the-Pooh" lunch boxes and nitelites. A condition called simply ... friendship.

There are different shapes, sizes, colors, and lengths of friendship, but maybe the most noticeable, at least in these times, is the unselfish friendship between a girl and a boy.

In high school, thoughts are so centered on the cat and mouse games, that this kind of friend is often thought of as unusual or unnatural.

It doesn't really happen any certain way. It sometimes results from a so-called "greater relationship" and sometimes it just happens.

It's really not a specific level of feeling either. One thing is for sure; in a life of an uncertain, searching person, the life of a high school, is the foundation and the sanity in a world where sanity is so hard to find.

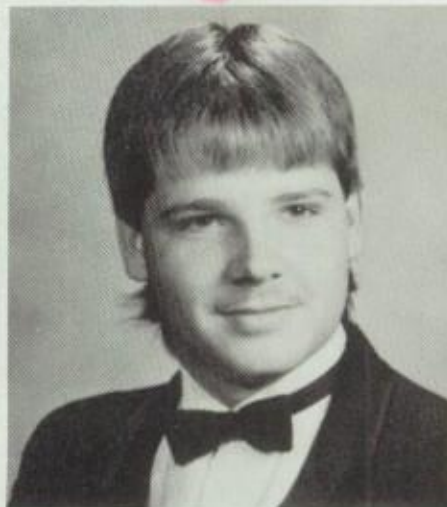

◆ Catch a glimpse of a boy/girl relationship that is "just friends." Andrea Younts and Rob Butler enjoy each other's friendly company. "He's just a really nice guy," Andrea said.

Cram The Brain

Parents could always tell when it's cramming time — suddenly their children began to walk around like zombies reciting lines from Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet or giving definitions to foreign words and some to their surprise, even practiced math equations with their spaghetti and meatballs at the dinner table.

The time came when students had to put off all activities to study for a test. This came at least twice every six weeks and at the end of each semester. Students would sit down for hours of torturous study, study, study.

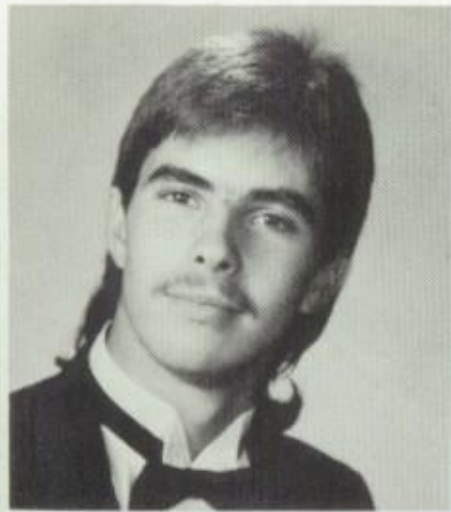

World history with Mr. Mitchusson sometimes takes some extra cramming, shows Mike Cravens. Lunchtime not only provided students with food, but with an extra study hall.

This excluded watching T.V., going out on dates and for some, even eating. Cary Gillespie pointed out she doesn't want to cheat herself out of what she knows naturally, so she rarely crams.

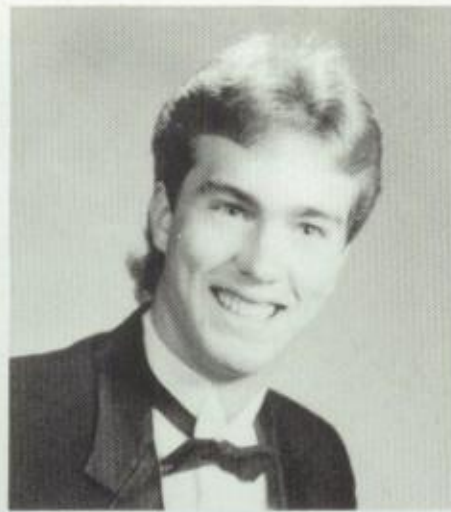

"I usually go to the kitchen table and sit and try to study the best way I can," sighed Tiniya Anderson.

This unofficial burden became an enemy to all who had a run-in with it. The best way to have escaped the evil force was to study a little bit every night. But then there would have been no need to cram the brain.

The Wait Was On

An incredible feeling of terror ran through the student's spine as the SAT was slowly passed out around the room. "Oh no ... What's an analogy?" raced across the blank mind of the senior. "Okay, the number of degrees of arc in a circle is 360." The drill continued.

Bits and pieces of information leaked from the student's mind to his #2 lead pencil, as ovals were slowly being bubbled in. Dragging on from fright to boredom, the three hour test of objective questions continued.

This was probably the most important test that a senior took. About 850 colleges and 300 scholarship sponsors required applicants to take the SAT. It was widely understood that a student's future as a college student depended on this test.

Finally, drained of all mental capabilities, the senior stepped outside to go home. The terror was over — now the wait was on.

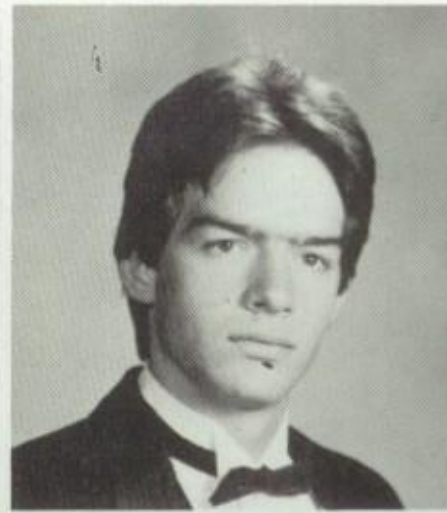

◆ Billy Bob Jeff Fryhover uses a few spare minutes after school to study definitions for the SAT test. Over 80% of Texas colleges require SAT scores from all applicants.

"See, What Happened Is . . ."

Imagine this — you're sitting in class and the teacher calls for the assignment. Assignment? You thumb through your mind for a reasonable excuse and can't come up with anything but, "My mom ate it!"

Excuses, ah that wonderful little way of getting off the hook.

These are just a few of the excuses among S.H.S. students:

1. My baby sister ate it.
2. Homework? What homework?
3. It's in my car, and my car was stolen.
4. My dad stole it. I don't know why!
5. It got washed.
6. Was that today?
7. I needed a date for Homecoming so I gave it to a girl for a date.
8. I got a ticket and the policeman didn't have any paper so he used my homework.
9. I was studying so hard I got a migraine and collapsed.
10. My parents wouldn't let me do it.

Well the list could go on to infinity, but alas, I will hand my pen over to you to make up your own, that fits your own special situation.

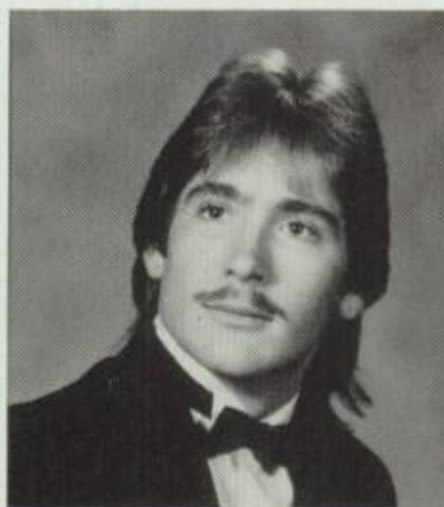

▲ Suddenly, Joanna Krawitz remembers that major English paper that is due "today — no exceptions!". What am I going to say? What am I going to do??

10 Years From Now . . .

The future holds many secrets. For many of us, those secrets are the answers to our questions, the outcomes of our dreams, and the yet unknown paths our lives will take.

It may be hard to say exactly where we'll be, what we'll be, or even who we'll be ten years from now, but as seniors, most of us have a pretty good idea.

For instance, where will you be in ten years? In school? In the service? In business? In jail? Who can really say?

In regard to this, a group of seniors were questioned about fulfilling their goals in life, and all of them were sure they would be successful. Most of them are sure because they have a positive attitude, and plan to work hard at what they really want.

In ten years, you may have reached your goals or you may still be in school studying for a career.

For instance, medical school takes time. Rebecca Boyington is aware of this and plans to be "studying hard" to be a general practitioner.

Also time consuming is the military. Taking this route is Ben Fortin. Ben feels the service will prepare him for the police force, his ultimate goal.

Tim Pennington wants to move back to Colorado, where he was born, to attend Colorado University to major in English and drama, and eventually become an author.

Lori Barber hasn't decided where she wants to go to college, but does know that she wants to major in child psychology, because she really likes children.

Angie Andrews is striving to be the top secretary of a large corporation. She plans on going to Grayson College to major in business management.

Jeremey Moss wants to own his own business, "Being in your own business can bring profit or loss, but if you stick to it, there will be more success than failure." He plans on attending Grayson College for two years and then Oklahoma University for four years to major in Business Law.

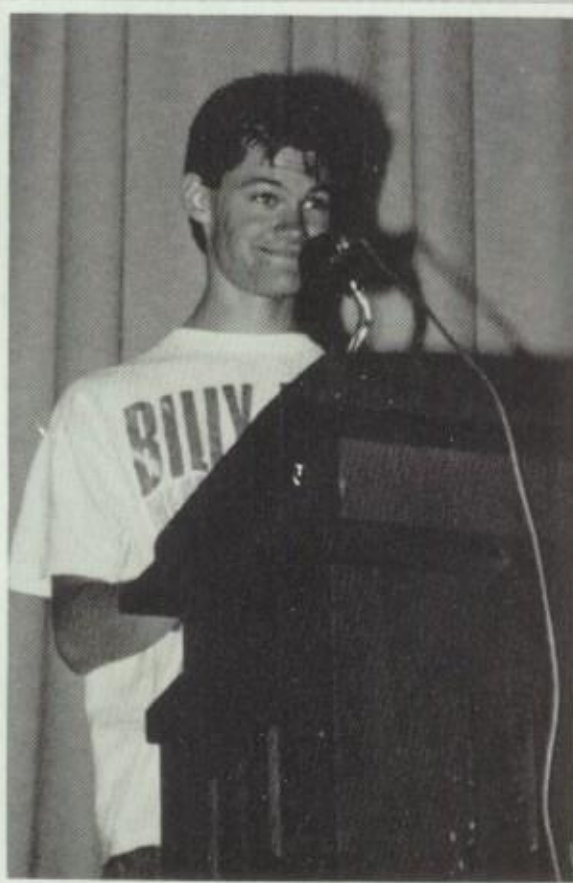

Whatever career you choose will more than likely influence your lifestyle, your temperament, your social and financial status, your residence, your friends, and even your looks. Consider the effects your career will have on you.

For example, where will you live? In a house? In a dorm? In an apartment? In a mansion? Will you live in a large city or a small town? "Hopefully in Washington D.C.," says Camille Phelps. "I would really like to live in Hawaii," says Dayen Valentine enthusiastically.

And with whom will you live? Your parents? Your friends? Yourself? Maybe you'll be married and get to live with your in-laws! "No say!" says Kash Kays, "Definitely not!"

And what about your social and financial status? Will you be rich? "I want to make a lot of money and be well off," says Angie Andrews, "so I can give my children anything and everything they want."

▲ At an announcements meeting for seniors, November 4th, Senior Class President Adam Auten spoke to the class of 88 reminding them to bring their money for graduation announcements.

Or will you drive the car of your dreams? Speaking of dreams, a senior spoke of one of hers, "I want to own a red Corvette!" exclaims Lori Barber who really likes sports cars.

Will you be a well known member of your community? Or will you be living on skid row?

Suppose you were asked to describe the way you see yourself, ten years from now. What would be your reply? "Short, with long curly hair, very tan, and extravagantly dressed," says Mary Randall who wants to be a Vet. Assistant.

Will you be taller? "No, definitely not!", says mascot Robin Goodpaster.

Will you retain your figure? "Oh, I hope so: I'll cry if I don't," says Kristy Friend.

Will you wear a moustache or a beard? "I kinda doubt it," replies Holly Williams.

Will you have a tan? Jason Burleson replies, "Probably, from being outside doing a lot of coaching."

When asked if they planned to stay in touch with their high school friends. Shannon Jones replied, "I'll try just to see how they are doing.", while Kelly Bounds will "try to keep in touch with close friends, if they haven't moved too far away, by phone and letters.", and Michiel Pinion plans to keep in touch with his friends by letters and class reunions just like many other seniors will do.

Yes, many secrets have yet to be discovered, many doors to be unlocked, and what we think of ourselves now, and what we think of ourselves ten years from now could be the clues to those secrets, the keys to those doors.

♥ And the winner is!! Billy Tsakopoulos drew for a 1988 Athenian and a sum of $25 to go towards announcement fees at a senior meeting held in early November this year.

Senior Who's Who

Shanna Corley was in J.V. Choir her freshman year, the SHS Singers her sophomore year and the A Cappella Choir her junior and senior years. During her freshman year she made All-Region Choir, and every year has received medals for Solo and Ensemble competition. Voted for Who's Who her junior year, Shanna has been a member of NIKE, FHA, Spanish Club and Young Life. Shanna was one of the five members of the Queen's Court in this year's Homecoming Festivities. Says Shanna, "Making Who's Who is really special to me. I will miss, but never forget the friendships I have made during my four short years at SHS. Seniors — we finally made it!"

During his freshman year, Jeff Fryhover played J.V. Baseball. During his sophomore and junior years, he was a member of JCL and as a junior and senior, a Billy Bob Boy. His junior year, he was voted for Junior Who's Who, was a member of OEA, and was a Student Council Senator. Jeff was voted for Who's Who Among American High School Students both his junior and senior years. This year, Jeff was voted Most Spirited. During all four years, he was a member of FCA and Young Life. Jeff says, "I came, I saw, I tried my best. I leave, I'm gone, you can have the rest."

Senior Who's Who

Joe Brown

Nancy
Hamm

Joe Brown was a Freshman Senator for Student Council during his freshman year and a member during his senior year. He was voted Most Outstanding Student his freshman and sophomore years and during that time, was a member of JCL. During his junior and senior years, he was a member of PASF; his senior year, he was a member of NHS. Joe played football during all four years at Sherman High School and made Honorable Mention All-District 1987. Also during all four years, he played baseball, and this year he was a member of Thespians. Says Joe, "I've really enjoyed my Senior year. I'll never forget all the great times we've had, both in school and out."

Nancy Hamm was a member of the SHS Band her freshman year. Nancy has been a member of Young Life, Drill Team (Sr. Lt.), OEA, NIKE, TAFE, JCL, FHA, and was president of FCA and vice-president of her sophomore and junior classes; during this time she received an Outstanding Student Award. This year Nancy was voted Friendliest for Sr. Superlatives and Runner-up for Homecoming Queen. "Our Senior Class has to be the greatest ever," says Nancy. "It is such a caring and close-knit group of really nice people and I'm thankful to be a part of our special class. I've had so much fun this year and have become closer to people I hadn't known well before — I hope every one has had as great a senior year as I have!"

Senior Who's Who

Rachelle Price was a Freshman Cheerleader, a member of PASF for two years and a member of Student Council for three years. Her freshman year, she was voted for Who's Who. She was a member of Young Life and NIKE for two years. Her first year on Drill Team, she was Jr. Lt. and her second year she was Co-Capt. She was also a member of OEA and FCA. Finally, Rachelle was one of this year's Homecoming Queen nominees and voted for Who's Who among American High School Students. Rachelle adds, "I've enjoyed my four years at Sherman High. They have been fun at times, but also very trying."

Mark Beene played football as a freshman and has played Varsity for two years; he also played J.V. Baseball and then Varsity for three years — he was voted MVP in '87 and Team Capt. in '88. Mark has been a member of Young Life, FCA and FHA. He was also voted for Junior Who's Who. He was in Art I, II and III and this year, served as treasurer for the Art League. "Throughout my four years of experience at Sherman High, I've come to realize that 'giving it your best' is a step in the right direction."

Senior Who's Who

Jason Burleson

Cary
Gillespie

Cary Gillespie was a cheerleader for all four of her high school years; this year, she was Head Cheerleader. Also for all four years, Cary has been a member of Student Council; this year, she was the Social Committee Chairman. She has been a member of JCL and NIKE for two years and has received the Most Outstanding Student Award for three. She was vice-president of NHS and secretary of Mu Alpha Theta. Cary was a member of Girls' State and this year, was nominated for Homecoming Queen. Cary leaves us with a thought: "It's been real and it's been fun, but ..."

In 1984, Jason Burleson was the runner-up for the National Decathlon Champion. In 1985, he made MVP Basketball All-District and was the CENTEX Player of the Year and the National Decathlon Champion in New York. To continue Jason's outstanding achievements, in 1986 he was the Arkansas State Champion for the discus, shot-put, and the high-jump. That same year, he was named Texoma Quarterback. In 1987, he made All-District in basketball and received the Verde Dickey Award. This year, 1988, Jason received the Pete Odom Award.

Senior Who's Who

As a freshman, Marsha Banks received an Outstanding Student Award. She won Triple A her sophomore and junior years and was a member of JCL her freshman, sophomore and junior years. She has participated in Area and State Latin Contests and took the National Latin Exam. Marsha was president of her freshman and sophomore classes. She has been a member of Student Council for three years and was a Junior Class Senator. Marsha was also president of the National Honor Society and was the NHS's nominee for the 1987-88 Homecoming Queen. She was also a member of Mu Alpha Theta. In sports, Marsha has been active all four years. She played Freshman and Junior Varsity Volleyball, Freshman Basketball, and three years of Varsity Basketball. She participated in Varsity Track for one year. This makes Marsha's fourth year to be voted Who's Who.

Kash Kays has been a member of JCL, OEA and Young Life. As a freshman and sophomore, Kash played Junior Varsity soccer. During his junior and senior years, he was on the Varsity soccer team. Kash also played football as a sophomore, but decided to stick with soccer. Most of us know Kash as one of this year's Billy Bob Boys.

Tiniya Anderson Byron Whitfield Kelly Williams

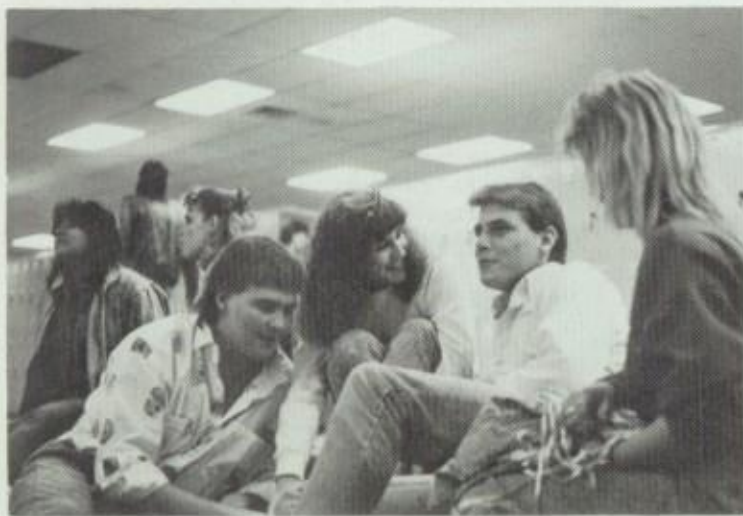

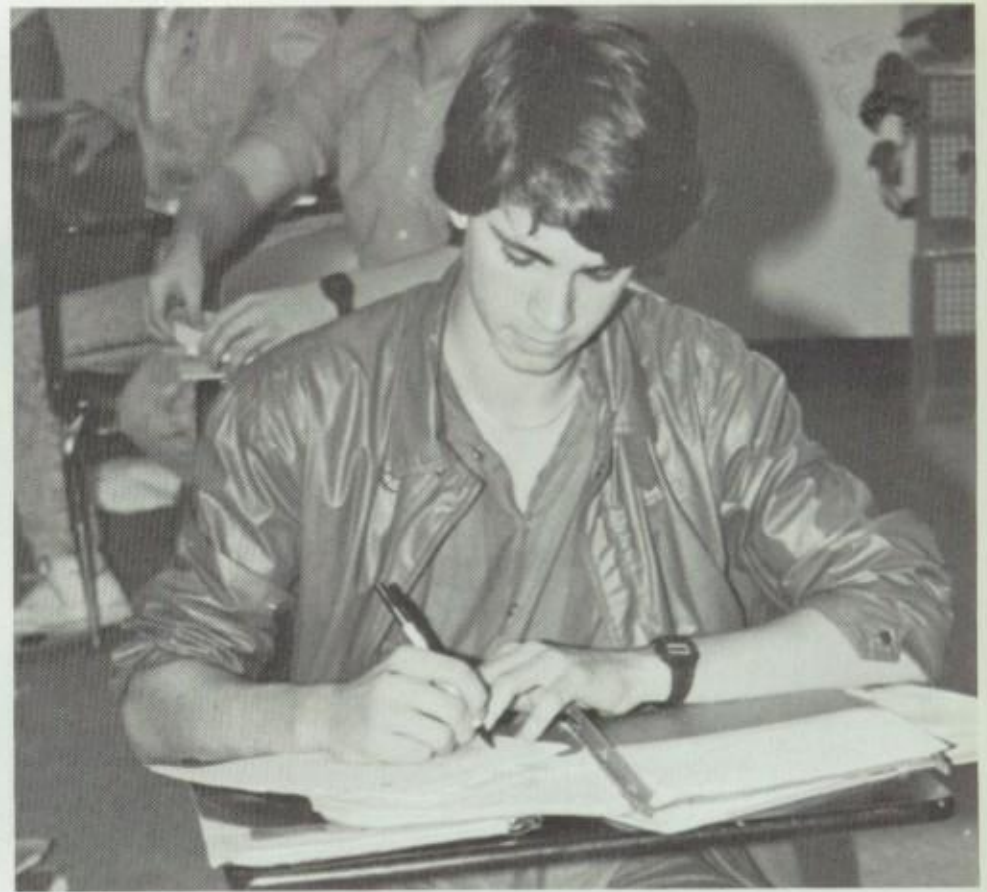

What do Byron Whitfield, Kelly Williams and Tiniya Anderson have in common?

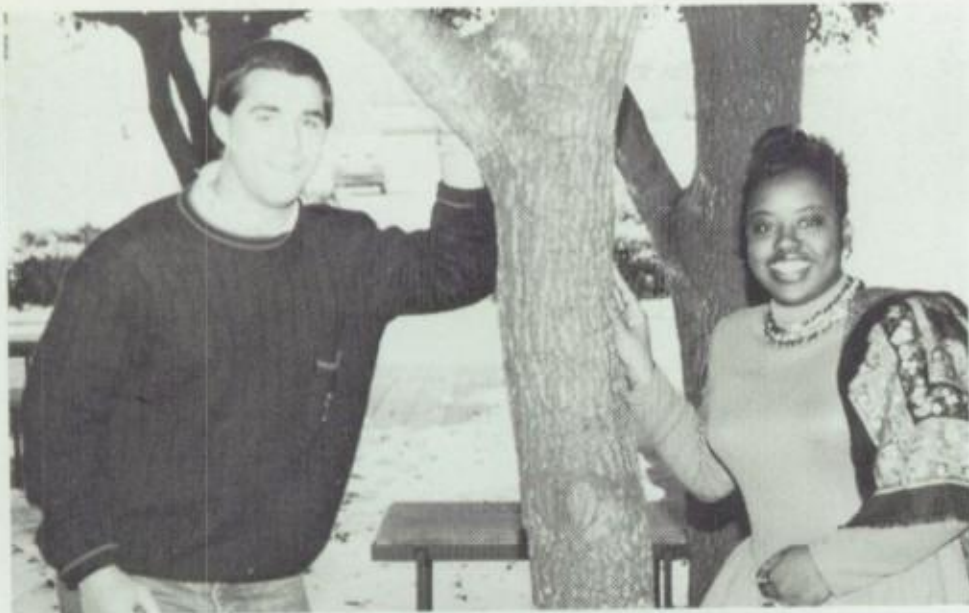

- A. Two years of Who's Who
- B. Basketball
- C. Cheerleading
- D. Track

Tiniya Anderson has been a cheerleader for four years. She was on the freshman track team and has been a member of NIKE, HOSA and was this year's Homecoming Queen. Tiniya says, "As a senior at SHS, it was a real privilege to be selected by my classmates as one of those chosen for Who's Who."

Byron Whitfield has been a member of Young Life and FCA. He has been voted Most Athletic and as a sophomore, was voted Most Valuable Player. Byron has made All-District and All-Region in basketball. He played Varsity Track for two years, Varsity Football for two years, and Varsity Basketball for three years. This is Byron's second year to be selected for Who's Who. Byron says the most important thing he learned from sports is how to get along with people.

Kelly Williams played volleyball as a freshman and was a member of Student Council that year. As a sophomore, she was a member of JCL, TAFE, was a J.V. Cheerleader and a member of Student Council. She was in NIKE during her junior year. This year, Kelly was a Varsity Cheerleader, was on the track team, and was a member of NIKE, OEA, and secretary in FHA. Kelly tells us, "Friendship is a gift you give yourself."

Yellow Lifesavers

Test is tomorrow — over the book you didn't read. What do you do? Can you read two-hundred and thirty-six pages by second period tomorrow morning? No. Can you pass the test if you don't? No. Unless . . . unless you happen to own what is probably the single most read item in high schools across America: Cliffnotes.

Cliffnotes are those beautiful little black and yellow striped books to which most of us owe our lives.

Let us take a moment of silence to praise the Cliffnotes — our friends. Let us rejoice in their divine existence. Let us thank the Cliffnotes and reminisce days of flipping tenderly through the beloved, familiar pages. Yea, let us exalt, for so many tests passed.

Cliffnotes — MacBeth; Cliffnotes — Huckleberry Finn; Cliffnotes — Lord of the Flies; Cliffnotes. Just Cliffnotes. Any kind. We love them all.

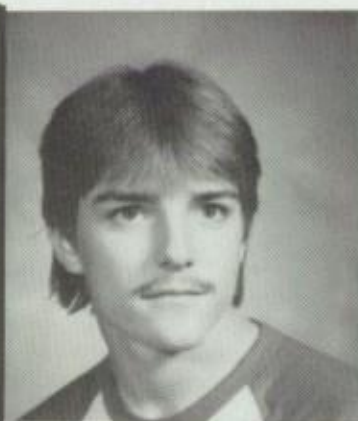

Perhaps years have passed before you have read this article, but as you do, surely you will remember Cliffnotes, an essential element from the elegant chapters of our lives, forever to be cherished in our memories.

Cliffnotes, we love you!

Cliffnotes, Cliffnotes! Our literary saviour. Debi Heckman and Tiffany Thoms look through the short version of "Lord of the Flies".

Tricky Tresses

Hairstyles-some were wacky, some were cute, and some we just didn't understand.

For example, there's the crew cut or "buzz" for guys. In the 50's every All-American boy had it, then it declined in popularity until only servicemen could be seen with it-now it's back.

A variation on the crew cut theme was the box cut: otherwise known as the flat top-shaved on both sides and in the back.

In the 50's for the All-American girl there was the ponytail or the page boys-curved under all the way around.

A variation on the ponytail theme consisted of banana barrets or bows. In the 60's and 70's long straight hair was in, but in

'88-the girls wore the sides flared out and heavily hairsprayed, much like a cock-a-too about to take flight.

Other girls, taking their cues from the guys, had shaved sides or numerous parts.

Lori Barber, senior and cosmetology student, said, "The students wear their hair differently because they want to be noticed or attract attention."

Lori also added that normal hairstyles will last 2-3 years, weird hairstyles will last half a year and "Carolynn Garrison has the weirdest hairstyle I have ever encountered."

Carolynn Garrison said, "I'm just open-minded."

The Color Of Freedom: Yellow

Vacationing in the cool airy climate of the halls in mid school year was a luxury taken by many students. Setting up such a trip was easily made by calling the local travel agent — a favorite teacher or counselor — and asking him to arrange the transportation — a yellow slip.

The beautiful pale piece of paper was a treasure to all. The passport took students from class to somewhere, hopefully not another class or a principal's office, where at least a little bit of dawdling took place.

No matter how good the student was that had a slip in hand, a few minutes of unnecessary bathroom breaks, common stops, or cafeteria routes normally occurred. If this act was denied, reputations were almost shot.

Before one asked for yet another vacation, he must have realized the hundreds of vacations that were taken every day by the student body. In conclusion, the vacationing tip of the year was, "DON'T GET CAUGHT!"

The beautiful feeling of freedom. Julie Mora and Brynea Davidson savor the beauty of a yellow slip. As you may know the yellow slip was a forbidden treasure for most SHS students.

The Familiar Siren

Car-the sheer power and independence of the word. Finally, after 16 years of being chauffeured everywhere by your mother, father, older sibling, or anyone else you could con into hauling you everywhere, you finally get your day - a day that will live in infamy. The day you get to drive your mom's car-alone.

You playfully juggle the keys in your hand as you tell your mom, "Hey, I'll be home before 11, sure I'll buckle up, and of course, I won't exceed the speed limit!"

But once you get behind that wheel you're a man possessed with the idea of going 111 miles per hour. So you try-you reach 50, then 60, then 70, but you're a little hesitant to go on.

But once you start you can't stop, so you proceed, blasting up to go.

You've never heard your mom's car whistle like that, but wait, that's not a whistle, it's louder, shriller, as if to be - OH NO! it can't be! but it is ... a POLICE SIREN!!!

All your hopes flash before you like a great street sign on the highway a while back.

You see your parents faces - angry faces. You wish you had never gotten your license.

What can you do? What can you do?!? Maybe go faster and try to outrun the cop, or you could pull over and get a ticket.

The thought of your mother coming down to the police station to get you out of jail for resisting arrest is scary, so you pull over.

You wait for what seems like days, when finally a policeman, the biggest policeman you have ever seen, looks down at you and says, "Do you realize that you were doing 90 mph in a 55 mph speed zone?"

You look up at the officer and mumble something incoherently. He then writes out the ticket, gives it to you and says, "Have a nice day."

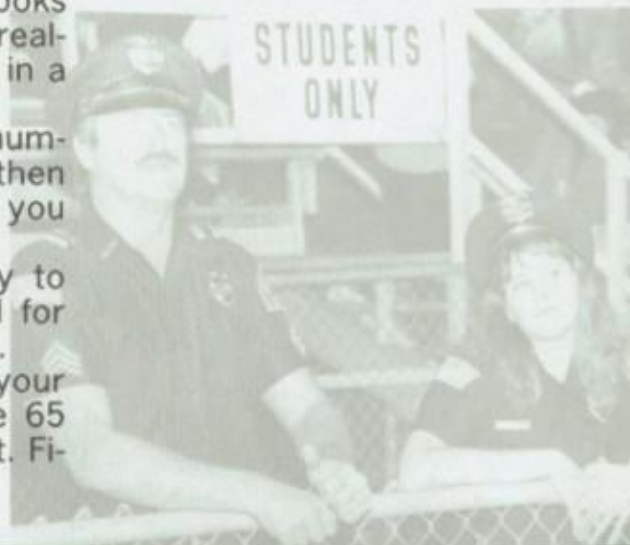

"Have a nice day?!?" you say to yourself, as you sluggishly head for home at a top speed of 30 mph.

You get home, having to tell your mother because you don't have 65 dollars to pay the speeding ticket. Finally, you build up enough courage to tell her.

Your car privileges are taken from you, and you must suffer the humiliation of being chauffeured everywhere again — sigh, heavy sigh.

Sherman police officers do more than just patrol the city streets. On Friday nights during the football season, police are found in the stadiums and on the floor controlling the Bearcat fans.

Get Off The Sidewalks!

It's your big day; you have waited for this moment ever since you first saw your mother drive off from preschool.

You were left standing in awe at the sight of your mother driving off and you wished that you could someday drive.

It is the morning of your 16th birthday. You anxiously wait at the front door of your home for your mother to take you to the Department of Public Safety to get your license.

You get there and your mom leaves you in the car all alone. You wonder what kind of person your driving instructor will be.

Your wait is short. A burly, 325 pound, lumberjack-looking man suddenly flings open the car door and seats himself beside you.

You are very intimidated by this; your hands suddenly become very sweaty.

Suddenly he barks his first order, "Start the car!" This makes you jump and accidentally blow the horn.

Suddenly you feel very sick, but this is your day, so you must go on.

You then start the engine, move forward, and stop at the stop sign before entering the intersection.

Each time you do something you notice that this man sitting next to you is making notations on his clipboard. You become very nervous, and suddenly he is yelling, "Stop! Stop! Watch out for that kid!"

You slam on the brakes and almost start to cry, but you contain yourself.

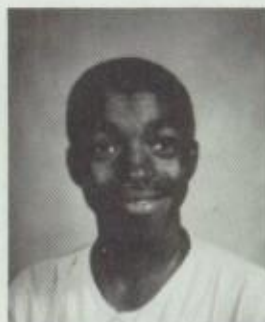

Finally, you make it back to the Public Safety Department. Your mom is waiting for you. You wait to receive your grade.

Your driving instructor gives you a grade of 78.

You're extremely happy because now you can go anywhere you want without your mom or a 325-pound driving instructor.

Orange And Yellow Masterpieces

Hidden behind the orange and yellow metal walls lay a special place that promoted the freedom of personal individuality. Cheryl Self spoke of her locker as, "an expression of emotions and creativity that I couldn't otherwise express in school." Her locker contained many very "interesting" articles. "I've got dead flowers, a barf bag, rhinestone necklaces, earrings, a chain, cartoons, mini-rough drafts, things from friends, a destroyed tape, and a "No thanks, I'm driving" sticker — very interesting indeed.

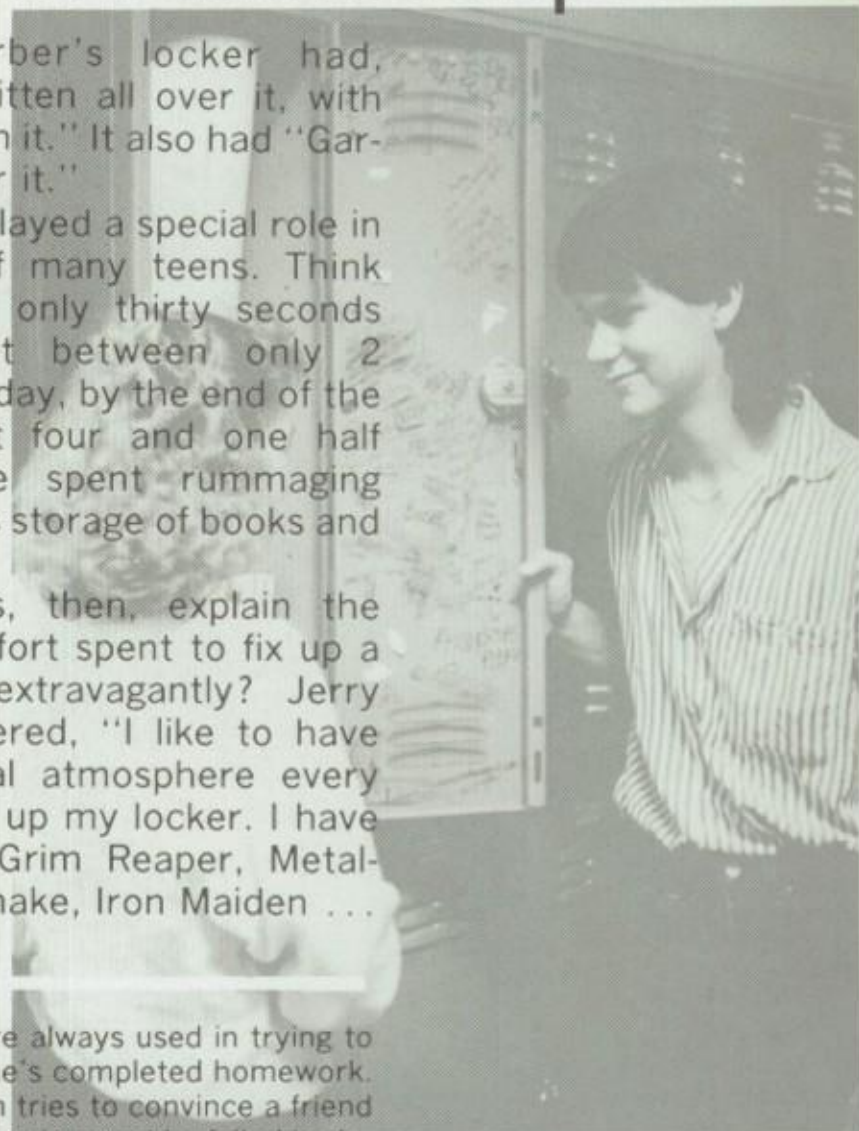

Amazingly enough, a space of mere three total feet of volume allowed so much creativity. The artistic student developed strange new ways to make school feel more like home through locker decorations.

Lori Barber's locker had, "'Steve' written all over it, with his picture in it." It also had "Garfield all over it."

Lockers played a special role in the lives of many teens. Think about it; if only thirty seconds were spent between only 2 classes per day, by the end of the year, about four and one half hours were spent rummaging through this storage of books and memoirs.

Does this, then, explain the time and effort spent to fix up a locker so extravagantly? Jerry Byler answered, "I like to have that musical atmosphere every time I open up my locker. I have posters of Grim Reaper, Metallica, Whitesnake, Iron Maiden ..."

Sweet words are always used in trying to borrow someone's completed homework. Steve Mangham tries to convince a friend to lend him the assignment he failed to do.

Sophomore Who's Who

Kevin Morris represented the distinguished athletes of the sophomore class of 88. He has been in many clubs in his two years in SHS, such as JCL, TAFE, FCA, and Young Life. He was also involved in Student Council in both years and elected as Vice-President at each level. Kevin developed his athletic skills in two years of football and track.

Chimy McElwain was a Freshman Who's Who winner, a Byron Davis Award recipient, a Student Council representative, Secretary of the JV Choir as a freshman, and a member of JCL. She also was a member of the Society of Distinguished American High Students.

Kirby Hocutt was chosen as a Who's Who Winner. Actively involved in many school activities, Kirby has shown great talent in athletics. He played Freshman Football and made the Varsity squad as a sophomore. JV Basketball, Baseball, and Track also fit in his schedule. He was involved in the FCA club and was on Student Council.

Jerilyn Banks, showed various interests ranging from music to athletics. Jerilyn was the Secretary and Treasurer for the Orchestra, played 9th grade Basketball, served on Student Council, JCL, Spirit Committee, and the new program for helping students, SOS.

Bill Wiley was also Freshman Who's Who in '87. He proved to show athletic talent in high school beginning as a freshman in Basketball and Football. His sophomore year gave him the opportunity to participate in Varsity Football. He was also in FCA.

Kathleen Martin was a Freshman cheerleader; in '88, she moved up to JV. As a talented gymnast, she competed in tumbling outside of school. She participated in Art League, TAFE, and Young Life.

His smiling eyes and great personality assured a Who's Who position for Deke Kittrell. The sophomore dedicated a good portion of his second year of SHS to Varsity Tennis; he was on Varsity as a Freshman as well. For two years straight, he was a member of Student Council. Deke was also a member of FCA and Young Life.

Erica Brakebill was active her sophomore year. Erica, was an SHS cheerleader. Also pursuing athletics, she spent her sophomore year running in her second year of Varsity Track. In addition to cheerleading, track, and school, Erica performed on the JV swim team her freshman year. She also was in Young Life.

Freshmen Succeed In Finding Their Bearcat Spirit

“Initiation?” David De-Vega

“It’s a great feeling to finally be a Bearcat, and go to school with my older sister.” Bridgette Wright

“I feel good about being a freshman because all freshmen are cool. SHS is full of good athletes and I’m happy to be one.” Alvis Anderson

“Being a freshman makes me feel like a real man!” Jerry Allen

“Being a freshman feels weird but great at the same time, but sometimes it can make you feel real small.” Andrea Jay

“Coming to a big school was very scary. Now that I’m here I’m not bothered anymore.” Sidney Jones

“Being a freshman makes me feel like I’m being watched all the time.” Gary Bradley

♦ Taking advantage of the spare time before class Wednesday Howard and Alisa Reynolds take time out to read magazines and library books.

“Being a freshman is the best feeling that you could ever have after Junior High!” Avis Edwards

♦ Shannon Van Horn tries desperately to remember what her teacher told her to put down on her paper as she tries to finish her homework.

◆ Trying to keep anyone from copying his test, Brian Baur attempts to cover it up with his arm. Most teachers say they don't have a real problem with cheaters this year.

♥ Very uninterested in the days lesson Mrs. Paige's 4th period Biology class finds other things to do to pass by the time until the bell rings.

During his early morning patrol, Mr. J. Pierce takes a few minutes to watch the sunrise at the beginning of a new day of school. Mr. Pierce rides around the parking lot making sure nothing goes wrong.

Getting a thrill out of doing your classwork is not a feeling shared by most students here at SHS, but to Roderick Hayden it is the thrill of a lifetime.

After giving the excuse that he dropped his homework in the trash can, Randy Martin was forced by his teacher to go outside and find it.

Freshman Who's Who

Greg Bevels was an Honor Roll student and a member of the math team, FCA and Young Life. He was also an active member of freshman football and track.

Cassie Gilbert was a freshman cheerleader and on the "A-Team" in freshman girls' basketball. She was involved in band, was an Honor Roll student, and represented the freshmen in Student Council.

Jennifer Fryhover was an Honor Roll student and an alternate member of Student Council. Her outside school activities included Young Life and FCA.

Matt Robinson was a member of the freshman football, basketball, and baseball teams. He was also an Honor Roll student and attended FCA and Young Life.

Charlie Dannel was a member of the freshman football team, the swimming team, and was on the Honor Roll. He was in Young Life, FCA, and was an active member of Student Council.

Black and White Dots + Silhouettes = Different Kind of Class

Art had four levels. In level one they completed many assignments; for instance, still lifes, silhouettes, pastels of animals & flowers, perspective drawings of classrooms, and marker designs.

Level 1 and 2 were basically the same, but the assignments got harder. They did watercolor pictures, adding ink on top, and landscapes with ink.

Art's level 3 was a little harder than level 2, but the assignments took longer. They did marker assignments of people, black and white dot pictures (which takes about six weeks). During the second semester they did oil paintings and learned about Art History.

In the Art 4 classes the dot pictures were done in color. They also did oil paintings of people.

▲ One of the Art teachers at Sherman High School, Mrs. Mary Hensler reviews a paper for an Art test she is giving the next day. She was also looking at ideas for the Christmas toy drive this year.

▲ Kristy Friend won the Departmental Who's Who for Art. "I feel very honored. Beauty is in the eye of the beholder," says Kristy Friend. She has been interested in Art since the first grade. She has been in art for the last four years. She has won all kinds of awards. Kristy is trying for a career in Commercial Art and Advertising.

What advantages does Art students have over the other students?

- A. they get to make magic with their hands.
- B. they get to eat B lunch
- C. they had a substitute for six weeks
- D. they are down the hall from the band

Answer: A

Drama III - Scene Four, Act Two, Take Six Drama-The 183 Act Play

The Scene: SHS Auditorium
The Time: 5th period, 1:05-2:00 P.M.

The Cast: Bob Watson, teacher, and Drama III. This play was acted out every school day, Monday-Friday as Bob Watson encouraged students to express themselves through acting.

The talented students involved in drama at the high school did many different things. They memorized monologues, dialogues, and parts of plays, and then presented it in front of the class. Their teacher Mr. Watson would then grade them on their presentation, acting ability, memorization skills, and diction.

Drama can be a hard or an easy class depending on your time spent and effort given. "A mere mortal could do it," said Amy Ross.

When asked why she wanted to be in drama, Anne Flippin chuckled, "Because home and family living wouldn't take me."

Most of the students in drama were not planning on being an actor or actress later on in life, but Chris Hewett is thinking about becoming a drama teacher.

► What? This isn't Woodstock! Some members of drama gather around outside the school to relax after rehearsing a play.

▲ Robin Goodpaster won the Drama Who's Who. She commented, "I was proud to be named Who's Who. Just taking part in such a great art form is an honor, and it's something that I really enjoy doing."

▲ "Nothing she does or seems but smacks of something greater of herself." Joey Fuller, David Gibson, and Rob Barrie sit around before class and practice a piece from Shakespeare.

What movie won the Academy Award for Best Picture in 1987?

- A. Platoon
- B. Crocodile Dundee
- C. Children of a Lesser God
- D. Down and Out in Beverly Hills

Answer: A

F From Spelling to Shakespeare and Beyond

How many SHS students have stayed up past midnight trying to finish ten chapters of a book because there was a test the next day? Everyone has! English is the only subject required to be taken all eight semesters of a high school career. In English, students learn not only how to use the language correctly (grammar), but how the language has been used (literature).

As freshmen, grammar and literature were studied equally. Correct punctuation, sentence structure and vocabulary were studied. As the year moved on, literature began with novels and dramas such as Great Expectations and Romeo and Juliet.

As sophomores, grammar was mixed with literature like Julius Caesar and the King Arthur legends. Sophomores started learning the difference between American and British literature.

As juniors, the grammar assignments became less and less and literature assignments became more and more. American literature was emphasized with The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, The Scarlet Letter and poetry reading.

British literature was studied as seniors. With grammar assignments on occasion, seniors read Lord of the Flies, Macbeth, and poets like Chaucer, Shelley, Keats, and Wordsworth.

Things other than reading and writing grammar were done also. Research papers were assigned during the second semester, journals were kept for writing practices, and an occasional movie was shown after reading the book it was based on. Phyllis Davidchik stated about her four years in English, "I've really enjoyed all my English classes in high school. I was really lucky and had excellent teachers. I feel it's one of my best subjects. Too bad that I'm not quite so hot in math."

▲ The pages of Anne Flippin's book are so bright she's gotta wear shades. Kristy Friend and Cary Gillespie are anything but impressed on Anne's enthusiasm to reading.

▲ Writing eleven-sentence paragraphs are such a pain! Miss M. Moser assists Melissa Canady on her paragraph. Melissa had nine sentences and one run-on sentence.

▲ Rob Barrie was the winner for the Departmental Who's Who in English. Rob quoted, "I have of late, but wherefore I know not, lost all my mirth. Shakespeare Hamlet Act II, Scene IV."

▲ Angela Adkins-French Department
"I've learned a lot about their culture and way of life. It's so different from ours. Their schools are very formal unlike ours."

▲ Anne Flippin-Spanish Department-
"Spanish is a doorway into a different world; nay, an escalator taking one up to the third floor of communication. Not really but it is good to be able to speak Spanish just in case you get in trouble with the border police."

▲ Rob Butler-Latin Department "It's helped me in grammar, vocabulary, and the SAT-it's an insight to culture."
▲ Patrick Good-Latin Department-
"Latin is the parent language of most languages. It helps me in vocabulary and will aid me if I take another language."

Foreign Language: The Eloquent Change Of Pace

The Foreign Language Department here at Sherman High School was one that stresses learning as well as exploration. Here at SHS we offered two year programs in Spanish and French. The Latin program was expanded to a three year program in the 87-88 school year.

Most students viewed foreign language as a worthwhile subject that teaches you about different languages and their cultures. Foreign language is almost a necessity to get into a good college these days, so some students have taken it because they have to have it to get into the college of their choice.

Joey Staples stated his reason for taking Spanish like this, "In case I ever get thrown in jail in Mexico, I can get myself out." That was an extreme case but most students like Nickie Commons take foreign language because, "I would like to go to Paris someday; that's the reason I took French."

Students that take a foreign language felt superior to those who don't because they were able to say things no one else understands unless they had taken the same language. Most students liked foreign language because it was a change of pace and it was a little out of the ordinary. Along with the good comes the bad like learning immense vocabulary lists and conjugating verbs of all types.

The goal of the Foreign Language Department was to teach students the basics of different languages and, learn the cultures behind these languages. If that was the goal, it was accomplished with ease and brilliance.

▲ "What in the world does that mean?" says Lisa Cole as she points out a new vocabulary word to classmate Jennifer Tyler.

Which of the following languages is the most popular among Russian foreign language students?

- A. French
- B. Latin
- C. Spanish
- D. English

Answer: D

It's Business As Usual For Sherman High

If the old expression "Business as usual" is true, where do you get the proper training and preparation? The Sherman High business department offers such courses as: business law, personal business management and finance, typing I and II, accounting, and keyboarding.

In courses such as typing, you learn how to type and later learn to improve your typing skills, while in keyboarding, the focus is more on accuracy than speed. Business law and management classes help teach career management for a student and his business, as well as all aspects of business law.

Eric Whooton said, "The business classes I have taken have been a great asset to me as I strive towards college and the possible beginnings of my own business."

♦ The Golden Rule of Typing applies here in the picture at the right. "Look at your book instead of your hands." Consuelo Lara uses this method to become a more successful typist.

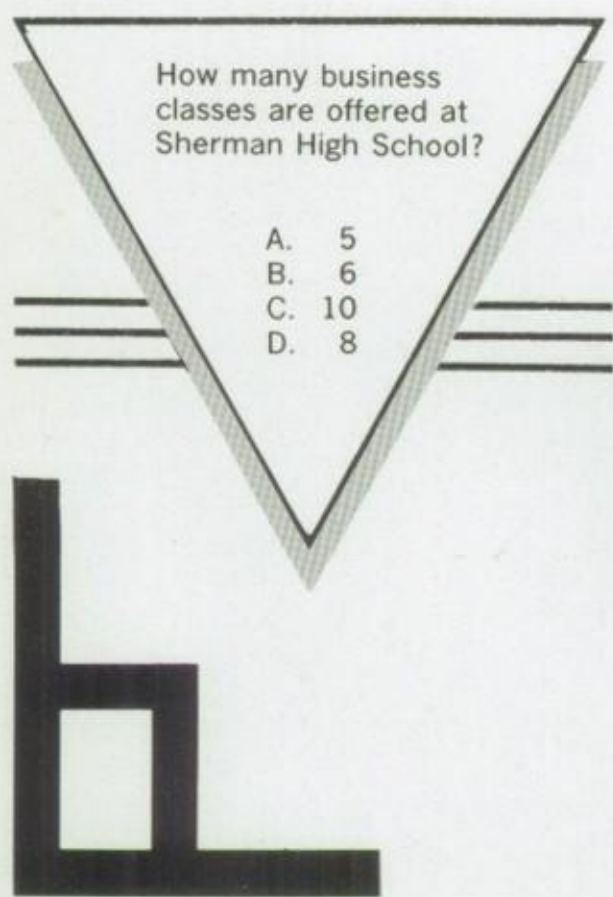

♥ The sting of frustration tingles the spine of Allison Smith as a fatal mistake is made. At this point, correct-o-type is found and any wrongs are made right.

♥ Suzanne Ayers flashes a guilty grin as the camera catches her looking at her hands instead of her book. Penny Foster, however, will not be caught making this mistake.

▲ Tracy Caffey- Business: "I was proud to be named to Who's Who in Business. It made me realize that all the hard work I did paid off." Congratulations, Tracy, on this award!

Answer: B

Calvin Klein and Duncan Hines Help Home Economics Students

◆ Gerald Crawford debates whether to eat what he has cooked, or throw it over his right shoulder for luck. After much contemplation, Gerald digs in.

♥ Greg Griffin can't decide whether to use Jif or Peter Pan. Peanut Butter is an important part in each high school student's diet. Without this nutritious savior, no student would ever be full.

▲ Tiffany Thoms- Home Economics: "It was a great honor to be chosen for Who's Who in Home Economics. These skills will help me later in life as a housewife." Congratulations Tiffany!

The Home Economics classes at Sherman High are a great way to prepare for tomorrow, today, and with a variety of five classes to choose from, students have no way of being left out in preparation for the future.

The classes offered are: consumer and homemaking education, home and family living, child development, clothing and textiles, and foods and nutrition. Among other reasons, students choose these classes because, "... it would be beneficial for the future ..." said Mark Beene.

Debra Edwards said, "I took it so when I get out of high school, I will know what to expect as an independent." Some of the activities for the 1987-88 school year including a mock wedding, adopting a family during the holidays, various fund-raisers including selling calenders and candy, and the ever popular, infamous, yet lovable, egg-babies.

Who of the following is not a Home Economics teacher?

- A. Mrs. Brawley
- B. Mrs. Whaley
- C. Mr. Newman
- D. Mrs. Gillespie

F Industrial Arts Shapes New Talent From Creative Minds

In industrial arts classes students learn to use tools, operate machinery, and follow plans or diagrams. The industrial arts courses become more complicated through the course of time, but there are six basic goals that always remain the same, they are: 1) to develop an understanding and appreciation of industry; 2) to teach the use of industrial tools and machines, 3) to help students learn to work individually and in groups; 4) to encourage creativity; 5) to teach the use of industrial materials and their characteristics; 6) to help students apply their knowledge and skills in industrial arts to other activities.

Mrs. Sabrina Brewster, who has been teaching this subject for two years at SHS is aware of this and enjoys teaching this for a number of reasons. "I have a strong interest in people, love to work with my hands, wanted to major in art in college, enjoy the time off in the summer to be with my family, and like to help produce talent. If you add all this together your outcome would be a shop teacher."

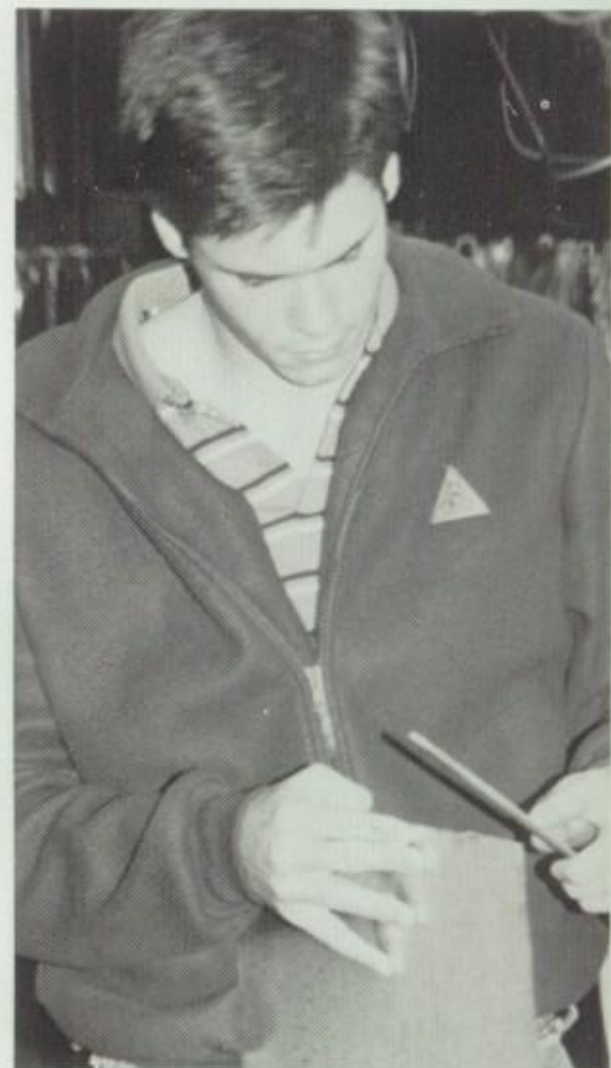

Which term is most used in an industrial arts class?

- A) plan
- B) safety
- C) be quiet
- D) cooperate

▲ In metal shop class, Mrs. S. Brewster checks the progress of Marty Hampton to make sure that the work is correct and to show him what could be done to ensure proper fitting.

◆ While filing a piece of metal, Chad Anderson checks for any rough edges that would inflict any abrasions to someone who rubs their hand on it. When he is finished, it will be a tool tray for hand tools.

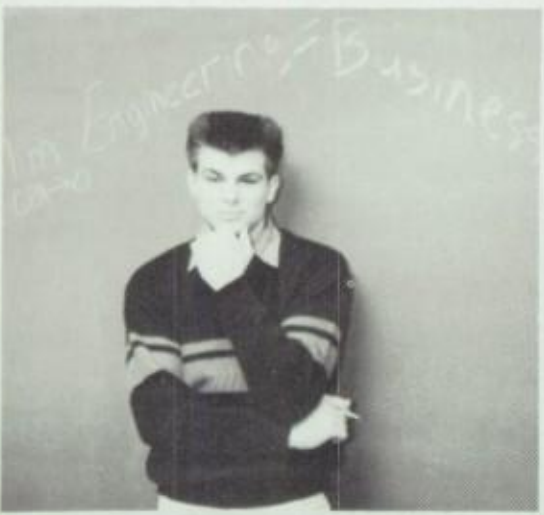

▲ In Mrs. Brewster's 6th period wood shop class, Shelby Cravens shows his wood cutting skills while practicing shop safety. Here he is making some door stops for Mr. Brott.

Answer: B

Mathematics Offer Career Possibilities and Practical Skills

▲ Mr. Williams explains very carefully to his fifth period class the fundamentals of geometry. When asked why he teaches math he simply replied, "Because, I just love math."

▲ Being elected Who's Who for math is not easy for most students. But for Paul Scheibmeir, "Math isn't everything, but it counts."

▲ Lisa Earnest and Stephen Shultis show how much they really enjoy math. "I love math," says Lisa as her calculus grade point average approaches zero!

Mathematics offers many different career choices. Some of these careers may consist of business, government and industry or you may even someday choose to teach mathematics.

As a high school student, you are required to take three years of mathematics. For some people, like Ladonna Reid, your math class may seem easy and you may enjoy it very much, "Math is one of my favorite subjects," she said.

For others it may be very difficult. "When I get out of my frustrating math class my brain is so confused because of all the formula and computation I have to do," said Stan Carver.

But math is a skill we use every day. We may use it to count money; we even use numbers to open our lockers.

Math classes include Algebra I and II, geometry, computer math, MOCE, trigonometry and calculus.

Who invented the first calculator and when?

- A) Mickey Mouse in 1950
- B) Ronald Reagan in 1980
- C) Albert Einstein in 1750
- D) Blaise Pascal in 1642

Answer: D

F Journalism: The Art of Developing the Next NBC News Staff

Journalism! What exactly did this mean? There was no one word to describe it. Some may say it was the art of putting words down on paper. But for the students involved in the Journalism department, which this year consisted of Yearbook I and Yearbook II, it was much more than writing.

Many hours were put into the formation of a good journalist. Time was taken out to review films on yearbook layout and design before the actual process began. The photographers got on the job training taking pictures around the SHS commons and in the classrooms. Reporters interviewed coaches, teachers, and students to get their input on the activities and events of the school year.

Jed Stockton replied, "I really think working on the yearbook was special because one day when I'm old I can look back and say I did this when I was young."

What is the goal of the Journalism department?

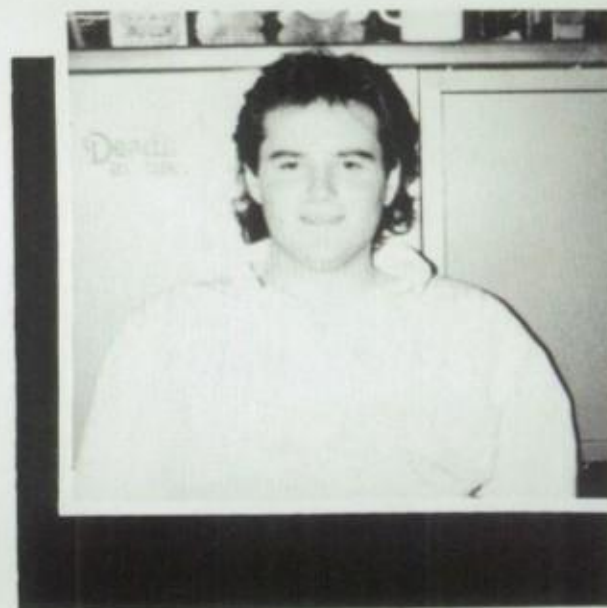

- A. to have a pizza party on Friday
- B. to help put together and contribute to the production of the yearbook
- C. to get out of school early
- D. to play with Devan Icsman

▲ Showing signs of frustration and disgust, Tim Pennington tries to think of some amazing captions to go on his pages.

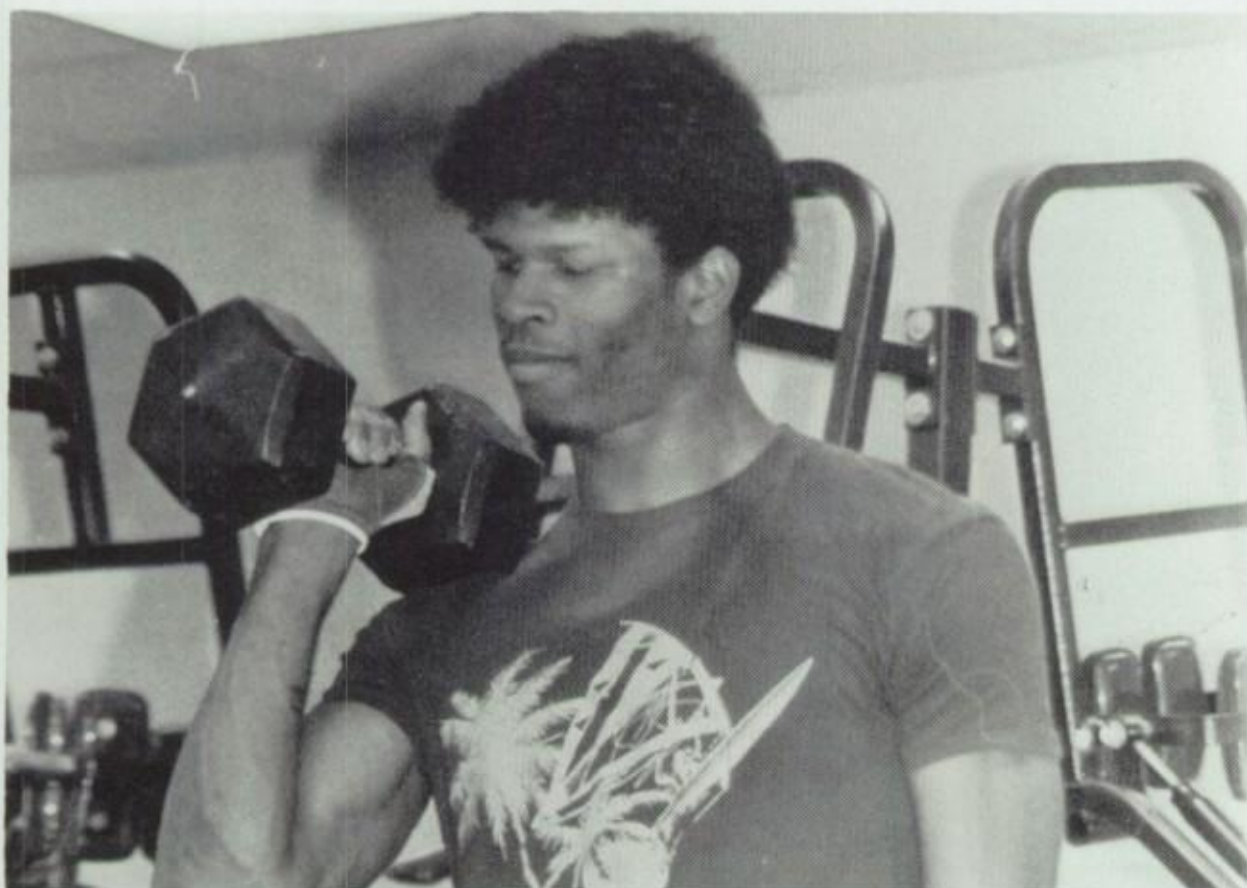

▲ Laura Perez concentrates on her proofing of the pages to make sure that she does not overlook any mistakes.

▲ Mark Linn was chosen the Departmental Who's Who in Journalism. "Being the Editor-in-Chief was a tremendous opportunity for me. The Athenian staff turned out to be not only hard working people, but my best friends. It was always interesting watching different members argue, get mad, and throw things at each other, but it was even better to watch them renew their friendship. The attitudes sometimes made me think I was a zookeeper at the Dallas zoo."

Physical Education Offers a Wide Variety of Activities

▲ Carl Polk lifts dumb bells for the National Weight Test for Coach Herry. Carl Polk says: "Weightlifting is a good sport a lot of students should get into it, but also it is a lot of hard work".

▲ As another part of the physical fitness test, Kevin Bowden performs arm curls to show off his brute strength.

How do most students fit in exercise in their eight hours of school work? Simple, they signed up for the required course of physical education.

There were many exercising skills taught such as the mile run, where you run for a limited time. Some more activities that were offered in physical education were: basketball, volleyball, softball, jazzercise, shuttle run, 100 yrd. run, flex arm hang, sit ups, and push ups.

Two three-week activities are offered every six weeks during a semester, including a three-week physical fitness period.

Archery was another challenging sport physical education students enjoyed doing.

Miss Pam Plunkett said, "Sherman High School has a very unique physical education program due to the fact that it offers students a wide variety of physical activities."

How many semesters of P.E. are required to graduate?

- A. 5
- B. 8
- C. 2
- D. 3

Answer: D

The Sound of Music From Our "D" Hall Strikes New Chords

Do you know who was responsible for those wonderful notes of music that came from "D" Hall during the 1987-88 year? The music department at SHS was responsible for bringing that music to our ears.

This year at Sherman High we welcomed a new band director, Mr. John Bradly. He has promoted a new, positive attitude with the band. All the extra time and effort put in was very rewarding; the band was always there to put the little extra edge in during the pep-rallies, and at every football game.

Choir is a fun course to be involved in at SHS. Choir can also teach sight reading. Choir does many things for the city; they sing for the various organizations and for the school. The course has it's ups and downs, which are hard to get over, but through it all choir has installed a wonderful gift that will be treasured.

Finally, the members in orchestra deserve credit where credit is due. Thanks to the hard work and dedication, their performance has made this year outstanding.

▲ Adam Auten and Kim Bazan walk with pride and with style, as they represent Sherman High at the Denison and Sherman game.

▲ After about three hours, John Reese begins to show signs of fatigue and frustration. The Bearcat Band met on August 7 to begin rehearsals for it's UIL contest show.

▲ ORCHESTRA "Music has always been an outlet for me to just relax from school. Also music has helped build me up when I feel down. Competing with other musicians has taught me about all types of people, and it has taught me how to win and lose. Music gives me a sense of enjoyment. Like I mentioned last year, music is most deffinately a treasured gift from God."

AMY ROBERTS

◆ Singing alto and soprano are Amy Beth Jones, Shannon Corley, Lisa Reber, and Sherry Coleman. The A Cappella Choir took part in entertainment of the Red River Arts Festival.

BAND

Band has given me the chance to do what I like best, playing music. It has also allowed me the chance to have a talent that I can keep and possibly use for the rest of my life.

CHOIR

I consider being chosen Who's Who for choir a great honor. I would like to thank Mr. Gohlke and my fellow choir members for all their support and friendship. Without them I may not have made the decision to become a music educator. I want to be able to teach youth how to express their emotions and feeling through music as I do. Music is an art that cannot be replaced with anything else in the world. Be sure and enjoy it. AMY JONES

Can you name the theme played by the band in the pep rally?

- A. "The Pee Wee Herman"
- B. "Jumping Jack Flash"
- C. "Nothing's Gonna Stop Us Now"
- D. "Jump"

Answer C:

F Students Shocked By Fun Labs - Despite "Accidents"

Darwin and Mendeleev would've smiled proudly at students who studied science here at SHS. These students had classes, of intro. and regular physical science; Intro., I., and II. of Biology; Chemistry I and II; or physics, to choose from.

"I thought I'd gross out when it came to dissecting," remembered Jennifer Hudson of her Biology I class, "I didn't mind though — I don't know why."

Teachers attempted to make labs exciting for the students — sometimes tasty.

"We made candy canes at Christmas," Clint Jones replied as one of the best things in chemistry, "It was kind of soggy."

The major downfall, though, were the constant "accidents". Labs usually resulted in at least a few crashes of glass.

Jennifer Wiesedeppe recalled, "I spilled organic dye on Annette's (Jones) skirt! It was ruined."

But then, who said teenagers were perfect?

▲ Marsha Banks, chosen for biology's Who's Who, concluded that, "My interest in biology has helped me make a career choice. I hope to enter the field of medicine some day."

▲ Who's Who Winner, Rob Butler, spoke that his Physical Science classes, "shows you how complex even the simplest things are. I hope to be in a field related to physics."

What science teacher graduated from East Texas State University?

- A. Mr. D. Merideth
- B. Mrs. M. Merideth
- C. Mr. D. Manuel
- D. Mr. B. Estes

Answer: C

Future Decisions Made By Understanding Social Studies

"To control your future, you have to know your past and yourself." These wise words were spoken by Robin Ritchie who realized the importance of social studies.

Courses available to students included U.S. history, world history, world geography, government, economics, psychology, sociology, and college history.

Attempting to make class easier to learn, teachers planned special activities for their students.

"We went to the synagougue," Jennifer Wiessedeppe remembered of her world history class, " (afterwards) we played in the park. That was my favorite part!"

Many teachers applied the drilling method effectively.

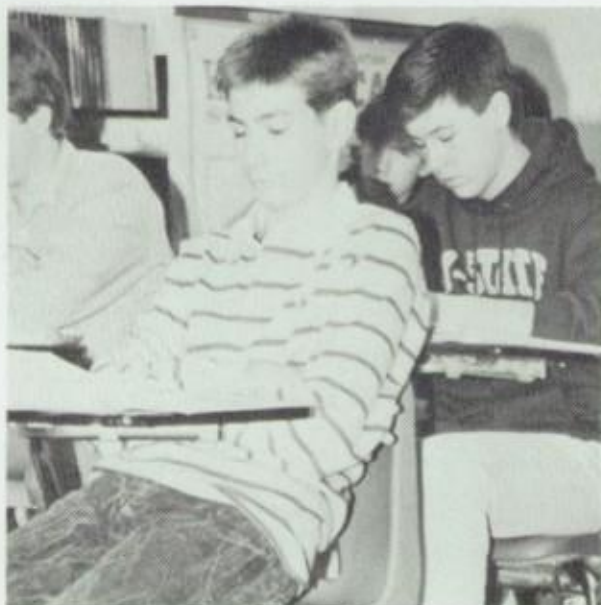

"Let's see, the Romanov's son had hemophilia," recalled Angie Miller, "and then they all got shot."

"There's at least one thing I remember from Miss Loop's class — the states and capitals!" Jennifer Hudson chuckled.

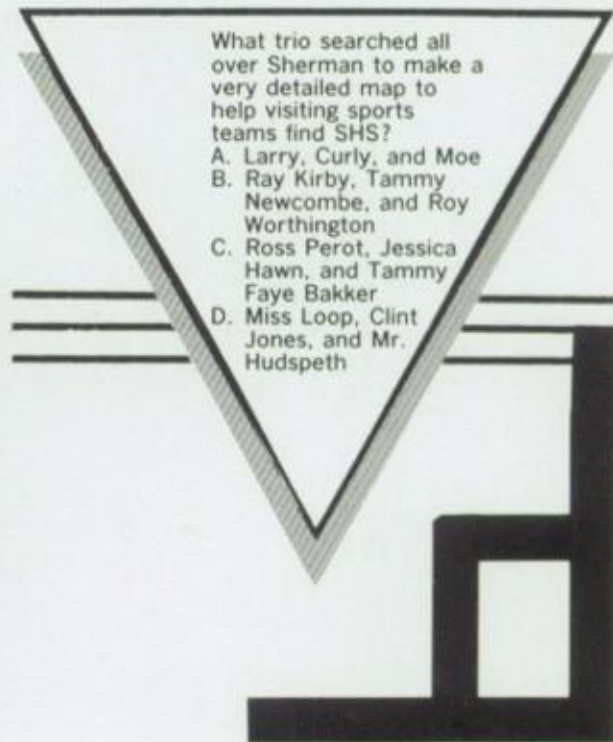

▲ "The French Revolution began in 1789 because of the people's discontent that ... " 4th period world history with Mr. M. Mitchusson taught students like Molli McGahron all about the world.

♥ Zzzzzz ... Naptime sounded good to most students such as Bud Wiesedeppe and Richard Brown, but they knew that one day's worth of snoozing would equal a hard task of catching up in world history class.

What trio searched all over Sherman to make a very detailed map to help visiting sports teams find SHS?
A. Larry, Curly, and Moe
B. Ray Kirby, Tammy Newcombe, and Roy Worthington
C. Ross Perot, Jessica Hawn, and Tammy Faye Bakker
D. Miss Loop, Clint Jones, and Mr. Hudspeth

▲ "Social Studies is important to me because almost anything a person decides to do with his future is affected by what you learn there," described Who's Who Winner, Holly Williams, of her classes.

Bang, Clang, Crank, Buzz, Clink Resound In East Wing

"Bang, Bang, Clang!" It's one of many sounds you hear in vocational classes. Others include "crank," "buzz", and "clink," which can be heard in such classes as cosmetology, drafting, and auto mechanics.

Other classes in the vocational department are: word processing, electronics, building trades, agriculture courses. Cooperative courses include: marketing, office, health, and home economics.

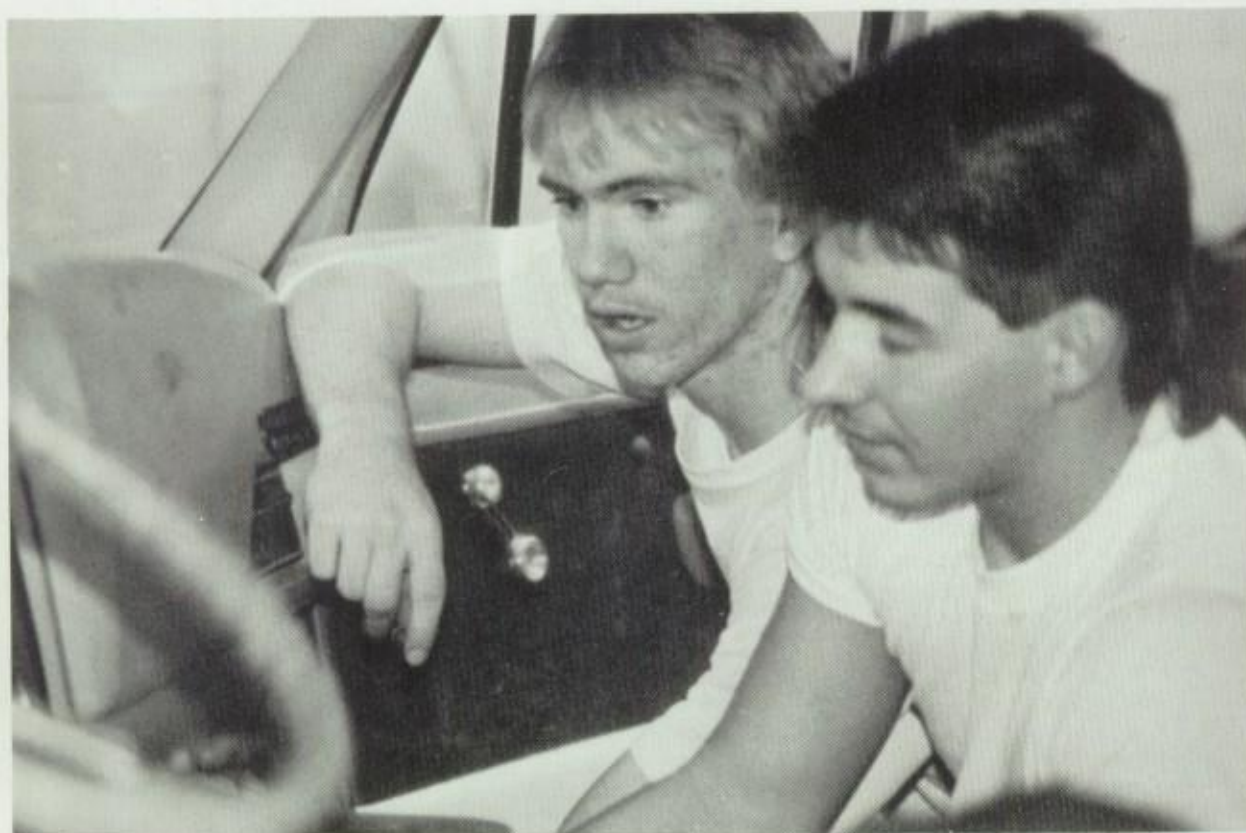

"Most teachers enjoy teaching vocational classes because it is a definite challenging experience," says Mrs. Sabrina Brewster, a vocational teacher here at SHS.

While more students think vocational classes are fun, and enjoyable, Debra Edwards thinks many like to "get out of school early and get a little extra money."

Students are given a lot of responsibility; for example, the responsibility to go to work and get your homework done, also.

"To sum it all up, vocational classes are a lot of fun, you get a lot of experience for on-the-job training, spending money, and sometimes getting out of school early," says Mr. Dorvin Johnson, drafting teacher.

▲ After doing a carburetor overhaul on Mrs. Henslers van, Jackie Brand and James Crisp attempt to replace the engine cover back through the cab of the van.

▲ Lori Ragsdale concentrates very unyieldingly as she tries to get everything exactly right when rolling the pincurl's for her board set on her mannequin.

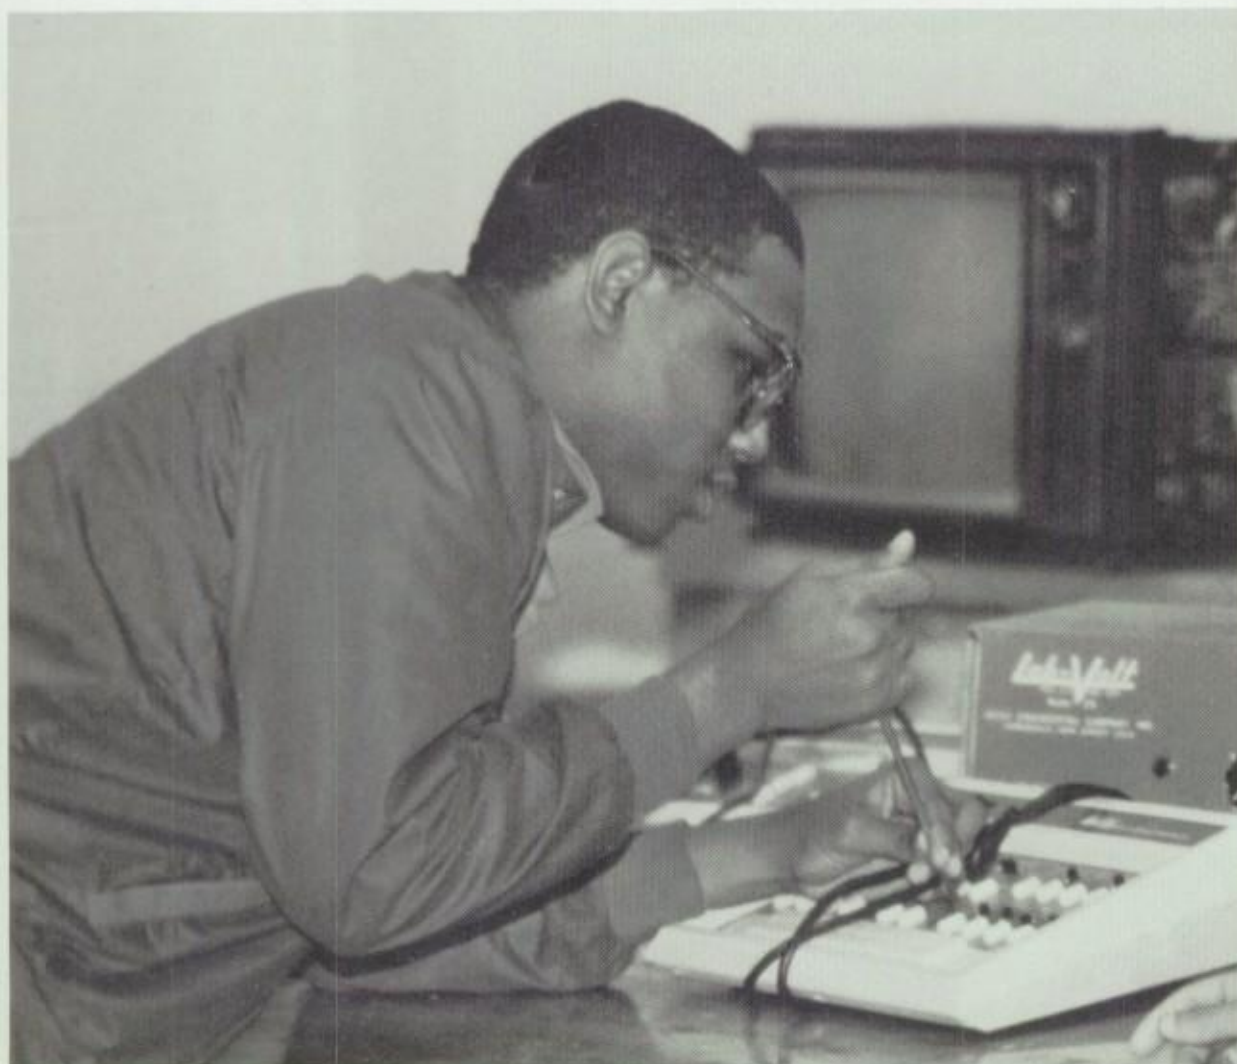

▲ "Being a part of Industrial Arts gives you a look at what is in store for you in the changing world of technology that we live in today," said Scott Meek the winner of the Who's Who for Industrial Arts.

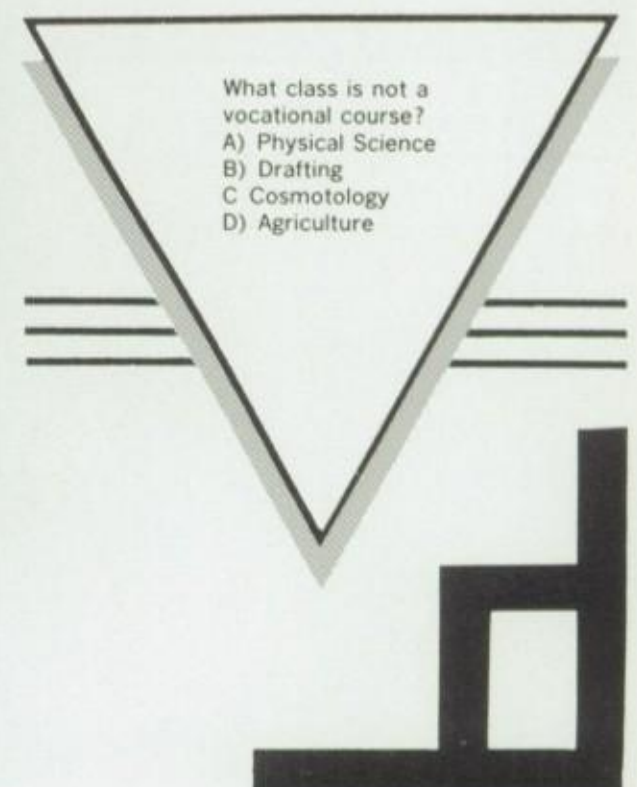

▲ Tim Polk, a two year auto mechanics student working diligently, doesn't even take time out from working on the engine of the car to pose for the camera.

Answer: A

▲ Glenn Blount chose Jeff Coble to represent Vocational Agriculture. Jeff says that he has enjoyed the new people and good friends he has met through this course. He feels that Mr. Blount was an excellent influence not only on his achievements in Agriculture but also in his successful high school years. Jeff also says that Vocational Agriculture has been the highlight of his high school career.

▲ Walter Cole chose Jimmy Polk to represent Auto Mechanics in Departmental Who's Who. Jimmy feels that Auto Mechanics has taught him responsibility, skills in auto maintenance, and the know-how you need to make it in today's high-tech world. He says that he has enjoyed immensely the friends he has met in Auto Mechanics. Jimmy would like to thank Mr. Cole for giving him this honor.

▲ Cosmetology was represented in Departmental Who's Who by Kristi Mannery. Kristi says that the past two years in cosmetology have been very exciting for her. She appreciates the help her fellow classmates have given her and the help of her teacher Mrs. Baldwin for showing her styling techniques. Kristi feels that all students should be involved in a vocational course in some way or another.

▲ "Through Health Occupations, I have learned a way of life, that I will use throughout my nursing career." Jami Robinson was chosen Who's Who for HOSA.

▲ Melissa McMeley was chosen this year to represent Marketing and Distributive Education in Departmental Who's Who. Melissa feels that through her training in this course she has gotten valuable job training that perhaps other people have not obtained. She also stated that the program has helped her choose a career which best suits her, and feels that she is one step ahead of everyone else.

▲ Heather Young represents Home Economics this year in Departmental Who's Who. Heather has enjoyed Home Economics because it is a practical course in which you learn a skill which you will definitely be able to use in the future. As Heather puts it, "I enjoy Home Economics because I can go to school and get experience I can definitely use later in my life."

Just When You Thought It Was Safe to Drive

▲ No, this isn't the electric chair. This is a simulator, which was used in the course to teach the basics of safe driving.

▲ Kelly Wilcoxon should remember to always close all the doors before driving. By the look on Kelly's face, driver's ed isn't all that bad.

▲ Julie Mora prepares to get out of a driver's ed car after encountering a hair-raising ride. For once, Julie was thankful for seat belts.

How does it feel to be in driver's education and working towards your driver's license? "It feels great," says Chris Linn, who had driver's education second period.

Driver's education, better known as driver's ed, teaches you the basics of being a safe and qualified driver. The students use the State of Texas Driver's Handbook along with films and simulators, plus hands-on experience.

The most exciting part of the class is, "actually getting to drive the cars," remarks Rob Grooms. Although many students are nervous, there is nothing like taking control of the car for the first time.

Probably, the most boring part of the class was working in the simulators, many students remarked. The simulator is a stationary, car-like unit that works with a film. While the student watches the film, they must make the correct actions in the unit.

So if you want to drive, driver's education is a great way to get the experience and skills necessary to do so.

Homecoming 87: A Week Of Madness!

"I've Had the Time of My Life."

The reign of Homecoming Queen is one of prestige and pride. This year more happened than just the crowning at half-time. A new record was made here at SHS when Tiniya Anderson was the first black ever to be crowned Homecoming Queen. This was a great honor for her and she still can't believe it.

The thirty-five candidates were chosen by the different clubs and organizations and they were presented to the school in the annual Homecoming Variety Show. They were then introduced to the public in the parade held in downtown Sherman. The five finalist were announced at the Variety Show, also. They were Tiniya Anderson, Nancy Hamm, Shanna Corley, Robin Ritchie, and Kristy Friend. The five finalist were then again introduced at the Homecoming Pep-Rally and the queen was crowned at the varsity football game against Marcus that same evening.

The Saturday following the game the Homecoming Dance was held in the SHS commons and the theme was "I've Had the Time of My Life," the theme to the movie Dirty Dancing. The festivities were capped off with the playing of the school theme- "Nothing's Gonna Stop Us Now."

Who was the 1985 Homecoming Queen?

- A. Monique Green
- B. Jeanne Avard
- C. Raquel Olivares
- D. Shannon Tweed

Answer: A

During the Homecoming pep-rally five faculty members were put on ladders during the spirit chant and greeted with freshly baked lemon pies. Coach J. Miller seemed to enjoy his very much.

Nothing's Gonna Stop Us Now!

The Ax Is Back and Here to Stay!

If anyone could build a spirit meter they would have to build a big one to measure the spirit that the SHS football team brings out. The spirit of the team and the student body was very evident at three crucial points this season: the win against Denison, the Homecoming victory over Marcus, and the win against Wichita Falls on the road.

Second year head coach G.A. Moore, Jr., said, "This year was a more successful season in that the guys were more aggressive." He also added that the biggest highlight this season was the win over Denison.

Some key injuries to the Bearcats this season were: Center Michael Price, knee injury; Linebacker Chad Harris, knee injury; Quarterback Jason Burleson, ankle injury; and Byron Whitfield, knee injury. Along with injuries hurting the Bearcats, was the fact that the district was a lot stronger.

All football teams have plays that click and produce yardage, but also there are plays that stumble and bumble around. In Coach Moore's opinion, the most effective play was "the spring out pass", and the least effective was "trap plays."

Coach Moore said that the whole team made great improvements and worked hard, but in the future he would like to see the team more aggressive on the field. With the great coaching skills of Coach Moore and his staff, the future for the Bearcats could be one of champions and championships. The closing statement made by Coach Moore was, "the dictionary is the only place success comes before work."

One for all and All for Winning

JV Block, Kick, and Race to 8-2

What's it like to venture forth into 103 degree weather with little breeze or shade wearing a heavy steam-trap on your head and pads on your body and run into each other with tremendous force until you can't get up? What's it like to run until you throw-up in the summer hours when others relax on the beach? What's it like to want to win so bad that you can taste it?

What's it like to be so close to fame and the recognition of varsity but yet so far away? Or to sum it all up, what's it like to be a JV football player?

Practice starts during the sweltering summer days when they work during 2-a-days. When school starts, the hours come after school. They sweat and scream in pain for what? The love of the game, and a common goal: to be the best and to win.

The JV A team finished out its season at 8-2, and the B team at 7-3. The credit for this year's success is given to Coach Crutsinger.

"He more than coached us, he motivated us to better ourselves on the field, and in the classroom," said Chip Jarvis.

▲ The sun shines with a bright intensity as Cederic Boyd of the JV A team sets up. The Bearcats execute a play during a scrimmage at Bearcat Stadium early in the year.

It's Dedication and Determination

Freshman Football Sets Sights for Future

▲ With the sun in their eyes, spectators look on during the late afternoon as the Freshman Bearcat football team proceeds to trample all over the opposing team.

Discipline, determination, and the desire to win were three of this year's outstanding aspects of the freshman football team.

The football team highly praised the coaching staff, Coach Meredith, Crutsinger, Davis and Herrace, for their dedication, patience, loyalty, and hard work to this year's successful season.

The team's hard work showed through the exertion of the long morning and afternoon practices in 103 degree weather with no breeze and no shade, in suits that make it 10 degrees hotter.

Charlie Dannel, Offensive Guard, and Linebacker of the freshman football team said, "There's a lot more expected out of the players this year since 8th grade." Dannel also said he was ecstatic when he caught an interception and ran 3 yards to help the team make a winning touchdown.

Brent Harris, Quarterback, also believed that the good aspects of the team were derived from the determination to improve their playing as well as themselves, he said.

When Dannel and Harris were asked to describe this year's season, Dannel replied by saying, "I have high expectations for the Freshman, as they go up to J.V. and Varsity. I believe if we apply ourselves more, and try harder, we could go to the state." Harris confidently stated, "This year has matured the entire Freshman team, and in the future will help us achieve higher levels of Football."

The Freshman team shows great promise for the next 3 years to come, and will learn the importance of teamwork to make them successful as they proceed in football and in life. Great work, Freshmen!

Varsity Spikes the Competition

Lady 'Cats Net 7-6 Season

Varsity Volleyball spikes the competition as they end this year's season with the record 7-6.

Miss Pam Plunkett as head coach this year said the most challenging game was against Keller because they were first in district — a tough team to compete with. Lady Bearcats did a great job competing against them.

From the beginning, the girls' volleyball had a noticeable advantage. All players were enthusiastic and ready to win. The girls found themselves practicing long hours and concentrating before each game making sure they did their best.

This was Coach Plunkett's youngest and most experienced team, and they still made greater progress than any team of her coaching career. The girls used determination in practice to add the finishing touches in each game.

With determination, hard work, and lots of practice, this fast moving, unpredictable game is rapidly becoming a popular sport.

▲ Amy Jones sets the ball high to a teammate while falling backwards for another Lady Cat point.

Freshmen Volleyball Claim 3rd in District

Volleyball is a sport which requires great skill and most of all teamwork.

Coach "Chico" Aleman felt that this year's team was a good example of both of these traits.

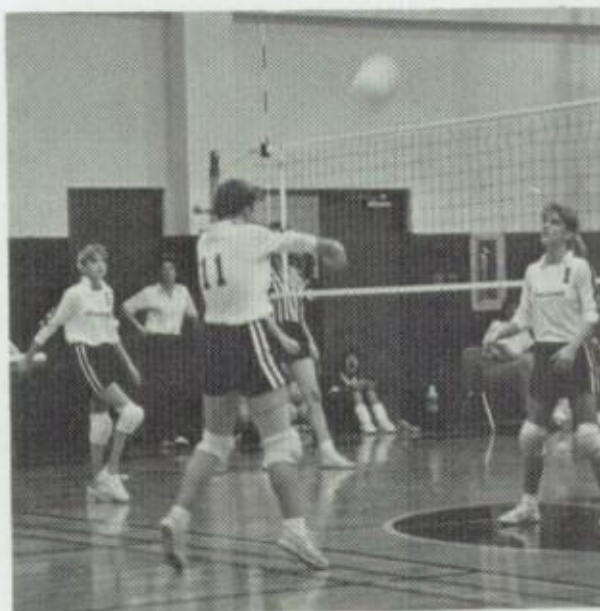

Although Coach Aleman feels the crowd support could have been better, he says that this season has been "fantastic".

With an outstanding record of 10-4, the team qualified for third in their district.

Coach Aleman cited outstanding players for the year as: Valerie Bailey, Malina Bernard, Gwenet Bevels, and Bridget Wright.

Coach Aleman also says that the future of volleyball in Sherman High looks good because of this year's freshman team.

◆ Amy Mayer sets the ball up for Malina Bernard as Coach Plunkett watches the team on to another victory.

J.V. Volleyball: A Sport of Skill

▲ J.V. Volleyball player Audrey Mask returns the ball during the J.V. warm-up practice.

Volleyball is becoming a very popular sport for girls. It requires athletes who are skilled and have a lot of self-discipline, according to head coach L. Page. Volleyball is a sport where all the players can have a positive input. A player may be short, but can pass well or serve. The sport also requires everyone to communicate as a team.

"Sherman had a very good season. We had a winning record that proved to teams around that we were tough competition. The girls had talent that shined at the end of the season, giving the coaches a good feeling about next season," said Coach Page.

Sherman this year had a season of ups and downs, but all in all they had a fine season. One of Sherman's high points of the season was when they were tied with Denton for 3rd place in District, but unfortunately were defeated.

"Overall the team played well together, but there were times when the team was unpredictable, such as when Sherman beat #2 Weatherford to be tied with Denton for 3rd place," says Coach P. Plunkett.

Crowd support determined a lot of games for Sherman. When there wasn't enough, Sherman descended, but when the support was there, Sherman did great things with it; for example, when they beat McKinney in the Denison tournament.

Volleyball is not a backyard sport anymore; it has become one of the favorite sports for women.

Excitement Grows, the Energy Flows

Varsity's Spirit Really Shows

Sweat rolling off her brow, heart pounding to the beat of the cheer racing through her head, and hundreds of teen onlookers staring, the pretty girl began her attempt, her trial run, her try-out at becoming a glamorous varsity cheerleader.

"That's probably the hardest thing about cheerleading," recalled Sarah Dannel, "It's devastating if you make a mistake."

Luckily, at least ten girls at SHS had the courage to look beyond this first fright.

These girls began filling their calendars during the summer months with a week-long camp at SMU June 27-31. The girls, along with the Billy Bobs, practiced and learned everyday until near exhaustion.

"It was frustrating," she remembered, "It was hard to get along during the day."

Exhaustion though, didn't stop them from having fun. As a final goodbye to SMU, the girls had a party in Heather Brennan's and Kris Friend's room, the one furthest from the dorm mother. Hoping not to get caught, they carried Mrs. Jane Burleson's mattress down the hall to their room. Tiniya Anderson broke the tension though, when she, dressed in shower cap and nightie, flew over the mattress and splattered on top.

Coming home, they faced football games, pep rallies, basketball games, sign making ... the list seemed endless.

"You get to be real close with the athletes and coaches," pointed out Kris Friend, "It teaches you how to meet people."

Libby Vaughn admitted, "It gives me self-confidence."

▲ Don't look down! Luckily, varsity cheerleaders Heather Brennan and Katie Watson weren't afraid of heights as they hung banners around the school.

♦ Waving the "poms", Katie Watson and Heather Brennan flash their pearly whites to an anxious crowd. Spirit ran high this year thanks to the Varsity Cheerleaders.

♦ Trying to beat that summer heat and getting nowhere — except better! Cheerleaders and Billy Bob Boys spent a week in June at SMU. "It was lots of fun," says Sarah Dannel.

SHS Spirit Linked to the Lucky Seven

Q. D. Leads His Troops

How so you spell SHS Spirit? Do these names ring a bell: Robin, David, Jeff, Shawn, Kash, Mark, and Lang? If not, think back to the first of the year to the pep-rallies and football games. Sound familiar now? Right! These were the Billy Bob Boys and the Mascot.

These talented students helped to create spirit throughout the school. They cheered in the pep-rallies, football games, basketball games, parades, and any place they could find to booster the morale of the student body.

Although their work looks easy, it's really very hard. They're always under strenuous pressure wondering what they're going to do next, if they're going to make the stunt, and trying not to mess up.

There were a few embarrassing moments too. Shawn said, "When Mark and I didn't get Kelly up in a stunt was my most embarrassing moment."

One of the most enjoyed pep-rallies this year was the "California Raisins." Here the Billy Bobs dressed up as raisins and performed to, "I Heard It Through the Grapevine."

J.V. Cheerleaders Get Excited!

If you wanted to talk about an exciting, hard working, fun loving group, you could always start a conversation around the J.V. Cheerleaders.

This six-member squad of sophomore spirit-raisers enjoys the everyday life of cheerleading: going to home and out-of-town games, "... if you want to call Denison out of town!" says Kathleen Martin, making signs and cheering for the team, and basically boosting spirit!

But with this everyday life comes everyday practice. Long, tiring hours of it. And not just during football season. Throughout the rest of the year, the J.V. practiced everyday for at least an hour, and on Wednesdays for two hours. They also cheer at the J.V. Basketball and Volleyball games, practice break-throughs, and decorate cars.

"This has been one of my most fun-filled years," says Ashlynn Russey, "because there are six of us and we get to have fun! It's getting to be part of the team, she says, and not just another face in the crowd.

After this comes Varsity Cheer- leading! "But what happens if you don't make it?" we asked. "I think I might cry," replied Kathleen Martin. She and the other members have decided to keep with the SHS spirit regardless of the tryouts by joining clubs, sports, or the Spirit Committee if they don't make Varsity.

▲ With her pom-poms blowing in the wind, Ashlynn Russey attempts to rustle up some of that sophomore Bearcat Spirit! Says Ashlynn, "I love getting out and cheering!"

♥ "... 21 ... 13 ... 42 ... 86 ... 12 ... 19 ... HIKE!" Kathleen Martin prepares to throw a long, LONG pass. Kathleen plans to be a linebacker for UCLA.

Time To Show What You've Got, Girls!

Freshmen Make a Lasting Impression

A intense look of concentration and possible fear envelopes Katie Vogelsang's face as she squats on Chantaye Stapleton's shoulders in preparation to do a shoulder stand.

Maren Raasch soars high atop Bearcat stadium in a bird, as Jennifer Fryhover shows her marvelous dental work with a big grin, and Heather Huff looks in awe at Maren.

A slender, innocent-looking figure dressed in the jolliments of a cheerleading outfit, stepped forward in the shadows, unseen from the crowd of Hyper High Schoolers. Although the crowd's screams were louder than noise itself, the girl heard nothing but the beating of her own heart.

Her mind ran a precision of cheers and gymnastic stunts. She had only one goal in her sight: go before a crowd of patriotic animals, and raise their spirits even higher.

For a brief snip of a moment, her mind wandered, wandered back to all that had gone into this moment. The time, hardwork, strength, and commitment it had taken to make it a reality. Nothing was going to stop her now. This is the struggle of freshman cheerleaders.

What is a freshman cheerleader? Well, it's the things listed above, plus effort, determination, and courage.

The definition is different for everyone. Katie Vogelsang says, "A freshman cheerleader is someone who is willing to give their time, ability, and devotion to the teams." Big words that sound good on paper can be used, or you could just simply say, as Heather Huff did, "A freshman cheerleader is someone who likes to lead cheers!"

Cheerleaders have been stereotyped as the stuck-up snobs of the school. The fish cheerleaders, showed there was a reason for them besides just popularity. "Cheerleaders aren't just a popular or false image; they're people too. There's a purpose for everything. God sees to that," stated Tammie Rawls.

Jennifer Fryhover added, "Cheerleading is helpful, with all the spirit and enthusiasm. Involved it'll really help you in life."

There were twelve, this year, under the direction of Mr. Q.D. Williams and Mrs. J. Burleson. They cheered home as well as away games, participated in several school pep-rallies, one city-wide pep-rally, and generally helped everyone.

♥ "Heather Huff, come on down! you're the next contestant on The Price is Right!" Actually Heather is really showing us how she can cheer as she is being introduced.

Hi-Steppers Had One Of Its Best Years.

Sixty-three junior and senior girls here at SHS did more than just participate in a drill-dance team. They experienced togetherness in a way that taught them how to work together but just as importantly, if not more, they had fun.

Angie Miller admitted that being a Hi-Stepper showed her how to, "be able to work in a group and work together."

"I learned how to get along with people better", agreed Ila Armstrong.

After the hectic football season that involved two weekly practices, at least one routine every week to be performed, and the Homecoming Variety Show, new members were chosen to replace the seniors at the semester.

On the other side of the semester, spring consisted of Hi-Stepper Highlights, a major fundraiser for the team. From these funds, plus other sources, they proudly danced in the first new uniforms in eight years.

The officers spent many excess hours learning, planning, and making up routines. They had to sometimes act as judges, while remaining friends; it was easier said than done, but with a good attitude, they succeeded.

"The line girls work just as hard and deserve just as much credit as the officers," Captain Robin Ritchie honestly added.

Hi-Stepper patriotism rose high along with the American flags they held at the 1987 Homecoming game. Three members, such as Annette Jones, Melody Hayes, and Monica Ferman stood between each flag corps member.

Teamwork and Unity —

Keys to Success

Cats Claw for 3rd Place

When the wave of electricity and excitement swept through the double doors of the Bearcat gym, and the fans of the Cats screamed their support with the cheerleaders, and the intense heat of bodies radiated throughout the gym like a furnace, out raced the hard bodies of the Varsity Basketball team, who, with their whole mind and body, were psyched up to win the game.

"There's always a lot of pressure to win," Trevor Howard plainly explained, "it pushes you to do things you didn't think you could."

Winning prevailed in the 87-88 season with a 10-4 in district play and 17-11 overall. The Bearcats retained 3rd place in district after a tight loss to Marcus 73-67 on February 12.

"Playing against high quality competition," Jason Burleson remembers, gave the Cats a fight for their victories, but gave the players valuable experience for the future. "It wasn't disappointing."

With a new year, a new team, a new record to set, especially with last year's district title to match, the team had a few hurdles to jump, or in this case, a few free throws to make.

"It's been slow," Trevor Howard summed up, "it took us a while to get to know each other, but once we did, it was easy!"

In return for the Cat's show, the fans yelled their support hoping to help the team. But did it?

"Yeah, when you've got a bunch of fans yelling, it gets you pumped up — makes you play harder," Howard Harris informed that was the reason for such a great season.

Junior Varsity Racks Up The Points

Basketball, Oh what a game! Where else can you see a bunch of sweaty guys chase up and down a court, to try to retrieve a little orange ball, and try to make it in a hoop.

But, basketball is much more than that. Basketball requires skill and dexterity of the player.

Teamwork was also an added and an expressed addition to the J.V. basketball team here at Sherman High.

The J.V. Cats ended their season with a very good record of second place in district.

Lady Cats are Bouncing Back!!

Varsity Girls are Giving 100%!

Ten seconds left on the clock — a barrage of blocks, turns, dribbles and passes takes place amidst a swirling mass moving swiftly toward one end of the court. Suddenly, a single figure slips through the mesh of arms and legs. Leaping Lizards! It's a Lady 'Cat bouncing the ball and swishing it through the basket just before the buzzer screams! The crowd goes wild and a victorious team heads off the court.

Moments like these are an exciting addition to the world of Girl's Varsity Basketball. However, like all other sports, it has its low points: hard exercise and long hours of practice, accidents and injuries, and of course, losses.

The Girl's Varsity team practices everyday during the season.

"It's lots of hard work," says Lisa Sprouse, "you have to work at it and give it 100%, but it's worth it."

These girls are also used to a various assortment of "ouchies," ranging from scrapes, cuts and bruises, to sprains and breaks. "It's damaging to the team because of the time it takes for the players to heal," says Coach Rogers.

Yes, "ouchies" are bad, but probably more disappointing is losing. Why? Because "losing all the time after working so hard gives you a feeling that it was all for nothing," says Leane Coppick. Try to keep these things in mind and next time you see them perform, realize that they're out there for us giving it all they've got!!

J.V. Strolls to District: Seven-Six

Bearcats Have 14-10 Record

The girls Junior Varsity Basketball team had a very good season. The first starters were Audrey Mask #22, Becky Smith #23, Michelle Underwood #44, Michelle Meyer #35, and Tonya Kyle #33. They had some good help from off of the bench. "We had many ups and downs, but we had always managed to stick with our goals. We stuck together through thick and thin; and finished our season with twelve wins and ten losses and first- six in district play. We set out to be the best that could be," stated Audrey Mask.

Their toughest team this year was Weatherford. The first game was won thirty-one to thirty, the second game lost fifty-six to eighteen, and the third game lost fifty-six to forty-six.

♦ Camilla Ziyad of J.V. girls concentrates during a practice before a game against Gainesville which we won fifty to thirty-two.

♦ J.V. Michelle Underwood gets ready to shoot during a practice before a home game in which she did exceptionall well. That night they played against Wichita Falls Rider and defeated them fifty-four to thirty-six.

The Freshman A and B girls Basketball Team did exceptionally well this year. A Team ended their year with eight wins and nine losses; the B team ended their year with three wins and five losses.

Coach Tina Brawner, who coaches the girls Freshman Basketball team was new at Sherman High School. This was Coach Brawner's first year of coaching as well, she stated.

"I enjoyed working with the girls and going out of town with them and getting closer with them. They were hard workers throughout the year."

Coach Brawner said if she had to play all the games over she would definitely make some changes. This year's toughest challenger was Clark, both A and B Teams were defeated by them.

A Team's Adrien Coble scored twenty-one points, had 10 steals and dished out five assists to lead Sherman's Freshman girls' A team to a sixty-six and forty-three victory over Plano Williams on a Friday night game. Coble was one of five players who turned in solid performances.

Casey Gilbert added fourteen points and three steals, Nathalia Spencer contributed seven points, nine steals and ten rebounds and Rebecca Bradshaw had nine points.

The Freshman A and B Team had great performances on the court. "It was hard work but we had a great time doing it; we all became a big family," said Adrian Coble.

Soccer Shoots for the Head

Wins District Championship

The Sherman High Varsity Soccer team had a very outstanding year as they ended their season with a 15-4-1, a first place in district, and a first ever play-off berth.

"Accomplishing our goals as a team took a lot of hard work and dedication, but our athletes had set up their minds earlier in the year to make this a successful season", said Coach C. Aleman.

"We try to give 100% effort in all our games, which will make us stand above all the rest," Kurt Chessir.

"Winners make it happen, and losers let it happen," said John Thomas.

Skill Settles on '87-'88 J.V. Soccer

Kicking Off the Season With Spunk

Soccer is a sport of skill, concentration, quickness and the ability to use ones head and feet.

The team this year had some outstanding players to help them in their strive toward victory. "John Sawatzki was the most outstanding player mainly because he worked out the hardest at practice." said Kris Chessir full-back for the SHS soccer team. According to Coach Aleman, "The most outstanding players I've had this year were Chris Abbott, Chip Adami, Bryan Leinart, and Curt Richardson."

The team worked hard after school everyday from 2 until 5 so that they would be the best that they could be and so they would have a chance to win district.

The team was coached by Coach Chico Aleman, who has supervised the Soccer Team for four years now.

▲ Tobi Cates sprints during soccer practice. He looks down to find the ball but instead he finds his shadow.

Lifting to Compete and Stay In Shape

Powerlifting was organized last year by Coach Duane Meredith. He organized the group to keep the athletes in shape after football season; it also helped out those athletes that were on the track team and baseball team.

It got started as a motivational tool for the off-season athletes. The athletes could still compete instead of just lifting weights to keep in shape.

There were only eleven members on the team. There were eight seniors, one junior, and two sophomores. Each of the members had different weight divisions (WD) they competed in.

Coach D. Meredith said, "The student athletes must have a great deal of internal fortitude to keep their positions and strength through the year."

"I like lifting weights as an individual sport and I like Coach Meredith," says Scott Parker. He has been in Powerlifting for the past two years.

Welby Pleasant said he joined, "basically to help me out in football and to get stronger. And its just a good way to stay active and stay in shape."

Swim Team Glides To Victory!

On your mark, get set, go! (SPLASH!) The swim team, led by Coach Bruce Southerland, met every day from 2:30- 4:00, at Austin College. Here they would practice on their backstroke, diving, sidestroke, breaststroke, butterfly, and American crawl, down to perfection.

From November to February they had approximately eight meets. The district meet was February 27 in Lewisville. Two weeks later in Fort Worth they had their regional meet.

Swimming is a team sport as well as an individual sport. Angela Adkins commented, "Swimming is a very challenging sport. It is a lot of hard work, and also a lot of fun."

Linksters Prepare for Golf Season

Stroking Into the District Title

Fore!" To some people, golf is just hitting a little white ball into eighteen holes. But for the Sherman High School golf team, it means practicing every-day, and giving it all you've got.

The golf team, sponsored by Coach Steve Southerland, claimed a District Title in last year's season, and are looking forward to trying to regain it again.

Sophomores Kevin Simpson and Larry Barber both believe that the upcoming season will be a good one. The golf team will be participating in many tournaments such as Royal Oaks, Las Colinas, Chase Oaks, and Firewheel this season.

Practices are held during 6th period at Woodlawn Country Club. The golfers have a choice of hitting range balls, practicing putting, and playing nine or eighteen holes.

When asked to describe how they felt about golf in one word, Kevin Simpson said, "Great!" Larry Barber replied, "Satisfaction!"

The Sherman High School Golf team has a lot of potential and hopes to claim the District Title again.

Tennis Team Battles Against Love

A young well-built girl in tennis whites stood stiff on the brightly painted concrete tennis court. The blistering sun beat upon her smooth skin and bathed it in a golden tan. She was fit, confident, and about to play one of the most important tennis matches of the year. The tense, stifling air seemed to choke everyone in sight except this girl, a pillar under pressure, ready to play the district match.

The SHS tennis season started the second day of school, and lasted throughout the year. The tennis team was divided into ten girls and ten boys. It was not as prominent as football, but it did exist. "The tennis team is really not recognized at the school.

There's only twenty of us on the team, but we have a lot of talented kids that will go far," said Usha Subramanian.

The tennis team is coached by Coach John McGee, and had a good season. The practices were held everyday after school. Challenge matches were held on Mondays and Wednesdays; Tuesdays and Thursdays consisted of doubles and singles practice and drills.

Although the team was a small group, they were very determined. Kim Barnes said, "I am very proud to be a member of the tennis team, and I am honored to represent my school in this sport."

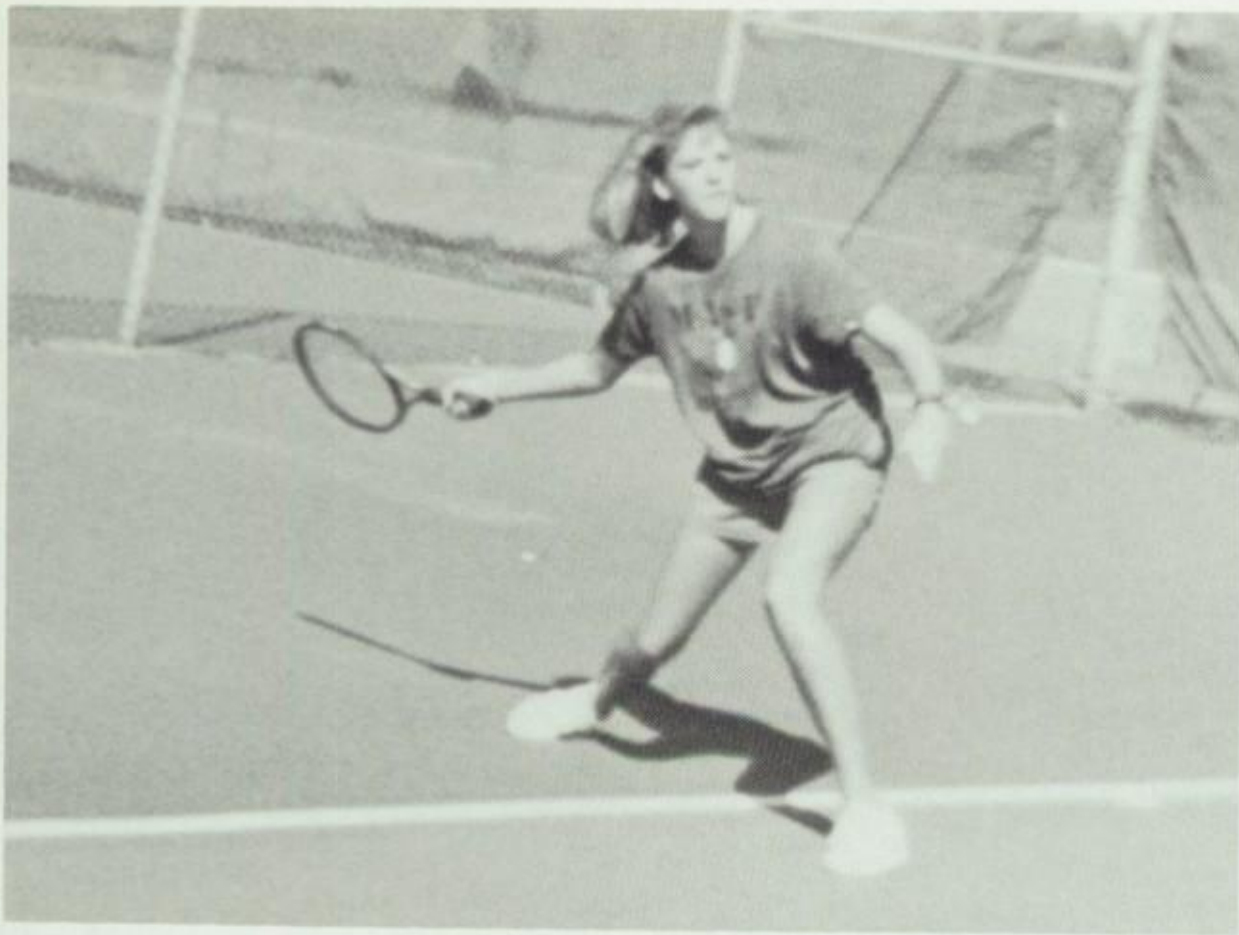

♥ Angie Sumner, senior tennis player rears back for a return. "I enjoy being on the tennis team; we're like one big happy family!"

▲ "Sometimes, when you play so much tennis, you play when you're not on the court," said Deke Cantrell. Deke attempts to serve over a passing bird.

◆ "I enjoy tennis and it will be an experience I can enjoy for the rest of my life," said Molli McGaren.

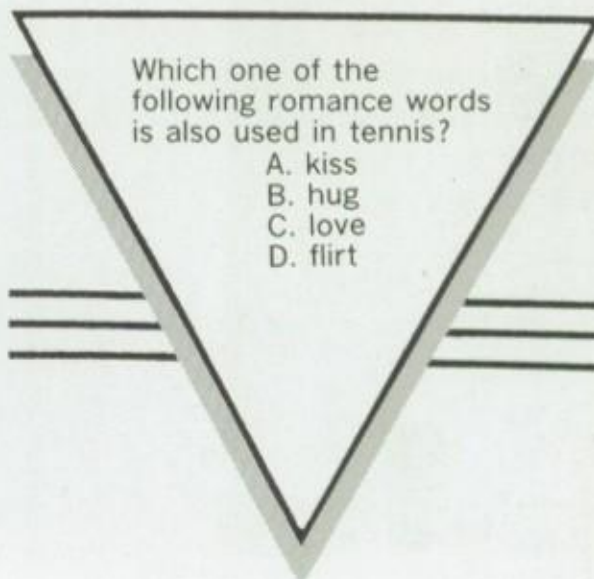

♥ Usha Subramanian flashes a warm smile as she walks off the court after a long practice. "I hope the whole team has a winning season," said Usha.

◆ Nancy Crosthwaite takes a drink. "Being part of the tennis team for four years has been lots of fun, and if I had it to do over again, I would," says Trichelle Stapleton.

◆ Amy Ferman returns a volley. "The competitive aspect of tennis helps build my confidence as an athlete, a student, and a person."

Tracksters Cruise In A Different Way

SHS Track Hurdles Through the Year

Running, running, running! Most people think this is all that track is, but actually track is as Micheal Sullivan says, "The chance to make myself faster and stronger; physically, mentally, and spiritually."

Each day after school the boys track would practice from two to three long hard hours, each doing different things such as 150's, 330's, the 200, and hurdles.

One of the reasons Cedric Boyd liked track this year was, "For the speed and endurance I get and to meet a lot of nice girls at the track meets. I also get to win medals."

Track coaches were Coach E. Hunt, Coach B. O'Brien, Coach H. Burleson, and Coach H. Veale.

▲ Matt Jones stays after school as he runs around the track so he will be in tip-top condition for the first track meet.

Track Predicts Best Season

Anticipating Better Competition

When can an athlete use his or her strength and stamina to the fullest potential? Track would be the answer at SHS. Lisa Bothwell, a Junior at SHS, wanted to run the 200 and 800 relay, and said, "The more competition there is the better." But track is not only competitive running, it is also high jumping, disc throwing, javelin throwing, and shot put.

Dana White who wanted to throw shot put and disc and run the sprint relay said that, "Track requires mental and physical shape and a lot of will power."

Some people run track just for the fun of it, others to stay in shape but Alecia Manuel ran track, "because it's something that I can do that I'm pretty good at."

▲ Dee Dee Dunn and Cathy Cole show their enthusiasm as they "get into the swing of things" at track practice after school on a cool February afternoon.

New Coach + Better Basics = Winners

Cats Move One Step Further

Spring has arrived! A diamond of grass is the scene. The batter steps to the plate, and the pitcher stands towering on the mound. The fans fill the stands with an expectant buzz of anticipation of the season ahead. Finally, the umpire screams, "PLAY BALL!"

This familiar situation was seen once again throughout the nation as baseball season approached to regain fame as America's National Pastime.

Back at Sherman High School, most of the attention was centered on the new baseball coach, Mr. Howard Herrera. Long before the season started, Coach Herrera stated his goal for the 1988 season:

"Our goal for the season is to win the state title. As far as high school baseball is concerned, there really is no other goal," he said.

Coach Herrera also said that the player's enthusiasm and consistent hard work paid off as the team's greatest strength going into the season even though each player had to adjust to a new coach and a new system which was different from what they were used to.

The outlook was extremely bright for the players as well. Each approached opening day with a determination to win unlike any other.

"This year, finally, I think we're on the right track," said senior Mark Beene.

"We really have a new attitude," said Joe Brown. "Everyone has been working hard and we're looking forward to a great season!"

Denton, Lewisville, and Lewisville Marcus were cited by Coach Herrera as the other teams to beat in district 5-5A, and named Julio Malacara and Mark Beene to be just two of several players to be the prime factors in a very successful season.

▲ Lane Aleman is either playing pepper or doing a Superman imitation. Pepper is a key in warming up for games. Most Bearcat players would never miss a game.

▲ Bobby Brandon shows his batting stance and swing prior to a scrimmage against Gainsville. The Bearcats would later win the scrimmage 5-3.

▲ David Gearing fastens the shin protector prior to going into battle. His equipment will consist of 2 shinguards, a face-mask, a chest protector, and, of course, a mitt.

◆ With a look of determination, Mark Beene winds up to let loose with full speed. Improved pitching was only one of the many keys to a successful season.

Junior Varsity Does It Again

“Our goal for this year is to win every game we play!” declared Coach John Miller, “and to develop superior Varsity players for next year.”

With this goal in mind, the Junior Varsity baseball team headed into the season with high hopes and extreme determination.

Junior Varsity Baseball may always play second bill to the Varsity Team, but this year's team provided excitement, win or lose, under a new system for everyone.

“The best thing about being a coach is being around people who are motivated. I want to be where they are to share the experience,” said Coach Miller.

The greatest assets to the Junior Varsity team this year were balance, which Coach Miller stated, “Was solid throughout the entire lineup.”

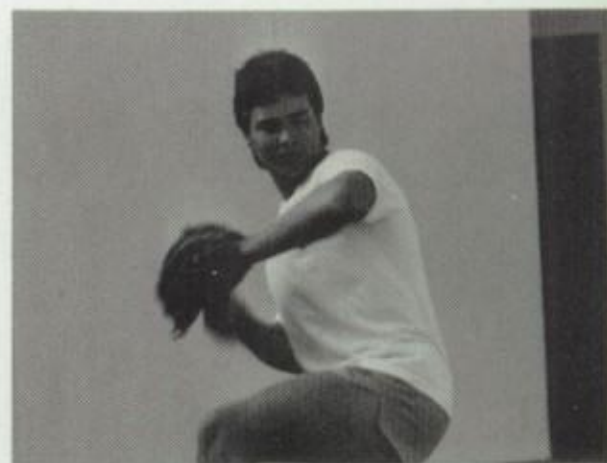

Another asset was improved pitching, which has been a weakness for Bearcat teams in recent seasons. There also were two new faces in the outfield, and a solid line up.

One of the greatest advancements from the 1986-87 season was the addition of a brand new fieldhouse and two new fields.

“When they are fully complete, the new facilities will be nothing short of outstanding,” said Coach Miller.

▲ Mike Hargrove takes his cuts in the new Bearcat's new indoor facility. These facilities were extremely helpful on rainy days when the Junior Varsity team practiced.

▲ From indoors to out as Chris Gilliam throws his warm ups before practice. Warm ups are crucial because they allow the muscles in the arm to be properly stretched.

Freshmen Strive for Elite Year

Bearcats Get Better With Age

▲ Matt Robinson puffs up his cheeks to do the famous "Bullfrog Throw" to his teammate. This kind of throw is one of the hardest in baseball today.

At first glance, you may think that the only reason Freshman Baseball exists at Sherman High School is to develop players for next year's Junior Varsity team, and after that, for the Varsity squad. This is far from the truth.

This season's freshmen headed into the season with hopes of emerging as the first undefeated team in Sherman High Freshman Baseball history.

"We're looking really great. We've put a lot of effort into our work, and we are looking forward to a great season," said John Elmore.

Although in his first season, Coach Ken Morehead provided the leadership and confidence needed by this outstanding group of freshmen. A sturdy pitching staff, a hard hitting line-up, and a stiff defense provided proof of this throughout the season.

Bearcat Band Marches Over '88

♦ A command has been given, and here we see various reactions from junior Russ Sloan, sophomore Chad Marlow, and freshman Marcus Roberts. Interesting how they differ.

The field is empty, waiting. The crowd is restless. Suddenly, a whistle sounds and a large mass creeps forward and takes shape on the field. This is it! Half-time has arrived and the Sherman High School Marching Bearcat Band is ready to show its pride!

Performing half-time shows was just one of the many functions of the Bearcat Band. They performed for the community, for the school, and for itself.

Every year, the community has the opportunity to watch the band take part in such activities as the Red River Arts Festival and our Sherman parades. The school enjoys the band during pep-rallies and concerts.

But the band also performs for itself, practicing long and hard for U.I.L. marching and concert contests. In addition, the band has to work hard to raise funds for their yearly trip. In the past, the band has traveled to such places as Orlando, Florida, and Phoenix, Arizona.

Such trips were the reward for the exhausting work and the long, late hours put in by each and every student who made the commitment to strive to make the Maroon Marching Machine the very best it could be!

"Band is the unspeakable. I don't know what to say."

Troy Dodgen

♦ Head band director John Bradley and assistant John Lowe watch from above as the band learns a new drill. Mr. Bradley and Mr. Lowe were new to SHS this year, but summer practice went smoothly.

Do you know which club here at SHS was made up of several prestigious students who excelled in every aspect of their four years here at SHS? If you said NHS you are exactly right.

The National Honor Society allowed their members to show off their determination and will to succeed academically. These members of the club must set an example for later members to follow. Not everyone could be a member of NHS; there are certain qualifications that you must meet: (1) you must have been enrolled in ten honor classes (2) you must maintain a 4.0 grade point average.

Being a member is a great honor and privilege. Past and present members have shown dignity and poise as well as academic achievement.

If you are chosen for NHS you will be notified at the end of your junior year. You will not actually be a member until your senior year. This is another great honor beside just being a senior.

This year's officers were: President, Marsha Banks; Vice-President, Cary Gillespie; Treasurer, Adam Auten; Secretary, Robin Goodpaster; Sponsor, Mrs. Leslie Allen.

"Being a member of NHS was a great honor and experience; one that gave me great pride in myself and my academic achievements and ability," said Zelda Wafer.

How many years has Mrs. Allen been NHS's sponsor?

- A. ten
- B. three
- C. two
- D. twelve

The Choir Sings Out

"Since I've been in choir, I now have the ability to use my voice to please myself as well as others."
Tammy Bell

Choir can teach more than just uses of the voice, choir can teach one the responsibility of leadership and respect for one self.

"Choir has taught me to be able to work with other people, to use my ideas as well as others" said Lori Barber.

Choir is a class that can teach proper use of the voice, which can later be used to compete with other local schools. Choir is a class that can be promoted with in itself; There's more to choir then meets the eye. Choir has workshops which can be offered to students; many students choose this workshop to improve themselves.

"Choir taught me to be able to perform in groups or with a solo by myself" said Clint McCormick. With the hard work and dedication, choir has had a very successful year here at Sherman High.

How many different groups are there in Sherman High School Choir?

- A. 5
- B. 3
- C. 2
- D. 4

Answer: D

♥ We can sing, too! Rob Dunavan, Russel Tensey, Russell Soloman, Erick McWhorter and Jeff Todd sings with all their hearts to prove guys can sing too!

♥ Shanna Corley and Lisa Reber consider who is better at hitting high notes.

◆ The SHS singers do a number of performances throughout the year to make Sherman High's Choir the best there is at the Red River Arts Festival in September.

◆ Russel Tesney stares with amazement of the large turn out for the Christmas concert. Two concerts were given in December.

♥ Kellie Kerns sings with all her might, to help make the Red River Arts Festival concert the best one yet.

◆ Zelda Wafer, Rob Dunavan and Dana Goodman prepare for their cue to start singing. All three were nervous, but Rob was a little more relaxed, here at a fall concert.

Talent, Wisdom Comprise Strings

♥ Sean Gordon and Michelle Heitmann listen intently to Mr. Penhall's daily instructions. They are both members of the 5th period orchestra class.

Darla Olsen

"Orchestra is a class which requires a lot of time, effort and know-how," said junior member Darla Olsen.

The orchestra competed in everything the band and choir did except it was on a more specialized basis. For instance, the orchestra's contest agenda included University Interscholastic League competition, All-State competition, which includes orchestra's from across the state, All-Region competition in Richardson, and Solo and Ensemble competition.

The orchestra had seventeen members with the more experienced being Amy Roberts, Michelle Heitmann and Stacy Mantooth, "although all the members have equal playing abilities," said Robert Penhall, orchestra director.

Everyone interviewed felt that to succeed at being a member you needed to spend extra time outside of school, and put forth extra effort to have a respectable orchestra.

Enhanced Work in the Art League

"The Art League is made up of many things such as responsibility, patience, cooperation, and participation."
Missy McMeley

There could be many reasons why students participated in Art League. Could it be because they liked to let their imaginations run out onto the blank paper, or could it be that they just liked to compete with other students to see who can draw the best?

There were about thirty members in this club. To be in the club a person must pay the $2 dues, show up for the meetings, and have an interest in art.

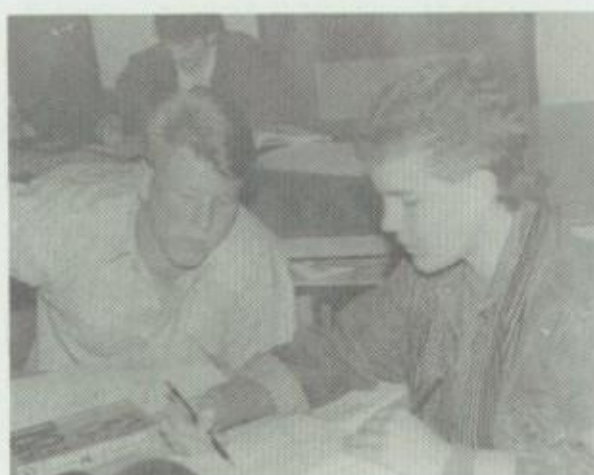

Kristy Friend, a three-year member and now president of the Art League said, "At the Art League meetings I like to get together with other students and talk about similar art interests."

Mary Heather Fyfe, vice-president said, "Being in the Art League I've learned to improve on my art skills and learn more interesting techniques."

Missy McMeley, secretary expressed, "The Art League is made up of many things such as responsibility, patience, cooperation, and participation of everyone."

Mark Beene, treasurer comments, "Being treasurer of the Art League has helped me to learn how to keep money and has given me a role as a leader."

The Art League has raised $250 with two fundraisers, from which of these $50 was donated to the SHS club food and toy drive at Christmas. With the rest of the money, they plan to buy an air brush.

♦ Tracy Taylor tries desperately and repeatedly to explain to Mark Beene how the next art assignment will turn out, during Mrs. Hensler's third period Art 3 class.

Promoting Math and Christmas Spirit

"Mu Alpha Theta is a very fun and enjoyable club, I enjoyed decorating the Christmas tree, and Mr. Bokies is a great sponsor." Cary Gillespie

Every year around Christmas time, you see a 15 ft. Christmas tree that stands in our SHS Cafeteria. Mu Alpha Theta has been decorating it for the past few years.

Mu Alpha Theta is a national organization composed of high school juniors and seniors. It belongs to the Association of America and the National Council of Mathematics. Its purpose is to promote scholarship, understanding, and enjoyment of mathematics, and to help students develop an interest in Math.

Requirements of club members were three semesters of algebra, two of geometry, and one or more of an advanced math course.

As Vice-President, Adam Auten said, "Mu Alpha Theta has given me the opportunity to tinker around with 'Tangible Math.' It's been the light at the end of the terrible tunnel of calculus, and my Business Degree."

Mr. Robert Bokies, sponsor of Mu Alpha Theta said, "We have thirty members and we had a very good membership. Presently we have had a very good membership. Presently we have had a limited number of activities in which we participated in. I hope in the future that we may get a chance to participate in more math related activities."

What language does Mu Alpha Theta come from?

- A. Japanese
- B. Latin
- C. Chinese
- D. Greek

Thespians Take to the Stage

Do you have a deep admiration for William Shakespeare? Do you have a funny bone which no one knows about? Have you been looking for a way to put it to good use? The solution to all of these riddles is simple: join Thespians.

Thespians is the drama club at Sherman High. The only requirement to join Thespians is to take drama. If you are asking, "Why should I take drama?", consider these answers:

"Drama has helped me feel more comfortable about speaking in front of a group of people," said Joe Brown.

Anne Flippin commented, "I like to be around other Theatre-type people."

The Thespians sponsor, Mr. Robert Watson, said that his love for theatre began in the first grade when "... I was a rock in a school play."

Activities for the year included a Christmas party at Lori Burnette's house, several after-school meetings, and, of course, the UIL one act play.

Officers for the year were: President: Rob Barrie, Vice President David Gibson, Secretary: Joey Fuller.

What was Jackie Gleason's character's name on the "The Honeymooners"?

- A. Ralph Cramdon
- B. George Burns
- C. John Smith
- D. Jacky Gleason

Answer: A

Chris Hewitt and Clay Stewart look on intensely as Joe Brown ponders a Trivial Pursuit question. Trivial Pursuit was just one of the activities at the Christmas Party.

"I love drama and love to be around other people who feel the same way."

Whitney Newcomb

A Small Price For Social / Service Fun

▼ Santa Claus watch out! NIKE members Lisa Earnest and Courtney Graber practiced their wrapping skills when they wrapped gifts for the needy in December.

"I just think it's fun to be around everybody."

Monica Ferman

Top Row: Shelly Wright, Linda Hase, Kathy Johnson, Laura Andrews, Lori Yantis, Courtney Graber, Angelia Thomas, Lori Barrett, Tiffany Thoms, Tracy Quin, Katie Watson, Melinda Anderson 2nd Row: Susie Gadek, Stephanie Logan, Monica Ferman, Amy Ferman, LeeAnn Pollard, Allison Smith, Amy Rushing, Tammy Bell, Zelda Wafer, Mrs. Linda Hayes 3rd Row: Kathy Clouch, Nancy Hamm, Kim Barnes, Jennifer Jackson, Christy O'Rear, Kristi Mannery, Heather Brennan, Keri Odom, Shanna Corley, Angie Royal, Mrs. Betty Bledsoe 4th Row: Lisa Sprouse, Carla Fletcher, Whitney Newcomb, Suzy Ayers, Andrea Younts, Jennifer Wiesedeppe, Annette Jones, Hillary Green, Connice Jackson, Ila Armstrong, Cassi Summey, Mindy Woodworth Bottom Row: Tammy Key, DeeAnn Hudson, Sarah Dannel, Dorianne Markl, Angie Pettit, Sheri Dunn, Libby Vaughn, Kelly Storie, Robin Goodpastor, Rachelle Price

The people was the best thing about the service and social oriented club NIKE, according to Allison Smith. The group consisted of junior and senior girls who, after paying $2 in dues, participated in certain services to the community and in various social activities.

Linda Hase, president, explained that during the holiday season, the girls helped by wrapping Christmas presents for under privileged children in Denison.

"I really like doing that (service work)," admitted Angie Pettit, who also has participated in the March of Dimes and other charity works. But, as most of the other girls, she joined it because, "All my friends are in NIKE."

An autumn hayride and various get togethers at girl's houses invigorated friendships and caused many members to get to know each other better.

The best thing about NIKE to Katie Watson was to, "make new friends", and, "getting to know the seniors before they leave. It's cool."

Agreeably, Monica Ferman added, "I get to be better friends with others and get new friends."

"Everyone joins NIKE — the nicest girls are in it," Allison Smith said, summing it up.

What is the club NIKE named after?

- A. a tennis shoe
- B. a misspelled Michael
- C. a Greek goddess
- D. the kid on the Life cereal commercial

Latin Is Great In '88

JCL Strives To Be Number One

JCL or "The Latin Club" is an organization for students of Latin; in order to be in JCL you must have at least one year of Latin under your belt.

The officers for JCL this year were: Jerry Byler, President; Bud Wiesedeppe, Vice-president; Jennifer Jackson, Secretary; Bruce Fyfe, Princeps; Kim Eudy, Treasurer; Tom Schenk, Tribune.

Mrs. Hinkle has been the sponsor of JCL for the last seven years and hopefully for the duration, as she is an inspiration to her school and to her career.

JCL has a club called the Cera-mon Club which selects the best Latin students to perform in contest for Sherman High against other schools.

◆ Latin club sponsor Mrs. Anna Hinkle gives instructions to club members on an upcoming meeting. Mrs. Hinkle will spend two months in Italy on a Fulbright Scholarship.

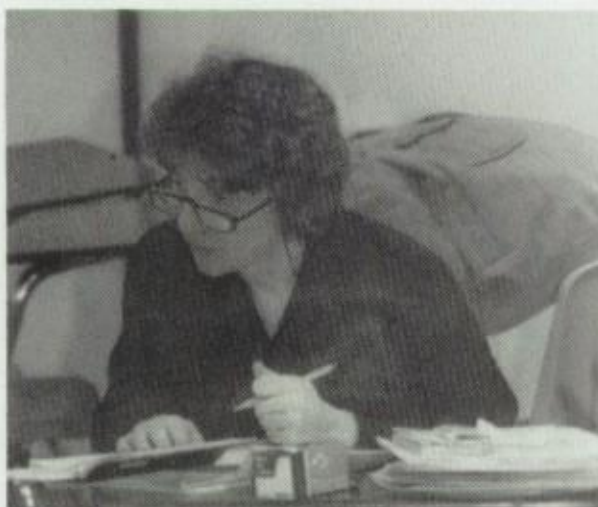

"Mrs. Hinkle sure knows how to walk like an Egyptian."

Daun Dingman

What was Mrs. Hinkle's occupation before coming to Sherman high?

- A. Brain Surgeon
- B. Algebra Teacher
- C. Corporate Executive
- D. President of the Rotary Club

Talk Of The Town

Spanish Increases Interest

♥ Kristi McCoy, Susan Bradshaw and Irma Maganas find their Spanish class intriguing. By the looks on their faces it must be another long Monday.

"Spanish Club is a club for those who wish to learn how to use a language in a more natural atmosphere."
Gene Leinneweber

♦ Richard Harrell should be really careful about where he looks. He just might get caught in the 'Spanish Zone', a new time and dimension in foreign language.

Los Buenos Amigos! When asked the purpose of this activity, Mrs. Ida Hudgins replied, "to bring together students of Spanish in a social and cultural context." Mrs. I. Hudgins has been involved in club activities since 1979.

One of the club's meetings this year was an after school party to welcome foreign exchange students. The club members met with the foreign exchange students and were served refreshments.

Anthony Jones said, "Being a member of Los Buenos Amigos is a good way to meet new people and make new friends."

The officers for this year were: President, Jeff Raasch; Vice President, Libby Vaughn; Secretary, Courtney Graber; Treasurer, Katie Watson; Reporter, Sarah Dannel. When asked about her role as Vice Pres., Libby Vaughn said, "it is an excellent chance to develop leadership skills."

The Homecoming Queen nominee this year was Melanie Morse. Club members said that they chose her because she has been a member for two years and an active member in all activities.

Richard Vaughn commented, "The best thing about Los Buenos Amigos is that I can try to 'hablo espanol' with others."

Welcome to the USA!

Exchange Students Settle In

Picture yourself at the Universidad Autonoma del Sur-este in Campeche, Mexico. How would you fare in a school of unfamiliar faces and a very different culture?

Here at SHS we have two foreign exchange programs. One is a local program sponsored by Mrs. Bobbie Gohlke. The other is Youth for Understanding.

This year we received eight new students: Edma Alcala, 18; Gabriel Chazaro, 17; Irma Magana, 16; and Carlos Magana, 15, who are all from Campeche, Mexico, and Jaime Gerboles, 16; Alberto N6, 16; and Enrique Gonzalez, 17; from Spain, and Mikko Levola, 17, from Pori, Finland.

When going to school in a foreign country, one must struggle with the native language and adapt to the new society. However, there are positive aspects: one has the opportunity to see new sights, make new and lasting friendships, and exchange ideas and culture.

One also finds a new set of classes. Gabriel says his favorite class is "Spanish", while Alberto's is swimming because in Spain, there are no sports in school, except soccer. Edma's favorite class is Art I, but she says, "I hate choir because I sing badly."

In their spare time, they all enjoy movies, T.V., shopping, or just going to the mall.

"America is very different," says Jaime (Pronounced "Hi-mey"), "I like it very much."

These students are trying to adjust to new surroundings and doing a good job. Unfortunately, they will have to leave us in July, so let us wish them the very best and provide them with wonderful memories of Sherman High School!

"I like everybody at Sherman High School; I have no problems with anybody."
Mikko Levola

♦ With Youth For Understanding are: Jaime Gerboles, junior from Madrid, Spain; Alberto N6, junior from Bilbao, Spain; and Mikko Levola, junior from Pori, Finland.

What is the number one sport in Spain?

- A. Polo
- B. Soccer
- C. Tennis
- D. Baseball

Learning to Teach

TAFE: The Teaching Experience

"My favorite thing was when Mrs. M. Wilson took us to Collin Creek Mall and bought all of us matching sweatshirts." Annette Thoms

◆ Allison Smith was very surprised as she was fixing to sit down when she noticed that she was having her picture taken during a TAFE meeting.

♥ Stefanie Logan discusses how much fun she has had in TAFE with Libby Vaughan, Suzy Ayers, Angie Thomas, and Kim Eudy at the last TAFE meeting of the year.

Watch out teachers! TAFE members are moving up in the teaching world. What is TAFE, you ask? TAFE is the "Texas Association of Future Educators."

TAFE members started the year by having a candy sale to raise money for scholarships and a "taco pile up" at Mindy Woodworth's home. Other activities included a Christmas party for crippled children, a "teacher tea party" and a banquet in which they drew names for the scholarships.

Katie Watson says, "TAFE is a way of finding new opportunities in learning how to teach and making a lot of new friends."

The purpose of TAFE is to learn about the teaching profession and different levels of education. This year, the officers were Mindy Woodworth as President; Kathy Claunch as Vice President; Nancy Crosthwaite as Secretary; and Dana Cofer as Treasurer.

Mrs. Margie Wilson and Mrs. Carrie Jo Wilson were the sponsors for TAFE. They have sponsored TAFE for the past 14 years and have enjoyed it greatly.

Keeping Busy All Year

FHA Has Calendar Of Events

♥ Mr. Jack Anderson awards Tracy Caffey, Treasurer of FHA, a $100 check for the Salvation Army during the Christmas toy drive.

Future Homemakers of America had a full schedule for 87-88. It started out with a calendar sale. They sold calendars to help needy and less fortunate on Halloween, Easter, and Christmas. During the Christmas Holidays they assisted the SHS club.

During the spring, delegates were sent to a state FHA meeting. The purpose of FHA was to promote the joys and satisfactions of homemaking, to strengthen the function of the family as a basic unit of society, to encourage democracy through cooperative action in the home and community, to become aware of the multiple roles of men and women in today's society, and to develop interaction in home economics, home economic careers, and related occupations.

Camille Phelps said, "I loved being in FHA to help out people because I can feel good about myself knowing we did our best."

The 1987-88 officers for FHA were Bill Bowen and Shelly Wright Presidents; Camille Phelps, Stacy Hipps, Darla Rogers, Tiffany Thoms, and Rachelle Price, Vice-President; Jennifer Weisedeppe, Historian; Carla Doherty, Parliamentarian; Lori Barber, Sgt. at Arms; Kelly Williams, Secretary; Tracy Caffey, Treasurer.

Responsibility Taught

"I feel the future of farming looks good because of an increase in farm machinery technology." Glen Blount

▼ Kerry Smithson shows an onlooker the art of showing a lamb at the annual Children's Barnyard. The event is held on the Municipal Building grounds.

Future Farmers of America is quickly becoming one of the largest vocational courses.

This course taught students leadership skills, how to deal with competitive situations, and how to work with computers, not to mention the responsibilities it taught students in caring for their animals.

Of all the persons interviewed in the Ag program all seemed very pleased to be enrolled, and are eagerly awaiting the next livestock show to present their animals.

This year the Ag department raised funds by selling hams, turkeys, and sausages. This fund was used in furnishing medical supplies for animals and travel expenses.

The farming crisis has affected the Ag program too in some ways. As Mr. Blount states, "I feel it will be more specialized in the future. There will be less people in the actual production of food." But nonetheless he feels good about the future due to use of computers in Agriculture and the training of students to be able to use computers.

Who was the Ag Teacher before Mr. Blount?

Student Council — Key To Success

♥ President Clint Jones and Vice-President Paul Schebmeir discuss the days business at the council meeting.

♥ Member Michael Sullivan gives close attention to the speaker at the meeting of the student council at Sherman High.

Homecoming, coke machines, and an all county dance were three of the major business items discussed at the Student Council meetings.

The Student Council at SHS met every two weeks and discussed new ideas and the success of old ideas. Each 3rd period class chose a reliable representative to go to every meeting and bring back new information on upcoming activities.

The Student Council raised money for such various items such as, the Variety Show, and the Homecoming dance.

Lisa Tuggle expressed her feelings about Student Council by stating, "Since there's so many different people in Student Council, it helps us to pick one activity that we know the student body will enjoy."

Patrick Edmonson said, "The Student Council is a very good group to be in because a person gets to voice his/her opinion about the ideas and suggestions being made. That's good because your vote could be the deciding decision."

Who is in charge of the Student Council program?

- A. Mr. Hudspeth
- B. Mrs. Iscman
- C. Mrs. Gohlke
- D. Mr. Newman

Keeping Spirit In Sight

Spirit Committee Peps Up School

"It fires me up to raise the student body." Jeff Fryhover

The Spirit Committee this year participated in a number of duties. They helped paint parties every Thursday afternoon in which students were readily invited to come and make signs and banners for the pep rallies. The club started as just a student council committee, but after being given more time, individual authority and its own fund, it has evolved into a full fledged club complete with officers, Chairmen, Melanie Morse and Lisa Dean.

"Spirit committee has been a lot of fun, but all the credit to its success goes to Melanie Morse, and Lisa Dean" said Jeff Fryhover.

The committee was sponsored by Mrs. Bobbie Gohlke, who also sponsors the student council.

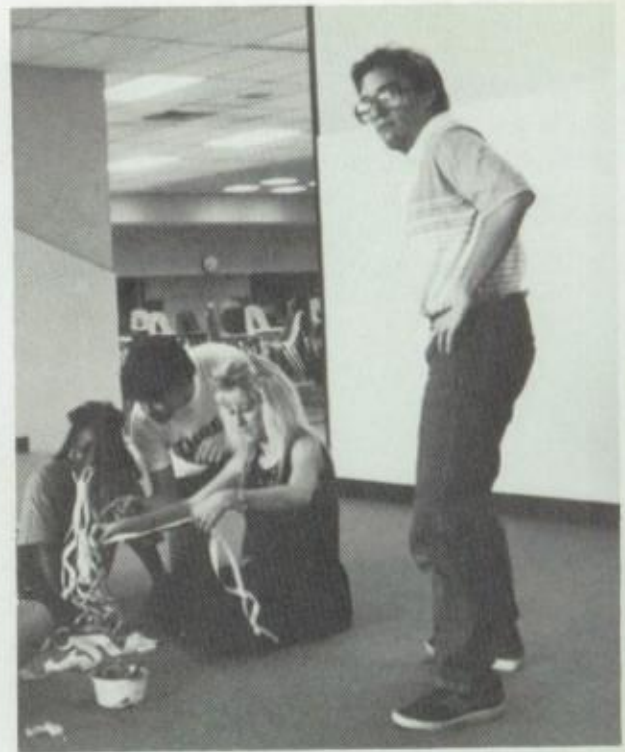

The spirit committee painted banners, made breakthroughs, baked cookies, decorated for dances and got treats for the teams in the pep rallies. Without them, school spirit at SHS would not have been the same.

Where did the spirit committee originate?

- A. A freak accident
- B. A message from God
- C. A student council proposal
- D. A zealous student in 1921 started it in his basement.

◆ Jeff Fryhover, Melanie Morse, Joey Martin, and Tiniya Anderson work on decorations. Long hours after school were spent making signs for different activities.

The club was made up of students who volunteered to decorate the Bearcat Stadium, and cleaned it after all the home games. They also decorated the Homecoming Parade route as well as riding in the parade. The SHS club made signs for the athletes of Sherman High to put in their front yards. They worked whenever they could after school and sometimes on weekends to serve the city of Sherman.

The club's main project for the year was the annual Christmas Toy Drive. They raised money for the food and toys, which were given to the Salvation Army, so they could be given to the needy people of Sherman.

The Art Department painted cradles for the club, and the Home Economics Department made cushions for the cradles. Other organizations donated money and toys to the club for the toy drive.

The people responsible for this helpful organization were Ms. Gene Loop, Mr. Jack Anderson, Mr. Larry Scott, Mrs. Mary Hensler, and Coach Ron Rogers.

"The reason I joined the SHS club is because I love helping people who are in need and to enrich school spirit," said Sandy Young.

HOSA stands for Health Occupations Students of America.

The purpose of HOSA was to develop leadership among students and provide a comprehensive study of all areas of the health field.

"In order to be in the club, you had to be in the class," said Mrs. H. Fair, sponsor of HOSA. Dues were $4.00 state; $4.00 national. More than 50% of the class joined the club.

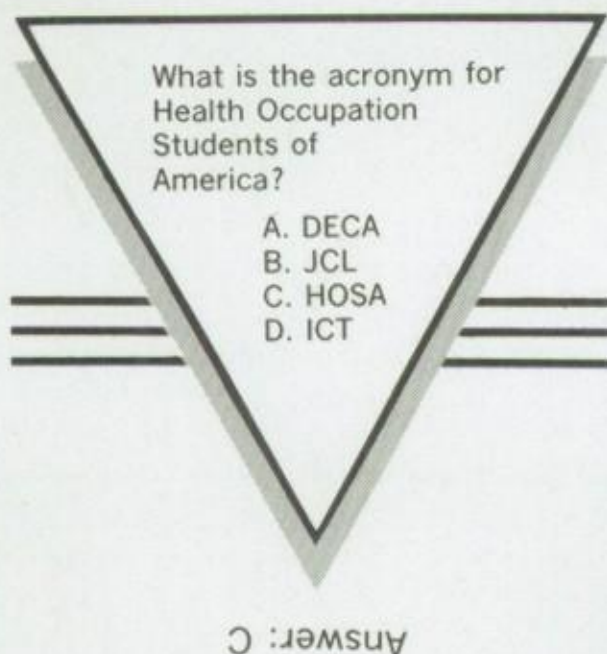

In the cooperative, students received on-the-job training under the direction of a licensed professional.

They also participated in contests all over the state.

HOSA had different fundraisers, two of which were cookie and candy sales. At the end of the year they had an employee-employer banquet.

"Being a doctor is a dream I've always had, and in HOSA you learn more about the medical field."
Robin Daffern

More Than a Class

Employers Work With School

"ICT is more than just a class, it's a job which can be a life-long experiment." Brandon Morris

This program was a cooperative relationship between the employer of the community and Sherman High.

"ICT is an excellent program in which you could make a life-long career," said Brandon Morris.

It provided students with "hand on" training by giving them a chance to work and deal with the city. "It taught me to be responsible, and dependable," said Dusty Nobles.

ICT promoted citizenship and leadership through activities which included planning and carrying out approved social projects. ICT was more than a class; it's a job and life-time experiment.

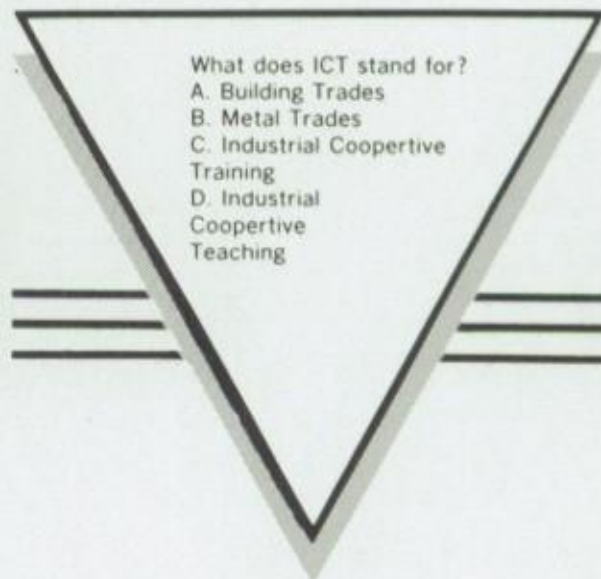

Jobs in ICT were designed to help students to make decisions and use proper procedures, such as motion projectionist, ornamental iron worker, and commercial artist.

♦ Industrial Cooperative Training can have its ups and downs, and Steve Wortham enjoys every minute of his new job where he's employed by the City of Sherman.

◆ Steve Wortham and Chad Skipworth laugh at a joke as they vote for class president. Brandon Morris received the most votes and served as the 1987-88 president.

Electrifying For All

Electronics has made possible many things we use everyday and may take for granted; for example, television, radio, even the light we use to read by.

At Sherman High, our students were offered the chance to take a class on electronics. In this class, students were able to learn many things like how to build and work on a computer. Some students learn the fundamentals of electronics through an electronics training board.

When asked why he took electronics, Bart Mauldin replied. "I don't think I'll go into electronics as a career, but it's nice to have something to fall back on."

When asked what the best part of electronics was, Danny McLeod replied, "The part I like best about electronics is working on projects and being able to sleep without getting in trouble."

"I like electronics because you learn how things work; such as circuits, transformers, and transistors." Chedric Boyd

Mechanical Drawing

Wave of the Future

♥ Scott Meek continues to design a drawing of a mechanical part for machine shop, while Don Kelly works on drawing 45° angles for bricks on his floorplans for contest.

Drafting is the base for all structures we live in. Drafting takes little to no skill in art but, "you have to know how to measure and really know your math for exact dimensions and be able to read certain symbols", says Michiel Pinion.

"They're the most precise drafters I've had in several years. Their retention rate is good and they're a group that likes to finish what they've started," says Mr. D. Johnson.

Also with this drafting class was the VICA drafting club. VICA drafting was one of seven VICA clubs at S.H.S.

The VICA drafting officers were Joey Bader as president — "VICA today is the future tomorrow, it's practiced professionalism leads to professional capitalism!" and Emmett Myatt as vice president — "This organization is for ourselves, in it we can control our own destiny." Then there was Gerald Smith, who was secretary. Bill Bowen was treasurer — "We raised $200 to $400 for fundraisers. The money is used for VICA drafting contests and banquets." Billy Arnold was the reporter, Jeff Schultz was the parliamentarian, and John Hunt was the seargent at arms.

Cosmetology Files Down the Year

Cosmetology was a class which offered many different procedures to improve your physical appearance. Cosmetology students gave facials, manicures, haircuts, perms, wave sets, haircuts, and hair cuts.

The students in Cosmetology styled hair for Fred Douglas children once a week and the elderly free of charge. They also offer their talents to the general public.

This year the Cosmetology Club had a very successful year and elected the following officers:

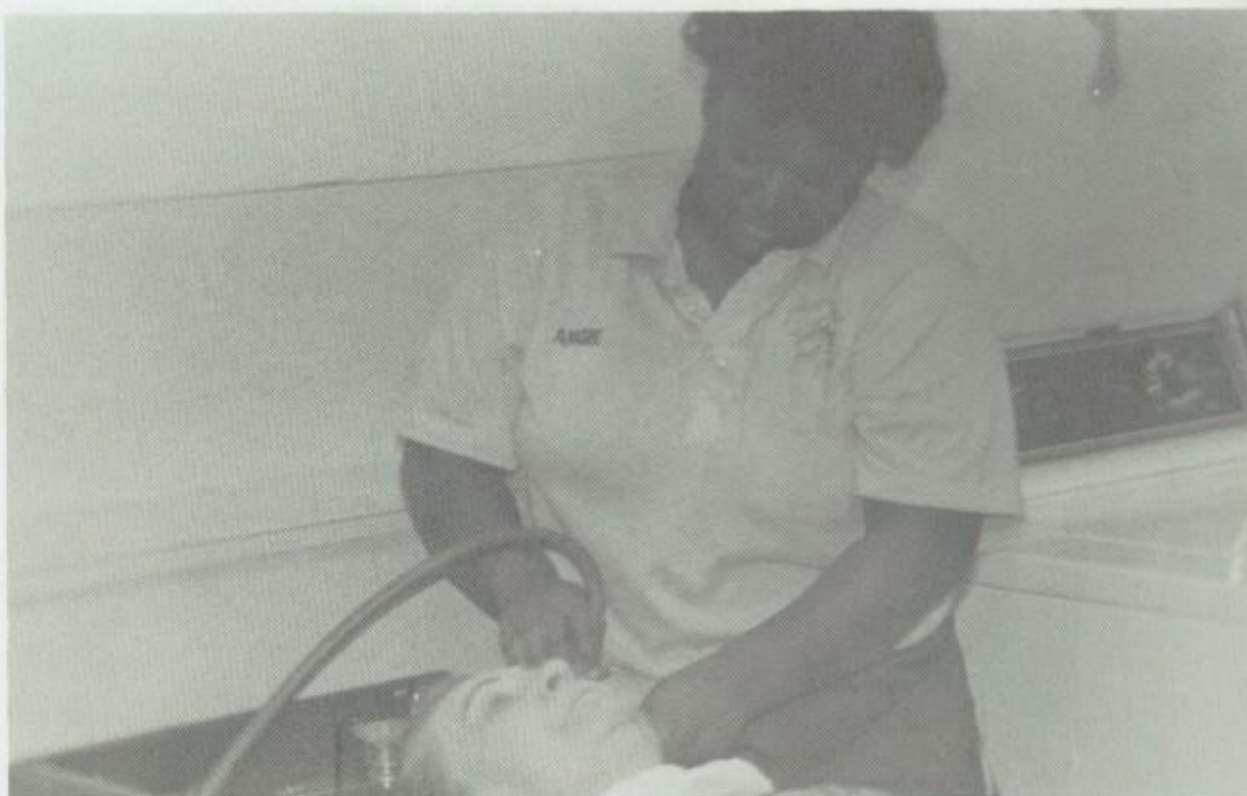

Kristi Mannery, President;
Stephanie Hoover, Vice President;

Lori Ragsdale, Treasurer;
Kristi McWewas, Secretary;
Melissa Stovall, Representative;

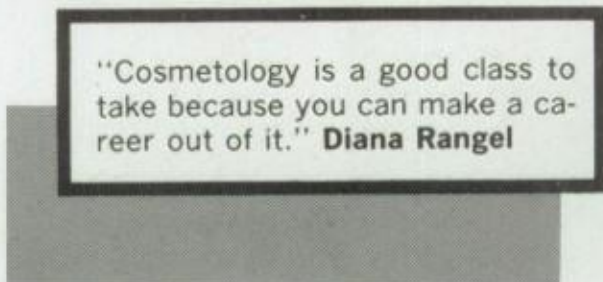

Lisa Rivera, Parliamentarian;
Amy Collins, Sergeant-at-arms;
Mrs. Baldwin, Advisor.

Angela Bothwell says, "Cosmetology is not just learning how to do hair, it's learning to understand their likes and needs."

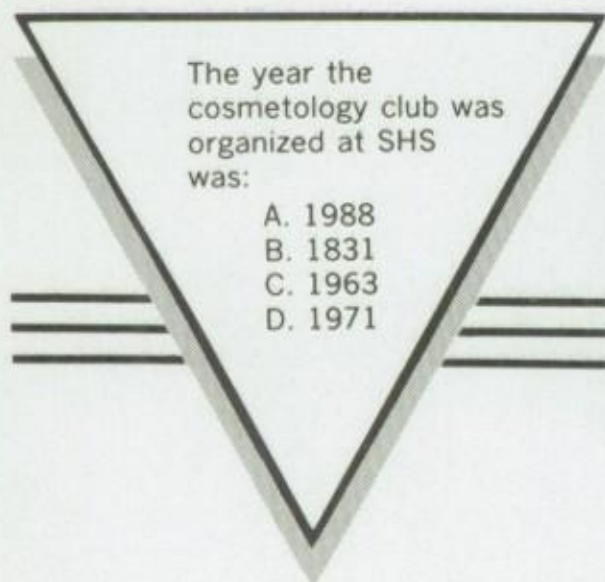

For a fund raiser, Cosmetology had a "Style-A-Thon" in which they styled hair for one day to raise money for VICA and their trip expenses to contest.

"Cosmetology is a good class to take because you can make a career out of it." Diana Rangel

Facts About Job Opportunities

▲ Bobby Bradley looks over his notes he took when Mr. Levacy came to speak to him from the Health Department.

▲ Jenny Brummer and Donna Dunham laugh as they tell jokes between the teacher's lecture.

The HERO club's main purpose was to teach students about jobs and job related subjects in the fields of food production and child care. Instead of regular classroom work, these students also experienced real jobs, real work, the real world.

"You learn what it's like to have work and responsibility," responded Danielle Legg, secretary of the club, who worked at Pizza Inn along with three other HERO members. "It's fun because all my friends work there."

In the classroom, other serious things were discussed, such as when Mr. Levacy from the Grayson County Health Department came to speak. He spoke about health food care for fast food restaurants and the importance of cleanliness on the job.

During the year, the students prepared for their spring banquet that they held for their bosses, by holding many fundraisers. They delighted the school twice by their bake sales in both the spring and fall. Additionally money was made at basketball concession stands.

Auto Mechanics Provides Training

"In Auto Mechanics we learned a lot of subjects we will need to know when we get out into the real world." Jimmy Polk

Would you like a three hour class which gives you the training you need for an immediate career after high school? Would you simply like to learn what is wrong with your car and how to fix it? The Sherman High School Auto Mechanics Department gives the proper training for any student who answers "yes" to the questions above.

"There are no prerequisites for Auto Mechanics, except for a good train of thought," said Mike Carpenter, and Derek Deaton added, "and really good hands." Also in Auto Mechanics, students have the opportunity to learn through "hands on experience" of which there was plenty throughout the year, as well as classwork.

The Auto Mechanics teacher/sponsor, Mr. Walter Cole, stated that the main reason he enjoys teaching Auto Mechanics was "June, July, and August!" Then he added on a more serious note, "I enjoy teaching because I get to work with kids and show them how to repair automobiles and how they work."

When asked to comment on Auto Mechanics, Derek Deaton said, "Auto Mechanics is a great experience and it gives you the necessary skills to work in the field."

Jimmy Polk builds his muscles by pulling an engine block from a car with only one machine to assist him. He set a new weightlifting record with this lift.

James Crisp and Craig Ulman check the timing as well as the overall performance of their engine. Dependability was one of the many qualities of the 1987-88 Auto Mechanics classes.

Students Begin "Building" Future

Building Trades was a three-hour lab course in which students study and perform skills associated with residential construction. Students spent a portion of their time studying theory and practice in the classroom, then go to the job site and apply these theories to the actual constructional procedures.

Students did all of the hard work in the phases of construction: concrete forms, and footings, wall and ceiling framing, roof framing and decking, sheathing, shingling, insulation, electrical wiring, dry wall, door and window insulation, trim, painting and paper hanging.

Building Trades is available to students in the tenth through twelfth grades who have a natural talent for working with their hands and enjoy working outdoors.

Opportunity

The Future Awaits

Would you like to become a member of today's business establishments, and get out of school at 12:30? Then OEA CO-OP is the activity for you because you get a chance to get started in the "real world."

The 1987-88 school year was an exciting one for OEA CO-OP members and their sponsor Ms. Ronnet Powell. They sold candy to raise money for their year-end banquet, and they participated in various activities this past spring. The officers for the 1987-88 school year were: President-Debbie McClusky, Vice-President-Cindee Mullins, Secretary-Chelsie Campbell, and Treasurer-Tona Moore.

There were seventeen members of the OEA CO-OP class this past year, all with about the same goal, which was to be the best employee they could possibly be.

"The purpose of OEA CO-OP is to give a person a chance to expand their knowledge and skills in a business atmosphere," according to group president Debbie McClusky, "but I love getting out of school early."

In order to become a member of OEA CO-OP you must be at least 16 years of age, a junior, have your own transportation, and have a job that is associated with a business.

OEA CO-OP offered lots of benefits, but there were two of them that stood out the most and they were as follows: you got training from a operating business in Sherman and you learned skills that could be applied to everyday situations.

"OEA CO-OP is going to help me prepare myself for a future in the business world," stated Tona Moore. If the purpose was to prepare students for the real business world then it was fulfilled easily.

The goal is to strive to be the best you can be in a business profession, and handle all situations accordingly." Debbie McClusky

It's 7 o'clock, a time when most high school students are eating supper, or doing homework, but for the members of FCA, one day a week they spend this time listening to a speaker, and studying the Bible. Athletes from all different sports congregating together to fellowship the Bible.

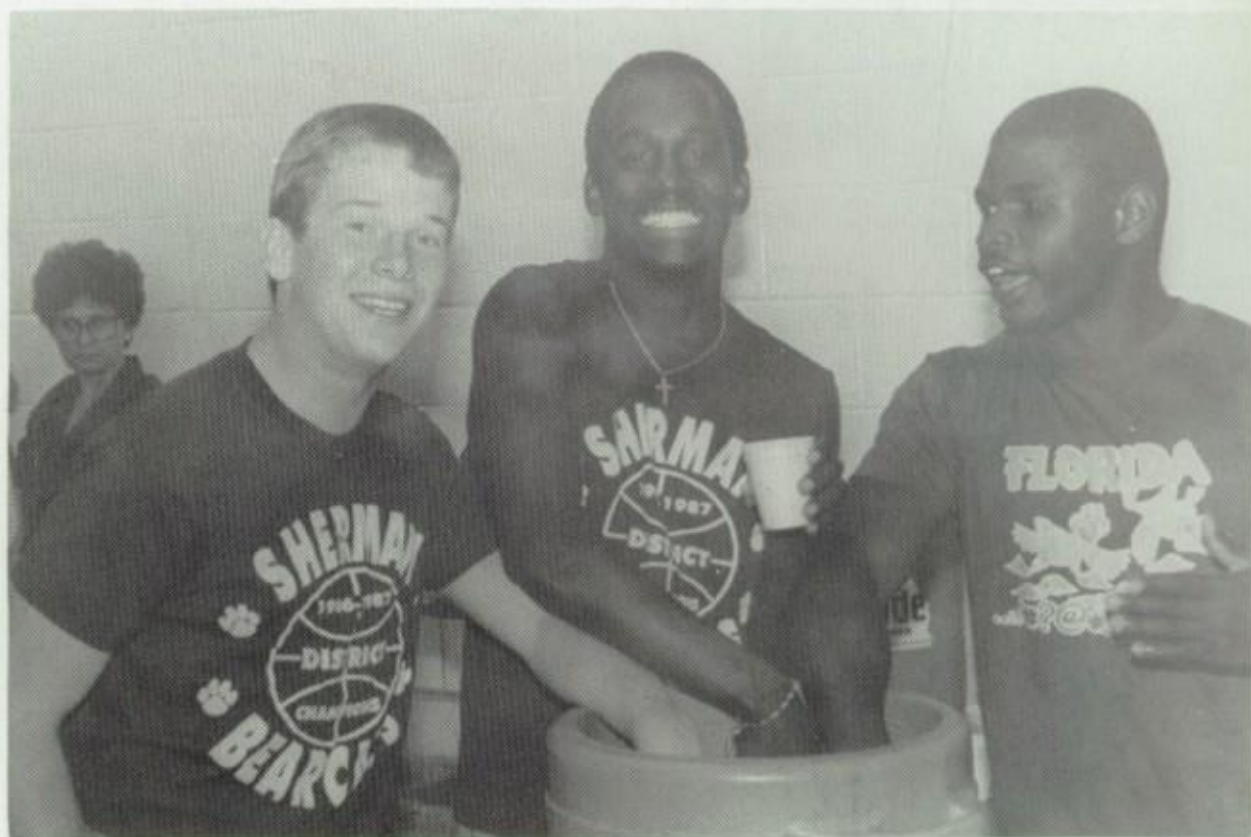

"We just have a good ole' time in the Lord!" Katie Watson, varsity cheerleader put it.

FCA, or Fellowship of Christian Athletes, is a nation wide organization broken up into two parts, the girls' chapter and the boys' chapter. Each chapter has its own officers and head sponsors. Marty Secord sponsors the boys, and his wife sponsors the girls.

The club has participated in many activities this year. A few of these were a hayride, a state convention, the Cotton Bowl Breakfast, and a fund raiser appropriately entitled: the Fun Run. Success At Hand ♥ Math team members work on number sense problems before a contest. The intense look on their faces show their determination to be successful.

Not only are Sherman High students competitive in sports but they are also competitive in academic events.

One reason for the Math Science Team's success was, "the teams emphasis on academic achievement, not on social acceptance," according to Mrs. Anita Mason.

Kirk Grynwald, was one member of the Math-Science Team that strove for excellence. When asked why he chose to become a member of the team he said, "When I was a freshman, Renee Davis talked me into it." Kirk participated in calculator, number sense, general math, and all forms of science. In the Wichita Falls contest he placed third in number sense and fourth in calculator.

Jim Stutts worked with the calculator and science. In Wichita Falls Jim placed fifth in science.

To sum up the progress of the team, Mrs. A. Mason replied, "The team is improving every year and gains more and more excellent members."

Athenian Reaches New Goals

"The biggest thrill for me on the yearbook staff is in May as I watch family and friends flip through the book and smile." Tara Southern Never again will there be anything like it. With nine editors and fifteen staff members, the 1988 Athenian arrived and thrilled Sherman High.

The Athenian was one of the most awaited events of the school year. Other than Christmas, spring break, and summer vacation, students just couldn't wait until they received their yearbook. In 1988, the Athenian had fifteen full color pages, a triangle logo and many creative ideas that were appreciated.

With hectic deadlines to meet every month, the staff was busy getting stories, pictures, layout designs, ideas, and working in the Bearcat Store to finance the book. Under the direction of advisor Mrs. April Icsman and top editors Mark Linn and Debra Edwards, they pulled through and everything was finally completed in February.

As always, the Athenian's main purpose was to capture the life and times of Sherman High and the 1988 staff succeeded in their endeavors.

"Being a part of the Athenian Staff is a prestigious responsibility for any student who takes pride in the work they accomplish," said Clay Stewart.

▲ Members of the SHS Band who were selected to Solo Ensemble First Division Winners were: Tom Schenk, Kim Bazan, Bruce Fyfe.

WELL ISN'T THAT SPECIAL ... HONORS

Participants in the Katherine Sherwood Art Show were: Leo Jones, Richard Pace, Scott Douglas, Sean Miller, Michael Pinion, Becky Willis, Tracy Taylor, April Bearden, Lori Yantis, Julie White, Randall Piper, Jay Cantrell.

▲ Stephen Guynes, won National Latin First Place. He is an exceptional student and proves that Latin really is not a dead language.

Jennifer Hudson, a junior at SHS was selected to All-State Choir. Jennifer has a unique talent, in that she can sing almost any kind of music.

"The Triple A rewards a student for his efforts-it's an important award."
Kirk Grynwald

"All-Region Choir is the experience of a lifetime. It's the ultimate!" Russell Solomon

"Being elected by the Hi-Steppers as Senior Lieutenant was a big honor and representing them at All-American Drill Team is a memory I'll never forget." Darla Rogers

"I like barbershop singing and I have fun with the chorus. Although they are all older than me, they don't seem so. I feel welcome and just like one of the guys." Brad Sutton

"The Triple A award is a uniquely meaningful honor to receive because it is based on sports, academics, and activities. Being recognized in these areas make you feel good." Marsha Banks

▲ Shelly Wright and Darla Rogers were selected to All American Drill Team. The two girls were asked to perform in Dallas, Texas, Anaheim, California, and Brisbane, Australia.

▲ Brad Sutton, received Barber-shopper of the Year by the Texoma Barbershop singing chorus. Brad enjoys singing and sometimes helps out with other barbershop quartets.

Top: Kathy Dugan, Kelly Jennings, Bottom: Marcus Roberts, Grahm Winegart, J.J. McGrath. These students were selected to All-Region Ninth Grade Band.

QUOTES

"My most embarrassing moment was tripping over my pom-pom in front of the Senior Class during a pep rally. They all applauded."

Cary Gillespie

"At homecoming I went with a girl almost as tall as me and I wanted to look taller — so I tippy-toed. I didn't know the picture would show my feet."

Shawn Davis

"In my sophomore year I somehow got a sunburn on a certain part of my anatomy. Stacy Ford found out and started making jokes about my "hot-crossed-buns!"

Anne Flippin

"To those who will remain here a little while longer, hold your head up high and remember: Only the BEST is yet to come!!"

Sheri Coleman

MATT DAY

Congratulations, Matt: How time flies. You have always been a sheer joy. No one could ever ask for a finer son. May God continue to bless you. Love, Mom, Dad, Debby, Becky, Patty, and Joe.

MARK LINN

Congratulations on being a 1988 graduate. You have made us very proud of you. May this milestone be the first of many. Love, Mom and Dad.

KURT MEGLAN

Kurt: We are very proud that you have become your own person. You have learned what's really important in life. You judge people by what they are inside and not by what they own. Always thank God for what you accomplish in life and he will always watch over you. We love you, Mom, Dad, and Kevin.

MATT WILSMAN

Your name means gift of God. May he guide you as you continue on your journey of life. I am proud of your past, present & future accomplishments. Continue to grow in the Philosophy of "To thine own self be true." You are a special person. Love, Mom.

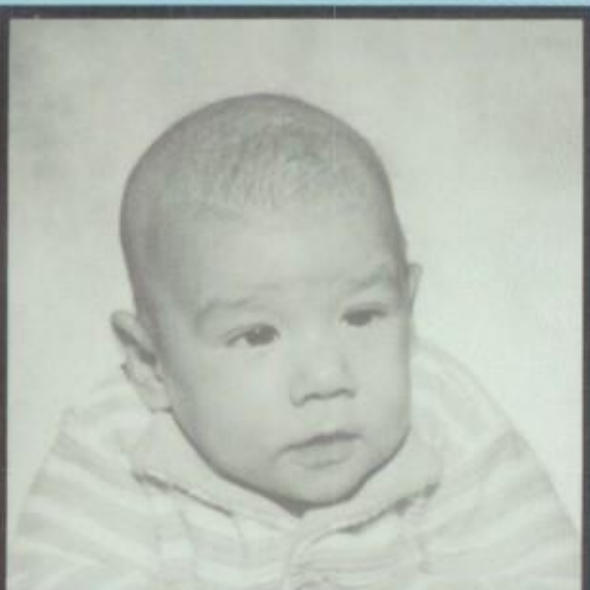

ROB BUTLER

Rob, you are my pride and joy. You have always been "my rock" when I thought I might fall. You can do anything! Congratulations Onward and Upward. Love, Mom, Matt, Granddaddy and Grandmother.

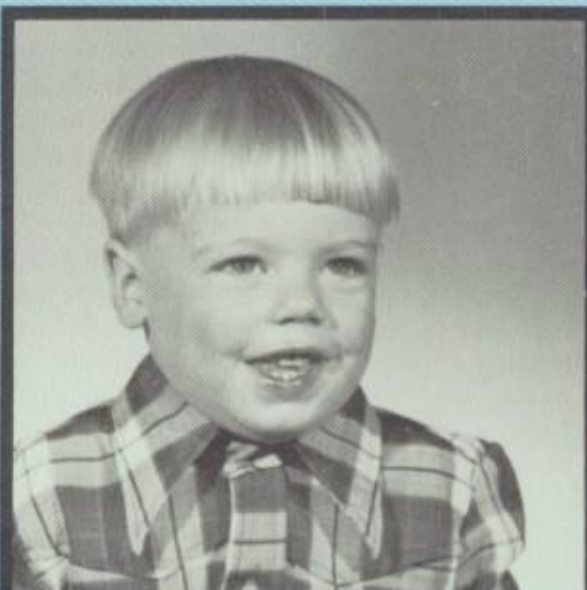

MICHIEL PINION

God gave us a very special gift on the day you were born. We have been proud of you in all the phases of your life. Your honesty, gentle nature and exceptional drawing abilities will take you far in life. We love you very, very much. Love, Mom and Dad.

JULIO MALACARA

Congratulations, Julio! Make this your best year! Always remember you can accomplish anything if you work hard at it. We will always be there to support you in any decision you make. We love you, Mom, Dad, Kelly, and Sean.

JEFF SCHULZ

Jippy-How can we tell you how much you're loved? There aren't words to describe the love we've shared or the pride we feel for you. You will always be our youngest son, but you're not our little boy-not now. Aim for your goals, release your heart, and you'll always be on target! We love you so! Mom, Dad, and Todd.

JEFF LITRELL

To our Senior of 88! "Congratulations" Jeff, on your graduation. We're proud of you son. Remember, we live our lives by the choices we make. Make the choices that you feel are best for your life. All our love, Dad, Mom, and Family.

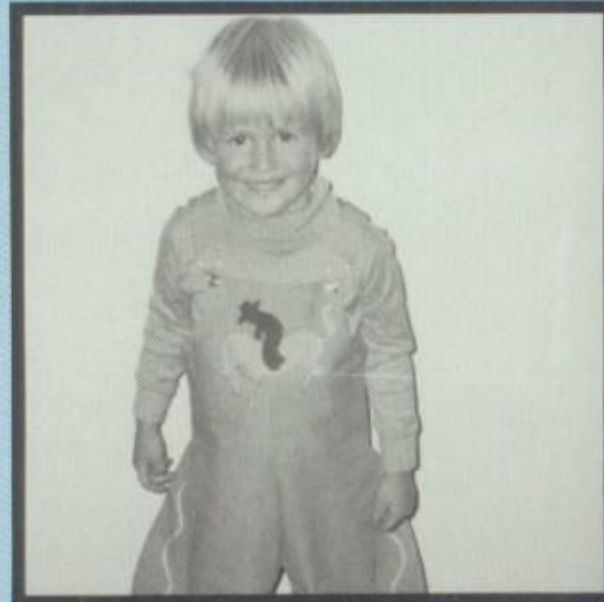

GEORGE MILLER

Congratulations! Looking at this picture makes us realize how swiftly the years have gone by. As we see you grow toward manhood, know that you have our love, faith, trust, and hope and will forever. Dad, Mom, and Vel

DENNIS ROUSSEAU

Congratulations Denny-Pooh. Even when you were small you were a hot-shot. Well, hot-shot you made this day! Let's go for it again. Hope you have success in your goals. Always remember Mom loves her HOT-SHOT!

DAVID COKER

David, we are so proud of you, a fine son, wonderful brother, loving grandson, a good person. Our lives have been enriched, we thank "God" for you. We are grateful for all your achievements and thank "God" for all of them. As you step into the future always remember, put forth 110% effort and you can be proud. "By the grace of God you are ours." Love Mama, Dad, Dottie, Mema, and Pepa.

BILLY TSAKOPILOS

Congratulations son on your graduation, and best wishes for the future. May you achieve the success and happiness you deserve. Remember our love, thoughts and prayers are with you always. Love Mom, Dad, and Chris.

JEREMY MOSS

Jeremy, Congratulations!! The first 17 years of your journey are past. As you continue on the path of life, remember: There will be many more views from the mountain tops, fields of clover in the valleys low, cool clear waters in the rivers deep to refresh you, always someone on the left, right and in front of you and with each step you take forward may every dream become reality. Nothing can stop you now!! We're proud of you, Mom and Josh

JON JORDAN

Jon, Congratulations-you have made our lives richer and we are proud of you! Continue to build on a strong foundation and look to God for direction and your life will be full of happiness and your goals attainable! Love Mom, and Sara.

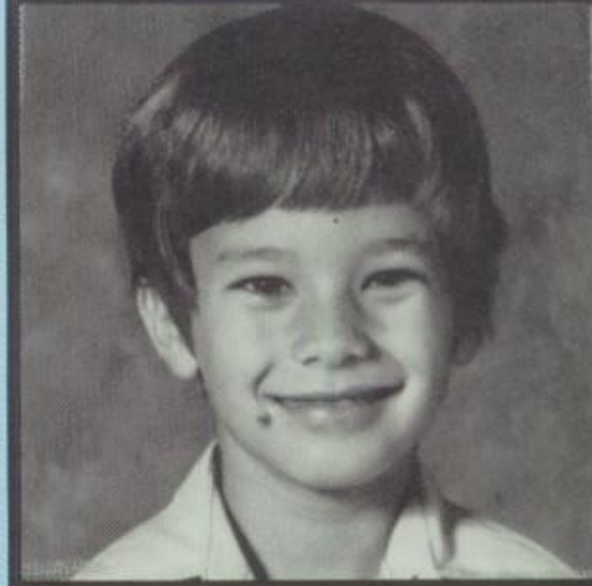

BILLY BUCKELEW

Billy, we love you. Love Mom, Dad, and Wayne.

CLINT McCORMIC

Congratulations, Clint! You have completed a phase in your life that is only the start of a life long journey. You have the talent, skills and commitment to accomplish all the worthwhile things in life. We are very proud of you. Your sincere attitude is a quality that is recognized and respected by all that know you. You are like the deep waters. You continue to move slow and steady toward the goals you have set. We love you, your Family.

DONALD KIRBY

What a wonderful day. God bless you son. Things have not come easy, we are so proud of you and your determination and honesty. These are qualities needed in life for success. "To thine own self be true." Good luck on all your future endeavors. We love you, Mom, Dad and family.

MARCUS LEINART

You've done an outstanding job in completing a milestone in your life. Your caring attitude toward us and others is one of your most valuable traits. The knowledge you have gained, coupled with your determination and self-discipline, will ensure your success in the future. Our love and prayers will always be with you. Mom, Dad, and Bryan.

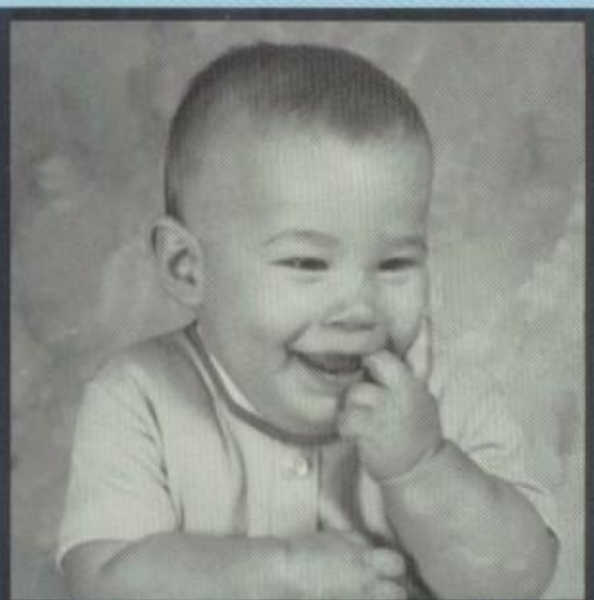

DAVID BAUR

Congratulations to a special son! Our "Free Spirit". We are very proud of you and wish you success in everything that you do. A life-time of opportunities are waiting for you. Go for it! Love, Mom and Dad.

KELLY CARVER

Kelly, you have grown to be a fine young man one we are proud of! Congratulations on your accomplishments. Continue to set your goals high and work hard to achieve them. Mom, Dad, Wendi, and Julie.

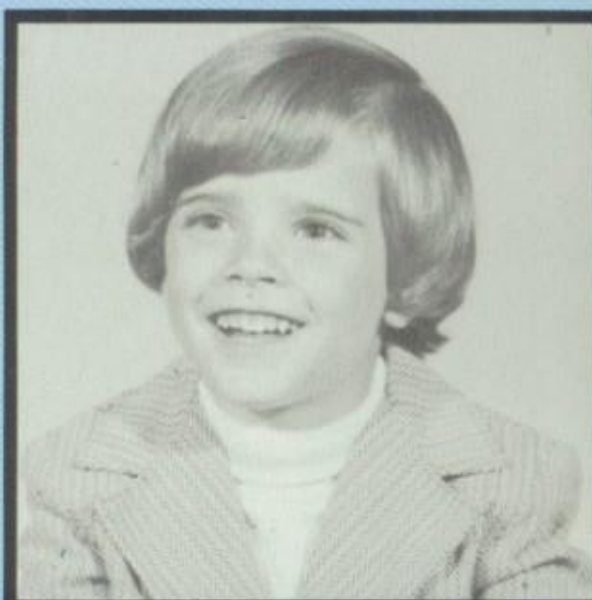

RYAN CENERO

Ryan as you approach the end of the foundation building period of your life, we are so proud that you have chosen to build that foundation with materials of hardwork, self discipline, a sensitivity for others, and a strong faith in God. We are proud of what you have achieved but prouder yet in what we know you will become. We love you, Mom and Dad.

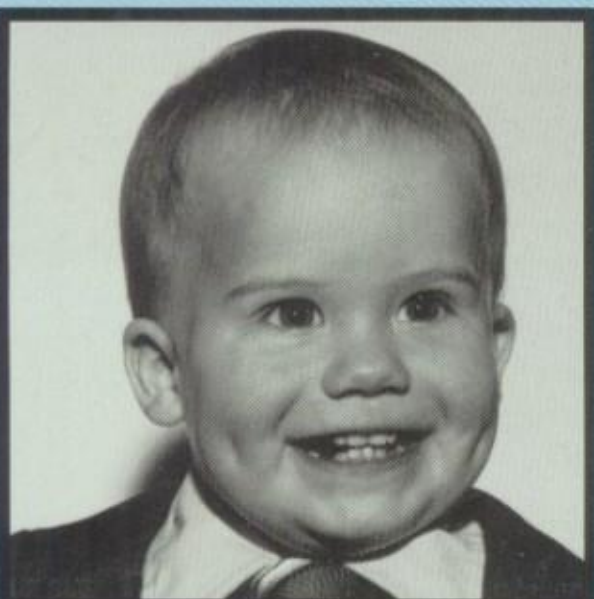

BOIS DUANE THOMPSON

To our son Bois Duane Thompson, whom we love dearly, may we wish you the best that life has to offer. Keep on the right track and always keep God in front of you. You have been a great guy. Love your parents, Fred and Gloria.

GENE LEINEWEBBER

Well you've almost made it to your goal. There were times when we wondered whether you would be able to surmount the obstacles placed in your way. You have shown your worth in sticking with your goal to the end even with the extra work. We are very proud of you and wish you all the success and happiness you so richly deserve. Love Mom, Terri, and Grandma.

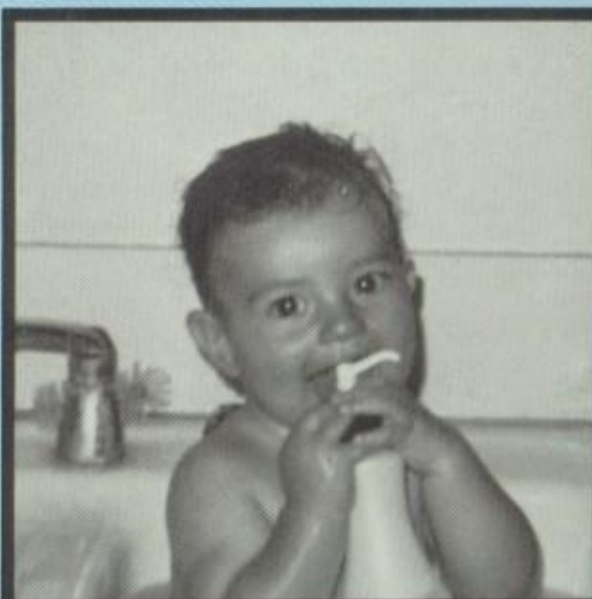

RODNEY BLAIR

We love you for all that you have been: toy guns and cowboy boots, star wars and space suits. All that you are: stereos, amps, musical things and a thousand broken guitar strings. All that you will be, whatever you choose follow your dreams, you can't loose! Love Mom, Dad, and Jonna.

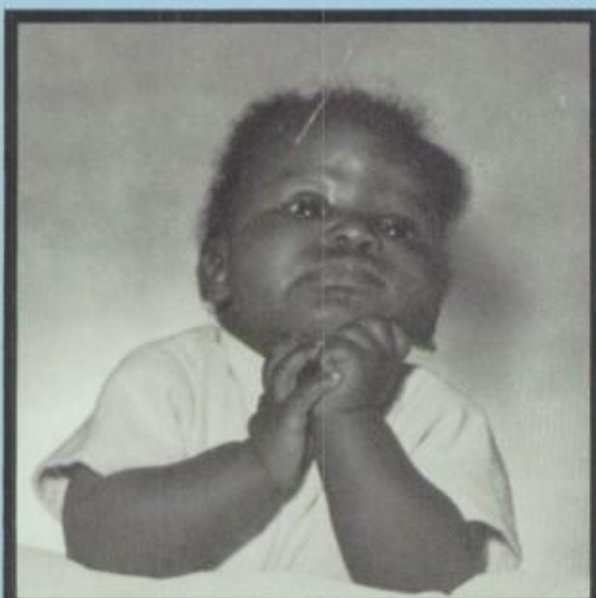

TOM SCHENK

Tom you know how very proud we are of you. Just remember to be patient with yourself. We know you'll keep making dreams come true. Love Mom, Dad, Tim, and Hope.

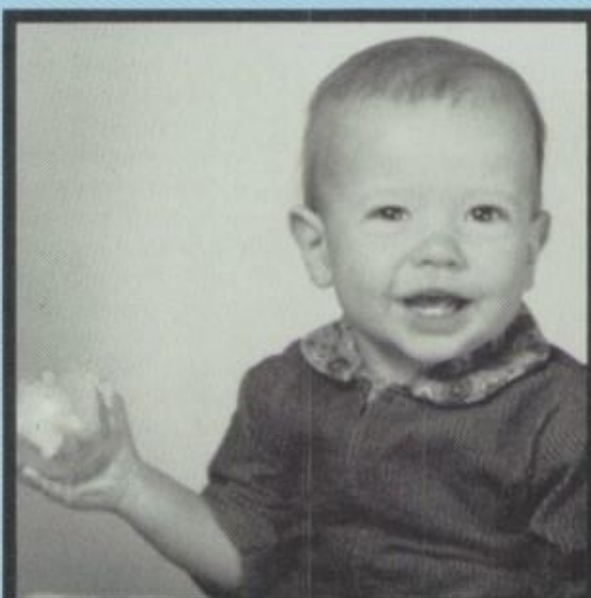

GEOFF WITT

Dear Turkey Boy- Days like this picture are fun to remember. They've come and gone all too soon. You've grown into a fine young man and we are sooo proud! We know you have an exciting future in store. Live each day to its fullest! Love Mom, Dad, Jon, and Jenny.

TREVOR HOWARD

Congratulations, as you approach this special milestone in your life, I want you to know how proud I am of you. Your accomplishments have been many, but I know there are more to come. Best wishes for a bright, successful, happy future. Love your Mom.

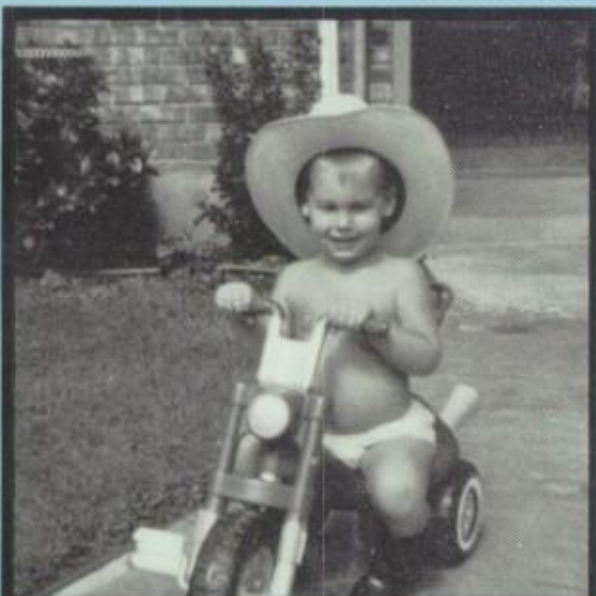

ROGER LIVELY

Congratulations to a wonderful son and brother. You have brought so much happiness into our lives. We are very proud of you. May God continue to bless you and bring joy into your life. We love you, Mom, Dad, Kim, and Karen.

DANNY MILLER

Congratulations to a very special and unique person. We are proud of you. Always strive to do your best. Any worthwhile objective in life requires hardwork, sacrifice and self discipline. We believe you can meet that challenge and reach your goals. We love you, Mother and Dad.

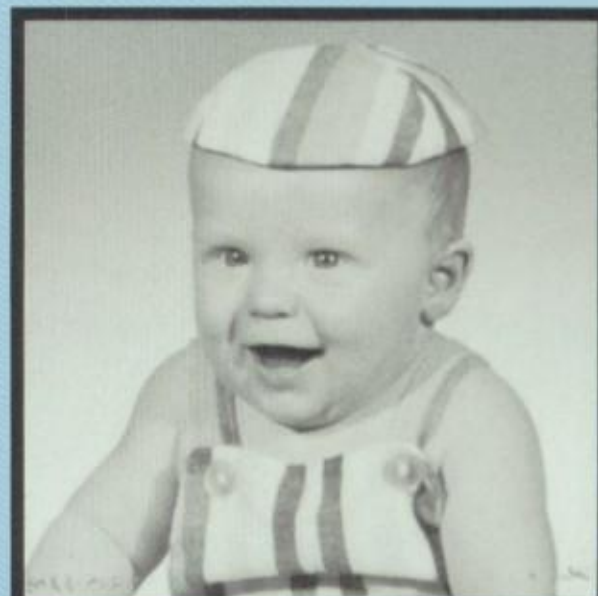

DAVID KEY

David- That's our boy! Congratulations! Proud and Beaming- Yes we are! From babe to Bond, James Bond! Keep that wonderful sense of humor! Your fun and laughter has brought so much joy to us. God bless you always! Stand tall, have a ball and don't forget to call! We love you, Mom, Dad, and Kim.

CHAD SMITH

With a face like this, how could we expect anything but continued success! Congratulations! We're proud of you and are always here for you. Remember to keep the faith, remain faithful, and always keep your eyes on Jesus Christ. Love, Mom and Dad.

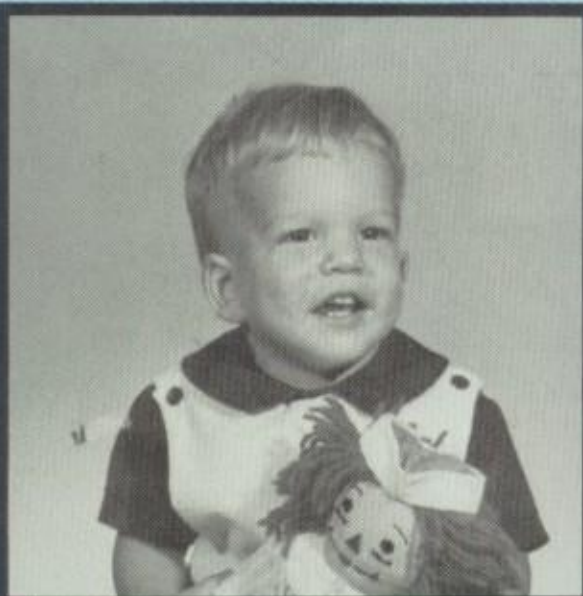

EMMETT MYATT

Emmett, having a son to be proud of is a privilege granted only once in our life time. Thank you for the first 18 years. Continue on with your life and goals as you have and you will go far in life. Love, Mom and Dad.

JIMMY POLK

Jimmy, We are very proud of you. Keep your trust in God, this way you'll succeed in life. Love forever, Mama, Alvin, and Al. To my loving son, Always remember what I told you. The only way to have a piece of mind is to work for yourself. Love Always, Dad

CHRISTOPHER TODD GRIMES

Have confidence and go after your goals and dreams. Say "I can and I will". Remember the Lord said, "Stick to my course for your life and I will not let you down." Love always, Mom, Dad and Andrew.

CLIFF DRAKE

Cliff, you have enriched our lives with love. From little boy to high school graduate, you have brought us happiness as you grew and made choices. Our love, support, and prayers will be with you as you reach for future goals. Love, Mom, Dad, Chris, and Steve.

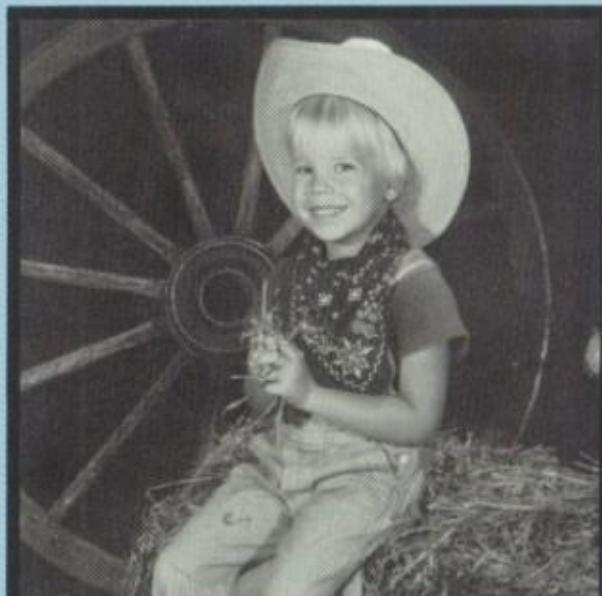

BILL BOWEN

Bill, You've inherited your Dad's sense of honor may it guide you with dealing with life's hardships. We know your warm heart and concern for the old and young has been God's gift to you. May your spirit and zest for life be everlasting. You have been one of our joys in life. Your accomplishments are many. You've made us proud. Love, Mom and Dad. Bill, as brothers go you've been a pain, but I love you. Lori, Bill, I plead the fifth. Your brother, Mark.

CASEY BACON

We are so proud of you, Casey, as we've always been and will cherish our fond memories of your great sense of humor, your warm smile and discerning sensitivity. You've been a joy! Congratulations! We wish you much success, happiness and love. Love, Mom and Dad.

JEFF RAASCH

From a Coronado Treasure, growing up in cowboy towns, you will give us the greatest pleasure in your Bearcat cap and gown. You have given all the very best. Your accomplishments abound . . . The keys to beat what life will test in you can all be found. Love, Mom and Dad.

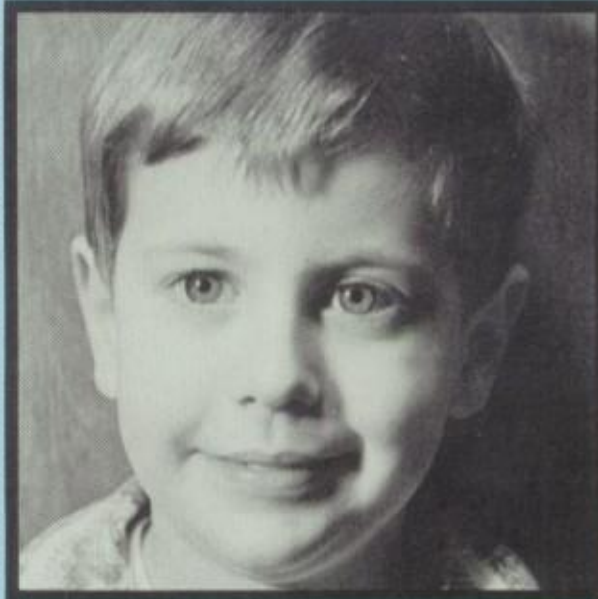

RICHARD LEE SISEMORE

Congratulations Rich, you finally made it. We are so proud of you and we love you. Be as good as you are now and you will have a great future. Love, Mom, Dad, Tonya, and Joshua

WILLIAM COLLIAR

William your name is shared by family from uncles to great, great, great, grandfathers. They would be proud, but not as your mother, sister and I. Congratulations for reaching one step toward your education. On to the next goal! God bless you, Dad.

DARREN FURR

The joy of sharing your life for eighteen years cannot be compared with the excitement and pleasure of seeing the kind of man you are becoming. Your many talents combined with your good character and sense of humor will serve you well as you face life on your own. We love you! Mom and Dad

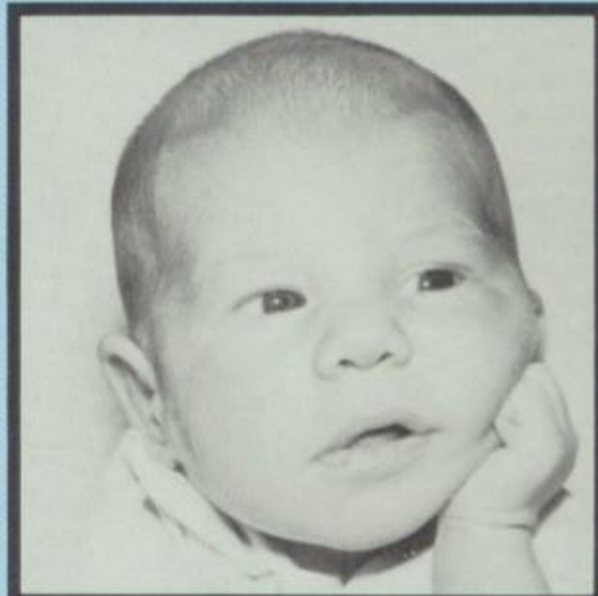

ERIC McWHORTER

Dear Eric, You have fought the good fight and won. The time has passed fast for us and slow for you. We are extremely proud of you and for you. Love, Mom and Dad

PETER WANTROBA

Peter you sure have grown up from a short chubby boy to a young man we are very proud of you and all the good work your doing keep it up. Love Mom and Dad

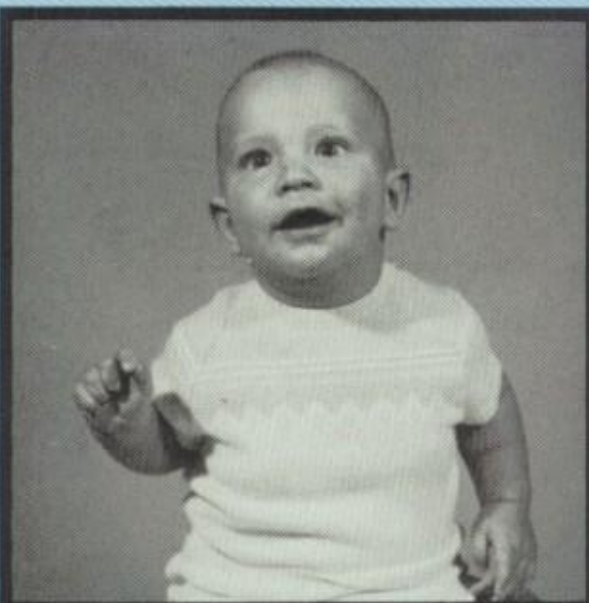

JEFF TODD

Congratulations: You finally made it to the top. You have made us very proud. We hope you make all your goals, you have made for yourself. We love you. Mom and Dad.

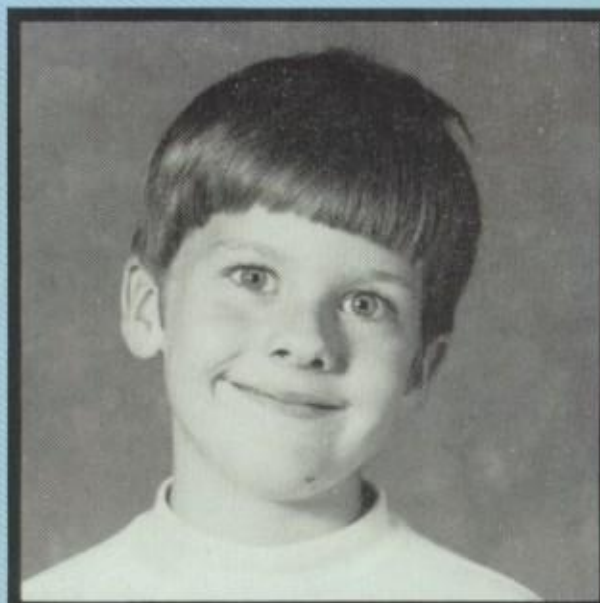

JASON HUSCHKE

Jason, you have been a great joy to us. Only yesterday you were starting school and now its over. Stay as sweet as you are and keep your beautiful smile. We love you. Dad, Mom, Sherri, Mackey, Shan, Dan, Brandon, and Brittany.

STAN CARVER

Stan, for moments of joy and shared sadness, and for days of just being there for us, thank you. Remember, "The Lord delights in the way of the man whose steps he has made firm; though he stumbles, he will not fall for the Lord upholds him in His hands." Love, Mom, Dan, Nathan, Whitney and Ryan.

STEPHEN PHILLIPS

In success and adversity you have made us very proud. We know you can achieve any goal you set. Thanks for the memories. We love you and congratulations from your family. Love Mom.

MARK DEON WILLIAMS

Congratulations to a wonderful son. You have made one more ring in the ladder of success. Keep your goals high and with Christ first in your life you can go far. We will always love and support you. Dad and Mom.

DAVID NEWTOWN

Congratulations! You've got the confidence it takes to always be a winner, and you will reach every one of your goals. We love you. Mom and Dad.

CASEY O'CONNOR

May the sun always shine upon you, May the road rise up to meet you, May the wind be always at your back, and may the Lord hold you in the palm of His hand. Our love, Mom, Dad, and Sarah.

CHRISTOPHER STEWART

Christopher- Congratulations. We are very proud of you and all the things you have accomplished in high school and in your life so far. We are most proud that you have learned the meaning of self-pride. Always remember it and with faith in God, willingness to work towards your goals in life you will succeed. We will always be behind you with all our love. Mom and Dad.

CHRIS BROWN

Congratulations! Graduation is here and it seems like only yesterday you were taking your supplies for your first day of school. We are very proud of the young man you have become. Your fine qualities of kindness, friendliness and your flair for humor make you special. Love, Mom and Dad.

VERNON PARKER

Congratulations! We're proud of you. Good luck in the future. Love Mom, Dad, Vicki, and Kim.

GARY HARKER

Dear Gary, Congratulations! You have worked for this day a long time. Set your goals high and go for it. Love, Grandma, Grandpa and George.

JEFF FRYHOVER

KASH KAYS

Dear Kash, Congratulations on your graduation! What a joy you have been to us! We are so proud of you, your accomplishments, and the kind of person you have become. Stay as sweet as you are now, and keep that wonderful sense of humor. Love, Mom, Dad, and Kort.

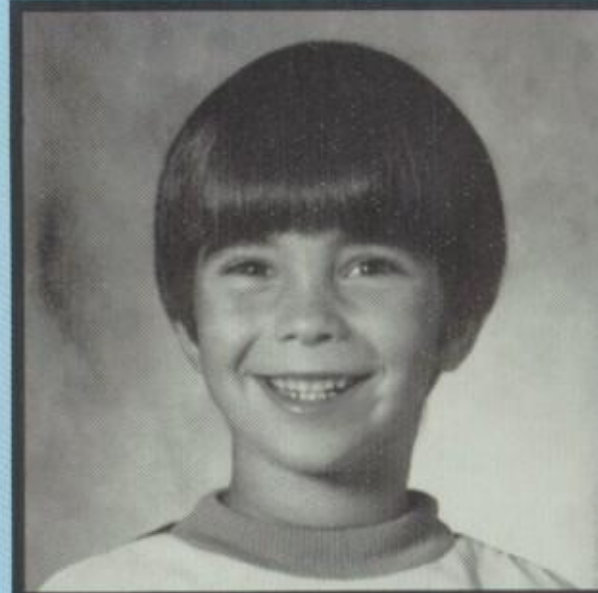

MICHAEL SMITH

Michael, we are so proud of you for the goodness in your heart and the sweetness of your nature. Let the Lord Jesus be your guide and the future is yours. We love you. Dad, Mom, and Lori.

DAVID LOY

David, throughout your young life, you have always had common sense solutions to difficult situations. While many of your peers have allowed others to influence them into choosing the "popular attitude," you have always decided for yourself how you wish to believe. You have the intelligence and perseverance to be a true success in life. Our love and prayers will always be with you. Mom, Dad, and Jeff.

MARK FOWLER

Congratulations Mark on your greatest accomplishment thus far in your life. May you always move forward accomplishing all the goals you set for yourself. Your family will always be cheering you on with their love for you. Good luck, good times, good friends. Love Mom, Fred, Kete, and Peter.

DAVID HARDIN

Seems like you have always had a trumpet in your hands. We are and have always been so proud of you. These years have passed so fast for us. Set goals high and meet every one. Our's and God's love will always be with you. Love, Mom and Dad.

MATT SCHAAR

Congratulations and love always to a very special guy, who even as a little boy realized that one the most important things in life is having love within your heart and your family. May you have as much joy in your life as you have given us in ours. Mom, Grandma, Grandpa, and Smokey.

BRETT ANDREWS

We have had no doubt that you could kick it out because your life has been one goal after another. May your future be as bright, joyful and fulfilling as the years you have given to us. Congratulations, we are so very proud of you. Our love always, Dad, Mom, and Courtney.

MARK BEENE

You've come a long way baby. We hope these past 18 years have been as rewarding and loving for you as they have for us. The future is what you make it. Congratulations Mr. Beene= (NeB) we love you. Mom and Dad.

TIM PENNINGTON

The doctor said I'd never have children. You were my miracle child! You still are. I'm proud to be the mother of such an exceptional young man. Thank you for the joy you've given me. I love you, Mama.

BRADY BOYDSTON

You've been the joy of our lives for 18 years now. You are a very special and talented person. We have surely been blessed to have you for our son. Keep God first in your life and success will be yours. We are very proud of you and love you very much. Mom and Dad.

JON RUSSELL SOLOMON

We are proud of you and how you have handled yourself. Your life is just beginning, it is up to you what you do with it. We know you will be a success because you know you will be a source of all power. Love, Mom and Dad.

BRUCE FYFE

Our first born, we wish you- Smiles from pretty girls, Restful days for doing as you please, Guacamole burgers and onion rings, Friends for all seasons, Music, to give and receive, career fulfillment, and always a desire to come home. With Love and Pride, Mother and Dad. 9-87.

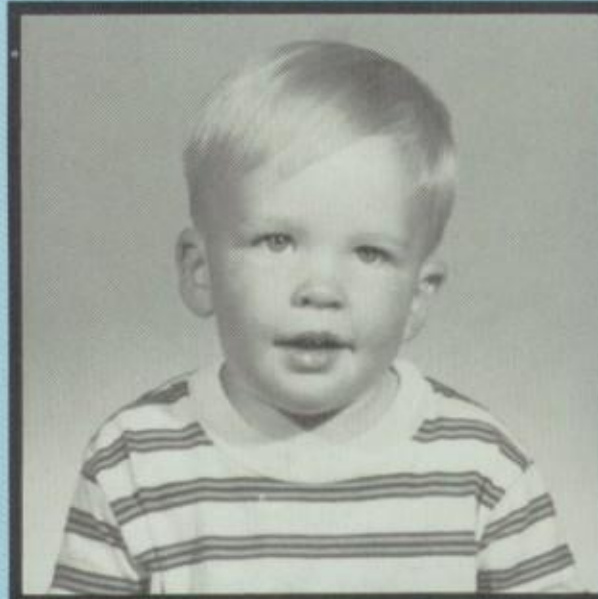

MICHAEL SULLIVAN

We are overwhelmed at your accomplishments, but not surprised. Here's our wish for you, an Irish blessing: May the roads rise to meet you, May the wind be always at your back, And all the days of your life, May God hold you in the hollow of his hand. All our love, Mom, Dad, and Julia.

ANTHONY JONES

Congratulations, Anthony, on your success in school and graduation. You have always been our little gentleman, and we are really proud of you. You have been a joy to our family and will always be a credit to us. Daddy, Mother, Phillip and your grandparents love and admire you.

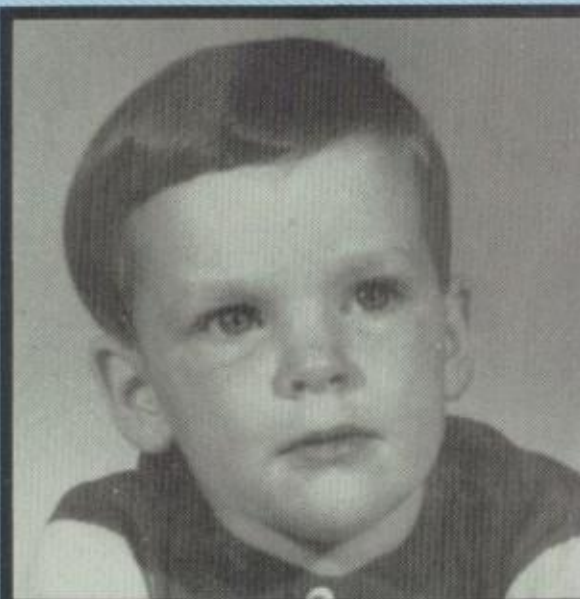

SCOTT TATE

Congratulations, you made it! We are very proud of you. Mom and Dad.

JOHN JOSTES

John, you have been a fulfillment to our lives as well as those of your grandparents. From the toddler who slipped his baby food to the dog, from "pasghetti", to a considerate and caring young man. We love you. Momma, Daddy, and Karen.

MICHAEL PRICE

To Michael, our #60 Bearcat and #1 son, with wonderful memories of all you have been, with great pride for all that you are, with hope for all that we know you will be. Congratulations and all our love. Mom and Dad.

BOBBY HARDIN

To a great son. We love you. Congratulations on all your accomplishments. We are very proud of you. What a joy you are to us. Set your goals and then go for it. May you achieve all the success you deserve. Love, Mom, Dad, Alana, Heather.

BRYAN FREY

Your mother and I are very proud of you and your accomplishments. You are an "ACE", you have the attitude, character and enthusiasm that will continue to serve you well. We are looking forward to many years of enjoyment with you. We love you very much. Mom, Dad, and Kim.

CHRIS RINEWALT

Congratulations, Chris! Some of the best years of your life are ahead. Reach for your goals, success is waiting for you. We're proud of you and we love you! Vita, Dad, Rick, and René.

ADAM AUTEN

Congratulations, Adam, on a job well done, and done brilliantly! Your intelligence, sensitive nature, optimistic attitude, and high regard for others have made you the fine young man that you are. No mother could be more proud of her son than I am of you. I love and support you always. Love, Mom.

MATT BARNES

Congratulations! Matt, you have filled our lives with much love and joy. We love you and wish you a future filled with much happiness and success! Love, Dad, Mom, Steve and Missy.

ROBERT BARRIE

Rob, we'll remember shoulder-long hair, sidewalls, a radical jean jacket, black boots and chains, skull ear rings, black eye-liner, punk music, swimming, wimpy Blifel, lovable loving Winnie — a tie dying, day-dreaming nut, a poet, a peach, a ninny! Yeah! Keep on doing! We love you very much. Wonderwoman and Spaceman.

JOE BROWN

Congratulations, Joel! We are very proud of your accomplishments in the classroom and on the playing field. But more than that, we are proud of the way you live your life. We wish you as much joy in your life as you have brought ours. Love, Mom and Dad.

TIM HARVEY

12-years of school, what a relief, finally reaching the goal you've strived hard to achieve. This is only the beginning, not the end. So keep self confidence and honesty as your very best friend. Set your goals high and always work hard. Success and happiness will be your fine reward. I love you, Mom.

JOHN BUCHANAN

Dear John, Your parents and sister are proud of you as you prepare to graduate from Sherman High School. Life is a process of learning and growth, and we wish you success and happiness along the way. Love, Mom, Dad, and Elizabeth.

WELBY PLEASANT

Welby, always remain the handsome man you are and strive for the perfection that God commands, "Quality is Priceless." Remember that virtuous moral standards and principles never change. Congratulations to our second inspiration and last graduate. Words cannot express our love for you. Again Welby, "Virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, Godliness, brotherly kindness and charity." Dad, Mom, and Rosa.

JOHN THOMAS

Congratulations! We're so proud of you. Get ready for the best 4 years of your life! Try to leave those girls alone! We love you, Mom, Rick, and Scott.

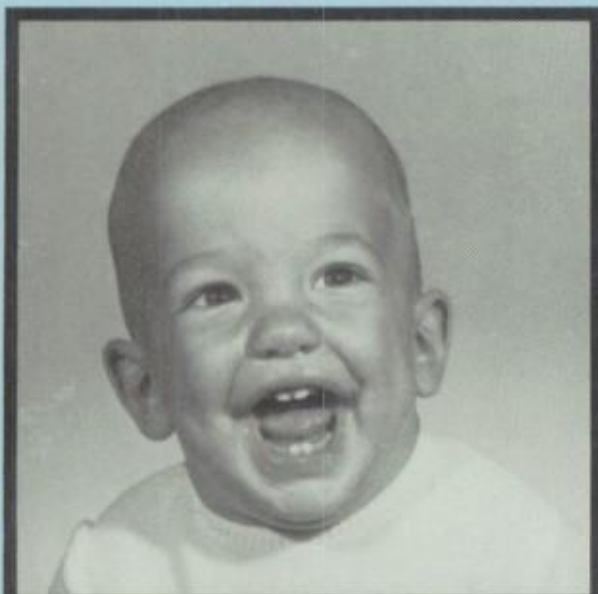

RODNEY POPE

Son, you will find that life is a fishing trip. You will bait your hook with education, and reel in pieces of your goal each time. Remember, there is no conclusion to success. There is always a better, but the future will always put best one day further. Love Mom, Dad, and Alan. Good luck at O.U.

DAVID GIBSON

CONGRATULATIONS! David, at this special time in your life. You have given us many fond memories. We will always cherish them and be proud of you. We hope your talents, knowledge, and faith will provide you a fulfilling future. God be with you. Love, Mom, Dad, and Cindi.

CHRIS FRY

We loved you then, and we love you now but we're awfully glad you grew some hair. Mom and Dad.

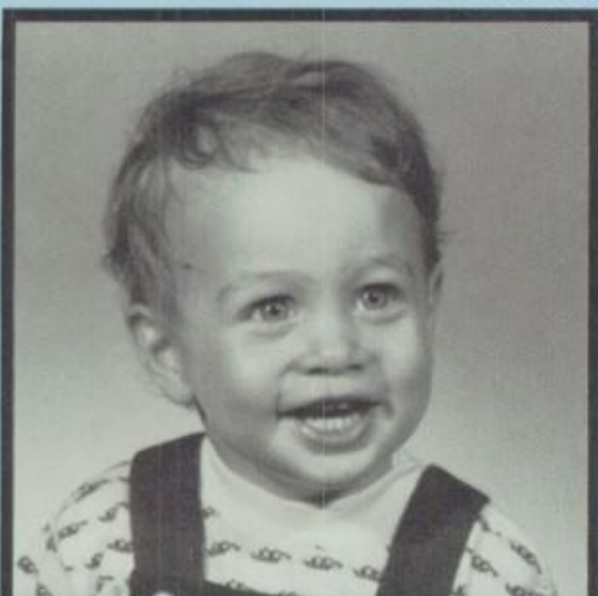

ROB DUNAVAN

We are very proud of you, Rob. As you go out into the world to make your own way, we pray for your health, success and most of all development of good values. God be with you now and forever. Mom and "Dad".

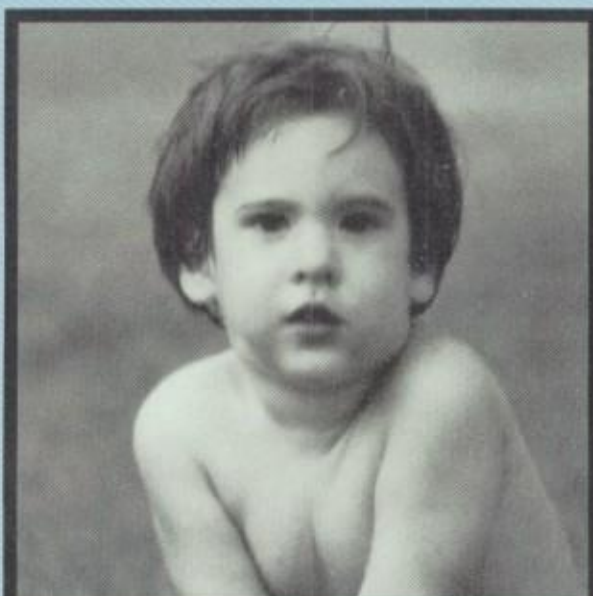

ERIC TORBERSON

Good luck, Eric! Remember we love you! Dad, Mom, Krista, and Sayra.

CHARLES STEVEN JOHNSTON

To "The Kid": Time has flown by. It seems only yesterday we packed your "Scooby Doo" lunchbox for your first day of school and now your graduating from SHS. We are proud of your accomplishments and of what a fine man you have become. You have our continued love and support. Remember, "Life is 10% what you make it and 90% how you take it." Mother, Daddy, and Elizabeth.

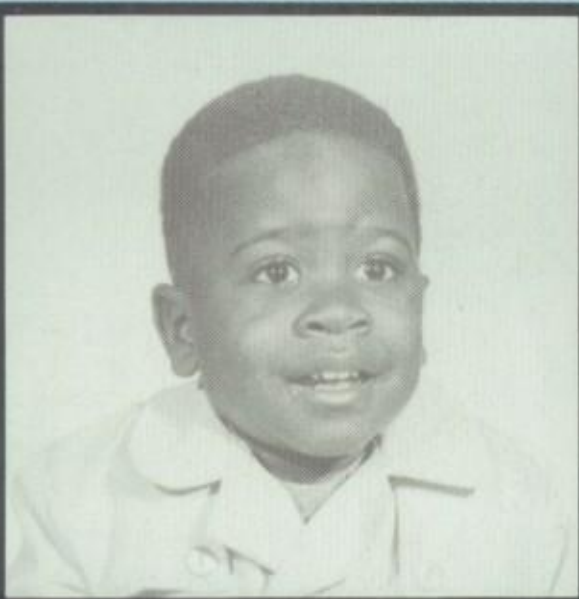

RICKY BROWN

You always did have a serious side! Well, we made it! We are very proud of the fine young man you have grown into. Keep your sights on the future, never forgetting your past.

WILLIAM MAY

Dear Sweet William, you are very special to us. We love you just the way you are. May all your dreams come true. Our love and prayers go with you always. We love you. Mother, Daddy, and Rusty.

CARL GABRIEL

Dear Carl, as your parents, we want you to know we are very proud of you. It is wonderful that you have gone this far on your journey to success. Keep up the good work. Brian says, he's glad to have a little brother like you. Love you, Mom, Dad, and big brother.

Answer: C

Just a look at yesterday,
A time, we have let fade away.
This picture, a child, a gentle mind,
This heart so caring, trusting, and kind.
Now we venture, alone at last.
Our future based upon our past.
Our parents bid a short farewell,
In their message a story they tell.
Of a saying so long ago.
What you reap, is what you sow.
To close this poem I'd like to say,
Good luck to us all, and later days.

MISSY MCMELEY

Well- Missy, you made it and it is we that are the basket case now. Seriously, look out world! A dynamite, creative, and beautiful young woman is about to enter the competition. We know you and we know you will succeed. We wish you love, happiness and fulfillment throughout your life. Love Mom and Dad.

LORI BARRETT

As you face the many challenges and experiences that are in your future, we only ask this of you. Never lose your love for life and the people in your life; hold strong to your beliefs and your respect for others; share your warmth, fairness, and sense of humor with all those around you; and, finally, ... HAVE FUN! You'll always be our "Pretty Lady". All our love, Mom, Dad, and Jeff.

JENNIFER WIESEDEPPE

Congratulations! We are proud of all that you have accomplished. This is only the beginning! Reach for the stars and remember that anything is possible. We wish for you all the joy and happiness you have given us. Remember the sign of the thumb. Love, Mom, Dad, Trish, and Bud.

ASHLEY ROBERTSON

Your children are not your children. They are the sons and daughters of life's longing for itself. They come through you but not from you, and though they are with you yet they belong not to you. You may give them your love but not your thoughts, for they have their own thoughts. You may house their bodies but not their souls, for their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams. You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you. For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday. Hoping your tomorrows will be all you dream. Love Mom and Dad.

HEATHER ARNOLD

Wasn't just yesterday your first day of school, and you held my hand? And now, the choices and decisions are yours, my hopes, prayers will always be that, whatever they are, they only bring you joy and happiness. And even when I disagree, you can always know and it will be- I LOVE YOU! Mom

MELISSA CANADY

Melissa, we are so proud of you and we love you so very much. If I could have a wish come true it would be that we could do it all over again with our "Little Red Head." It's hard to believe 12 years have passed so fast. Love you, Mom and Dad

TANA CRAWFORD

You weren't exactly a baby when you came to us two years ago, so this is our baby picture. Good luck as you begin this new page in your life. May your future be filled with happiness. We are so very proud of you, our Tana banana. Love Shawna and Alan.

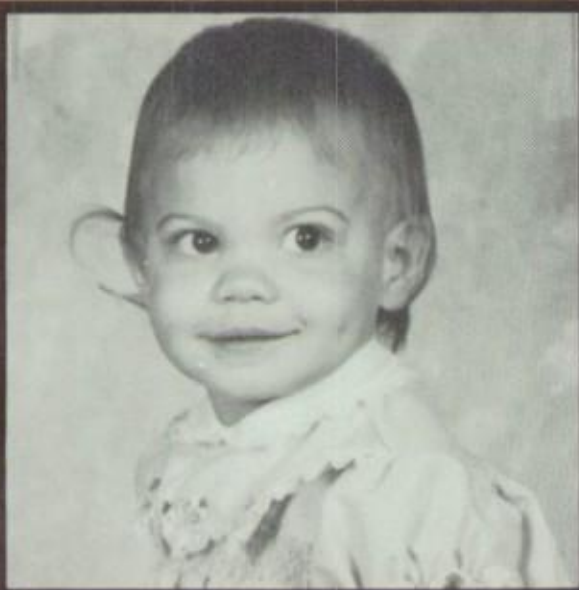

AMY ROBERTS

As the dreams of childhood become the realities of tomorrow, we know you will continue to have the happiness you deserve. Congratulations on all your past successes and best wishes for an even greater future. With all our love, Mom and Dad.

DENISE KINNEY

Congratulations Denise! You have finally made it. We are very proud of you and wish you only the best for the future in whatever you do. We wish for you happiness, contentment, love and success. YOU ARE SPECIAL and will always have our love and support. We love you! Mom, Dad, and Lance.

ANGIE ANDREWS

Angie, you have come a long way in life with a few bumps and problems, but you toughed it out and I am so very proud of you. Life is what you make it so hang in there honey. Your life has just begun. Go for it. Love Mom and Jon.

SHANNON BRANSCUM

Shannon, from the first day of your life you have added much joy to us. You have always listened to us hopefully knowing that our words of guidance and sometimes correction were out of love. Our goal is that you will have a happy life and allow God to help you in the decisions you will have to make in your future. Mother and Dad.

PHYLLIS DAVIDCHIK

Congratulations to you Phyllis on all your accomplishments. We love and respect the young woman you have become. Hold tight to the values you know are important and keep your priorities ever straight. You, then will be a happy and contented person. Our love, Mom and Dad.

NICOLE NELSON

To my daughter, a nice girl whom we're very proud of, you have grown so much, we're really going to miss you when you leave home. We wish you the best in life. May God bless and watch over you. Love Mom, Dad, Lisa, Keisa, and Ray.

DANA GOODMAN

Dana, congratulations for making it this far. You have brought "Joy" to us with each year's growth. Always continue to put God first in your life and all your goals can be easily attained. Love Dad, Mom, Kim, and Joseph.

CHELSIE CAMPBELL

Congratulations "Little Girl". We are very proud of you. Continue to set your goals high and work hard to reach them. But most of all, keep God in your life and you will go a long way. Proverbs 3:5-6. We love you Dad, Mom, and Chris.

MARSHA ANNE BANKS

Congratulations, Marsha Anne! We are very proud of all your accomplishments, but we are even prouder of the person you are. Best wishes for continued success in whatever challenges you choose to accept in life. We love you very much. Love, Mom, Dad, and Robin.

PERI HADDOCK

You stayed in there when most would have quit. If hard work is what is needed to succeed in this world, you have made it! You've proved to be a champion in the gymnastic world and our wish is that you also be a champion in life. Love, Mom and Dad.

MICHELLE MONROE

Michelle, we love you very much and we are very proud of you. May life always bring you happiness and know we will always be there for you. Thank you for all the wonderful memories you have given us. May God be with you. Love, Dad, Mom and Chris.

KELLY WILLIAMS

Congratulations, Kelly. We are very proud and happy for you as you graduate. You have always had a wonderful personality and lots of determination to get things done. You are very special to all of us. May God bless you in your future. We love you. Mom, Dad, John, James, Kathy, and Tony.

JENNIFER MILLER

We have watched you grow and we have even grown with you. We went through good times and bad times together. We love you very much and are so proud of you. May God's blessing always be with you. Love, Dad and Mom.

JOANNA KRAWITZ

Best of wishes, may your dreams come true. With your goals set high we know you can achieve them. May God be with you along your trail of success and achievements. Lots of love always. Mom, Dad, Chris, and Alan.

LINDA HASE

Dear P.B.A.- You are our last chick to leave the nest and no, we are not ready! Always remember how proud we are of you and how much we all love you. You're the last, but not the least! We love you, Bird! Mom and Dad, Jodie, Martin, Stephen, Scott, Kristi, Ronnie, and Susan.

CARY GILLESPIE

Your warm spirit and enthusiasm are a joy to us. You are conscientious and caring, and we are glad you're ours. Mom, Dad, and Maryanna.

LISA SPROUSE

Keep your faith, honesty, and optimism and a smile. Love Mom, Marv, Amber, Carleen and John-Paul.

DEBRA EDWARDS

Never lose sight of who you are. You're a champion. A winner. So reach for the best in you. It's been a joy growing with you. Best wishes. Your dad, mom, sisters, and brother Marcus.

STACEY HIPPS

You were our joy 18 years ago. You have been my strength since your dad's death. Your beauty and strength come from a deep faith in God and that is good. Be all you can be. Go placidly amid the noisy world, maintain peace within yourself and enjoy your achievements. Love, Mom.

TERRI MCCOLLUM

You have been a bright spot in our lives. We thank God daily for giving you to us, and we ask him to watch over you as you take this next big step of life. You're a wonderful daughter and sister. You're loved deeply. Mom, Dad, Brenda, Debra and Lana.

LAURIE GRAVES

Congratulations to a very nice person we are proud to have as our daughter. We love you. Mom and Dad.

SONJA WATWOOD

As you go forward from here, remember the wonderful years we have had together. We feel God picked the loveliest rose and allowed us to nurture it for a while. We love you and wish your future to be filled with happiness. We always want to be there when you need us. Love, Dad, Mom, Shane, and Shawn.

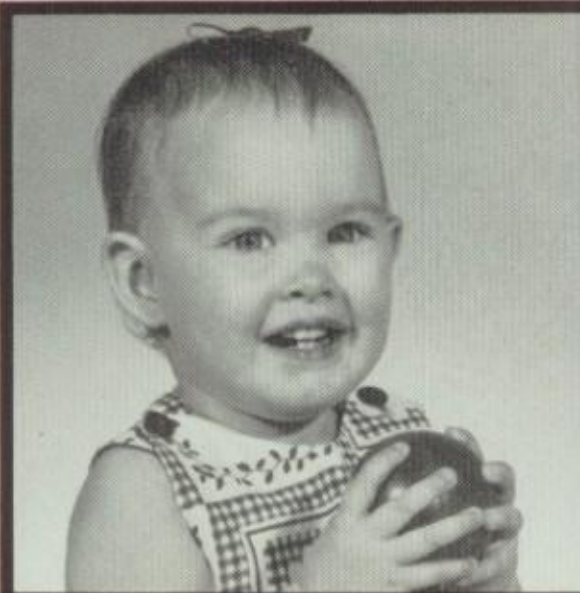

TINA WADE

Our little Tinker Bell, ain't little no more. You have brought 18 years of joy to our life. May God guide you and strengthen you through all your life. Continue to put God first and you will be successful. Congratulations "88". Love always, Mom, Dad, and Jason.

LISA RIVERA

Lisa, I don't have to hold your hand anymore and yet it's hard to let go. You're closing one chapter and opening another and we will treasure the memories of the past and enjoy "your successes in life". God bless you and we love you. Your Mom and "Family".

TAMMY KEY

Congratulations, Tammy! Unmistakable, we're proud of you. Watching you grow from diapers to blue jeans to prom dresses has been a joy we will treasure a lifetime. Stay true to yourself and be your own person. You have our genuine love always. Mom, Dad, and Lisa.

MELISSA STOVALL

Congratulations, Melissa. We're proud that you hung in there and acquired your high school degree. Watching you grow up and develop into a charming young lady has been rewarding. Keep setting high goals for yourself. We love you. Your Family.

LISA DEAN

Congratulations, Graduate! You have brought much joy to our lives these past 18 years. Your kind heart and beautiful smile have been a real blessing. Good luck on getting up in the mornings at UT! We love you. Mom, Dad and Jennifer.

CHRISTINA TUCKER

Words cannot express our love and how proud we are of our beautiful young lady. Use your brilliant mind and personality to make your life count when you become a nurse. Your patients will be blessed to have someone who really cares. May God be with you.

PATRICIA MARTIN

Congratulations! We are so proud of you. As you go forth into your future, always put God first. May God bless you and go with you. We love you, Mom and Leonard.

AMANDA RIDLEY

Amanda, We give to you our love, support and blessings. Which college or career you go into, you will do your best and enjoy as you do now. Keep your faith in God. Always like, respect and accept yourself! You have a wonderful life before you. Thanks Mandy, for being our lovely daughter. Love, Mother, Dad.

BARBIE TOLAND

Congratulations to our delightful daughter. Always so full of life- our blessing from God. Love Mom, Dad, Becky, Diana, and Tracie.

PENNY RICHARDSON

Penny, Congratulations! We are very proud of you. The years have passed so fast. Our love and support will always be with you! Good luck in the future in everything you attempt to achieve! Love Mom and Dad.

TRACY QUIN

Congratulations. You have always brought us special joy and excitement. Your family is very proud of you. Set your goals high and success will be yours. We love you. Dad, Mom, Anne, Steve, and Jennifer.

SONYA ANN ROBINSON

Thanks for sharing your love and dreams with us. As our first born daughter, you hold a special place in our hearts. Being the oldest of three girls has been frustrating at times, but you have three sisters who think you're terrific. As you graduate remember this quote, "If you can dream it, you can achieve it." We love you, Mom, Dad, Susanne, Sarah, and Stephanie.

MICHELLE HEITMANN

You've grown from a sweet little girl into an adventurous beautiful young woman. Even though you may not always get everything you want, the important thing is to be the best person you can be. We're very proud of you and we'll always be here for you. Love, Mom and Dad.

LISA GRAY

Oh, what a beautiful baby. We are proud of you. You have made our heart full of happiness and you are always bubbling over with excitement, and respect other people. You made our day. We all love you. Mother, Nanny, Jo, Kristal and Keith.

MARY RANDALL

Mary, Congratulations on your graduation in '88. We are so proud to have you for our daughter. We wish you continued happiness and success in the future. Remember, always to look forward and trust God for all your decisions in your life. Love, Mom, John, David, and Patricia.

HEATHER YOUNG

I am so proud of you. If you finish life as you have begun it, you'll be a great success. Love always, Mom, Girls, Aunt Kathy and Elvira.

TINIYA ANDERSON

Congratulations. We are proud of you and your persistence and determination to do your very best. Our wishes are that you will always put God first in your life and in everything you do. Your accomplishment, enthusiasm, honesty, loyalty, and beauty, makes you a special young lady. We love you. Mom, and family.

NANCY HAMM

Its really true! You were born with that dynamic smile and a heart full of joy. Giggles, laughter, music, and sunshine have filled our lives for 17 short, but precious years. You are God's blessing to us and we all love our Nancy Doll. Mom, Dad, Jill and Paige

KIM STOCKBRIDGE

To let you know how proud we are, and then to tell you, too, that day by day our love and thoughts will always be with you. Love Mom, Joe, and Syreeta.

KRISTI McNEW

Congratulations, Kris. God sent us a beautiful little baby that turned into a lovely young lady. Thank you for all our cherished memories. We are very proud of you and your accomplishments. We will always be there for you. Always remember Phil. 4:13. Love Always Mom, Dad, Gary

LORI BARBER

Congratulations, Lori! It seems like only yesterday you were a baby, now your a beautiful lady. Lori, I'm so proud of you. My only wish for you is that your life be filled with love and happiness . . . We love you. Mom, Granny Hamby and Jimmy

SHANNA CORLEY

You have given us joy and love in your 18 years. We thank God for giving you to us. You have always put God first in your life. This shows in you everyday. Your love and concern for others has been a beautiful quality of yours. Our prayer is that this quality continues to grow. Thank you for being such a beautiful Christian daughter. You are very special to us. We love you Dad and Mom.

SHELLY SCOTT

To our daughter Shelly: Seventeen years ago, God blessed us with a tiny baby girl. Today we are so very proud of all your accomplishments. You have grown into a beautiful, loving young woman and our prayer for you is that your future is filled with love and happiness and that all your dreams are fulfilled. We love you, Daddy, Mama, and Shawn.

ELISSA CHRISSY ALEMAN

Twinkly Toes: You were deaf here. Praise God you are deaf no more, and you did make it inspite of it all. We love you and are very proud of you and your accomplishments through the years. You are one of God's chosen people. So always put him first in all you do and you will not fail. We love you so much, Bill and Mom.

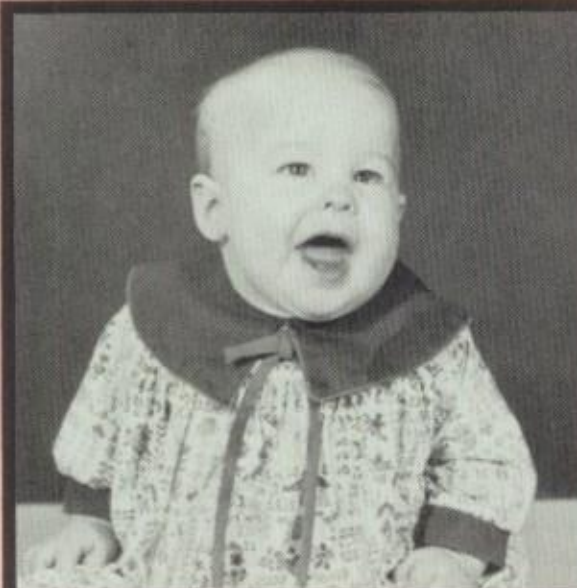

HOLLY SRODES

From little Miss Muffit, to a lovely young lady. Where have the years gone? You've touched our hearts and filled our lives with more joy than you can know. Your lovely smile and nice personality will be trademarks by which you'll always be known. Our love accompanies you always. Love, Mom, Dad & Derek.

LAURA ESSIN

Laura, God gave you to us and you are very special! We couldn't have asked for a better daughter. You have enriched our lives greatly and we are very proud of you. Wherever you go and whatever you do, our love will always be with you. Love, Mother and Daddy.

KERRY SMITHSON

Kerry, congratulations at this special time in your life. We are very proud of you, and thank you for the joy you have given us. May God's richest blessings be yours. Love, Mom, Dad, and Greg.

LISA WILLISTON

Lisa-Congratulations angel on all of your accomplishments. Every goal you have set has been reached through your hard work and determination. We're so proud of our precious talented and gifted young girl. We love you Mom, Dad, Donna and Chrissy.

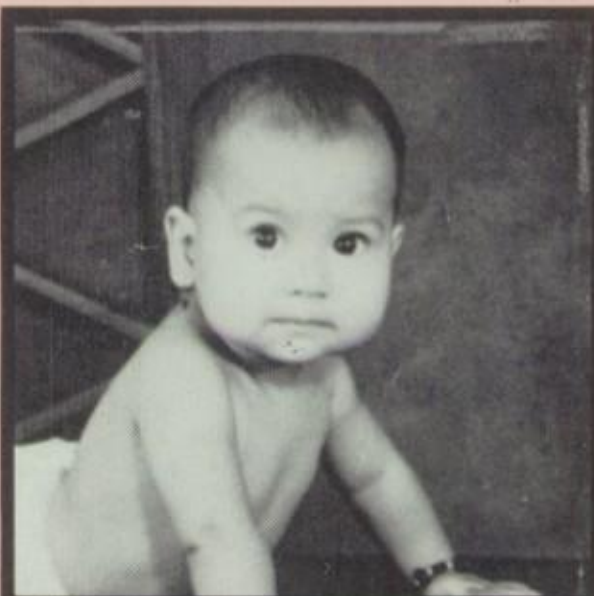

JANA SETTERBERG

Congratulations, Jana- you've been such a bright and shining part of our lives! We pray for you all of the best- and know with determination, you'll accomplish much and reach all of your goals. We love you- Mom, Dad, and Eric.

TARA SUTHERLAND

From 1 year to 18 years — seems just like yesterday. I couldn't have asked for a better daughter, and I'll always be proud of you. Congratulations on your graduation. I love you. Mom.

RACHEL PRICE

Congratulations, Rachell We are very proud of your accomplishments during your school years. We wish you good luck in your future to come and may God continue to be the center of your life. We love you and God bless you. Mom, Dad, and Joe.

SHEILA RATHFRON

Dear Sheila, There are not enough words to tell you how proud we are of you. Never lose sight of your dreams, aim high for everything is in your reach. Congratulations to our #1 daughter. We love you. Dad, Mom, Steve, Beverly, Julie, Bobby.

DEANNA SMITH

DeAnna (punkinhead) you are the most precious daughter we could ask for. You have made us very proud of you. Great personality, caring for people and most of all caring for and taking care of your animals. Thanks for all the laughter you have given us for the last 18 years. Mom and Dad.

TARA SOUTHERN

You have brought us so much happiness and joy these 17 years of your life. May God bless you and keep you as you go out to set a new goal. Keep that beautiful smile. Congratulations! Hush chicken you made it. We love you a lot. Daddy, Mother, and family.

CAMILLE PHELPS

Camille, how "special" you are to us. You have worked hard and diligently for this day. We are proud of your accomplishments, your dependence, with your desire to seek a higher level. Were very proud of you. Continue to set high goals and work hard. May God watch over you always. Love Dad, and Mom.

LISA REBER

Words can not express what we feel in our hearts. Throughout your life, your tears and joys have been ours too. We wish you peace, happiness and success. Graduation is a time to remember. We Love you, Mom, Dad, Paul, and Family

CINDEE MULLINS

Congratulations! Cindee! You have become a very beautiful self-sufficient, young lady. This is a special time in your life and we are very proud of you. We will always love and support you in what ever path you choose to pursue. Love Mom, Dad, and Steven.

JAMI DIANE ROBINSON

Congratulations, Jamil We hope you look back on your school years. We wish you much love, happiness and success in the future. We love you very much, and are very proud of you. Mom and Dad

CINDY PARKER

Cindy, you are the most beautiful daughter and sister anyone could have. We are so very proud of you. Congratulations on your graduation day. Love Mom, Dad, Brian, and Barry.

ANGIE ROYAL

Congratulations, Angie. We are so proud of you. You have brought so much love and joy into our lives. May god always be the center of your life. You will always have our love and support. Romans 8:28. Love Dad, Mom, Jennifer and Michelle.

HILLARY GREEN

Our dream fulfilled! You have been sunshine in our lives and in the lives of others that you have touched. Your accomplishments are to be treasured always and are there for you to build your future upon. Congratulations, best wishes and our hope that you have the wonderful future that you so greatly deserve. We Love You. Mom, Dad, and Monique.

MELANIE MORSE

You are what I always wanted in a daughter and a friend. You're sensitive, caring, understanding, and a complete joy to be with. You enrich the lives of everyone you meet. Life holds many wonderful things for you, and I hope I've helped you to find them. Love, Your Mother.

NATALIE SOFTLY

Congratulations, Natalie. We are so very proud of you. May you be happy and successful in whatever you choose to do, and always remember to put God first. We love you. Mom and Dad.

CISSY PENNELL

You are and always will be very special to us. With all our love we wish you happiness and fulfillment throughout your life. We are proud of all your achievements and your thoughtfulness of everyone around you. Always be yourself and work hard to achieve your goals. Love, Mama, Daddy, Denise, and Bo.

REBECCA FITZSIMMONS

Rebecca, you have grown from dolls to dates so quickly it seems it was only yesterday! As you embark into a world of independence, set your goals high, put the Lord first in your life and you will succeed. We are proud of your achievements and how hard you have worked to reach your goals. Love, Mom, Dad, Joel, and Patrick.

KRISTI RICKS

Kristi, you have brought much joy to our family. Your love of life and your sensitivity have added deep dimensions to our lives. God has blessed you richly, and our hope and prayer for your life is that you will allow Him to mold you into the young woman that He desires you to be. God bless you and keep you always. We love you! Mother and Dad.

BECKY TATCHIO

For the past 17 years you have loved us and taught us how to be parents. I know it hasn't been easy for you and we want to thank you for your patience and understanding. You taught us how to throw a slumber party for 20, how to referee disagreements between sisters, how not to worry when you take the car for the first time alone, how "not to worry!" How to reprimand without being cruel, and most of all how to accept our little girl becoming an adult. When you have children of your own you will have forgotten all of these teachings, but our wish for you is that you have a child you can love and cherish as much as we do you. We wish you happiness and good health. Love, Mom and Dad.

ANNE FLIPPIN

Von einem kleinen Pummelchen zu einem schoenen Erfolg! Mutti. From the Old World and the New, you have before you the Great Globe itself. Treasure always your gift of life. Keep on doing your best. For being and achieving, you give us great joy. Dad.

KIMBERLY BAZAN

Congratulations to the sweetest and loveliest daughter in the world. You have made me proud to say, "That's my girl." From kindergarten thru high school, you have reached the first milestone in your education. Set your goal high with your determination and take God as your partner and Bible as your guide. You will succeed. The only secret of a happy life is Matt 6:33. I love you, Mother.

SHARON LAY

Sharon, we love you and are proud of all you have accomplished thus far. Best of luck throughout the coming years. Love, Mom, Dad, and Shaun.

ANNETTE JONES

Annette, dear, you have been a joy since the moment you were born - with your vibrant spirit, wit, and wisdom. May you always have your love of life and of God. Know that we are so very proud of you and that you are cherished. Love always, Mom and Peter.

TRICHELE STAPLETON

You are our blond hair, blue-eyed beauty. Your terrific sense of humor and your strong determination have made you "one of a kind". I guess all of the drawings on the walls and furniture through the years helped to make you the artist you are today and the even greater one you will be in the future. We are very proud of you. You are a lovely daughter and a fantastic sister. Love, Mom, Dad, and Chantaye.

REBECCA BOYINGTON

Rebecca, you have given your family many years of happiness and joy. We are very proud of your accomplishments and the high values you have developed. May God be with you always. Love Mom, Dad, and Kelly.

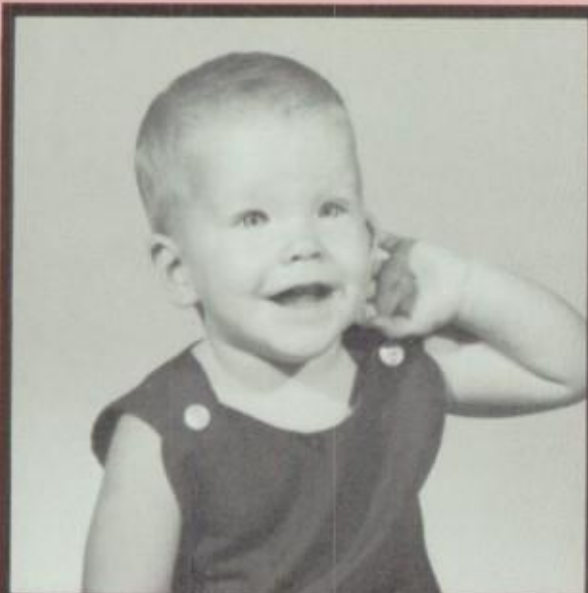

AMY JONES

Amy Beth, We believe your ability to "hang in there" and "dig" when you need to is a God-given talent, and he won't ever let you down and neither will we, knowingly. We love you with all our hearts. Mom and Dad, Emily and Natalie.

ROBIN RITCHIE

Robin, you have been the joy and sunshine of our lives. One door is closing and you are beginning the rest of your life. You have set your goals high and all your dreams will come true. The world is waiting and you are ready. You are a winner in anything you set out to do. So watch out world ... here she comes!! Our unconditioned love, Mom and Dad.

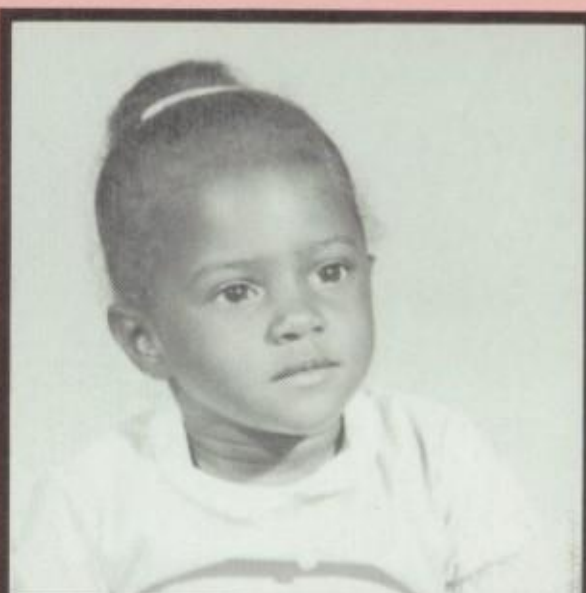

KRISTAL LAREE WILKS

Congratulations! We are very proud of what you are and what you have accomplished. May your future be successful and full of happiness. We will always be here for you, "Baby Girl." We love you, Mom, Dad and Tommy.

SHERRY CHURCH

Congratulations on your special accomplishment. We are so proud of you. You are truly a pride, joy, and blessing to us. Keeping your happy spirit and attitude toward life will benefit you in the world today. You can do and be anything you want to be. We wish you all the success, happiness and love in the world. We love you, Mom, Dad and Shelly.

ZELDA WAFER

Nicki Poo. May life bring you everything your heart desires. The sky is the limit. God bless you. Love Mom.

ROBIN GOODPASTER

Robin, we are all very proud of the accomplishments you have made in the past. Now it is time for you to face yet another phase of your life with the same determination and unlimited energy you have shown us. Follow your dream wherever it may lead, be happy and never become too busy to share your smile with others. Love Mom, Dad, and Brad.

DANIELLE LEGG

Congratulations! I'm very proud of you. You've made it through twelve years of hard work and have grown into a sweet, intelligent, beautiful young woman. As you begin this new exciting phase of your life, never forget I love you and I am always here for you. Love, Mom.

STACY WILLIAMS

What a joy you have always been! You are a very special person who has grown into a beautiful young lady. I am very proud of you and your strength to accomplish whatever goals you choose. I love you very much. Mom.

CLARISSA HARTMAN

Graduation time is here and it seems only yesterday you started kindergarten. You are a sweet daughter and we're proud of you and the high standards you've set. We wish for you happiness, contentment, love and success. Put the Lord first in your life and remember we love you. Mom and Cindy.

ROBIN DELYNN ABBOTT

What a joy and delight you have been to our family! We are very proud of you. Remember to always be the best you can be and to keep the Christian values you have been taught. Love Mom, Dad, Jeff, and Chris.

MINDY WOODWORTH

Thank you for adding joy, excitement, human and a new dimension to our lives. What a boring life it would have been without our precious gift from God. Keep God in your life. Don't forget about your parents and old friends in your new world. Keep smiling. Mom, Dad, and Andrea.

ANGIE SUMNER

Angie, you have always known how to relax. You are a real blessing to us! Thanks for the past 17 years and being the person you are. You continue to enrich our lives. We are proud of you and love you very much. Mom and Dad.

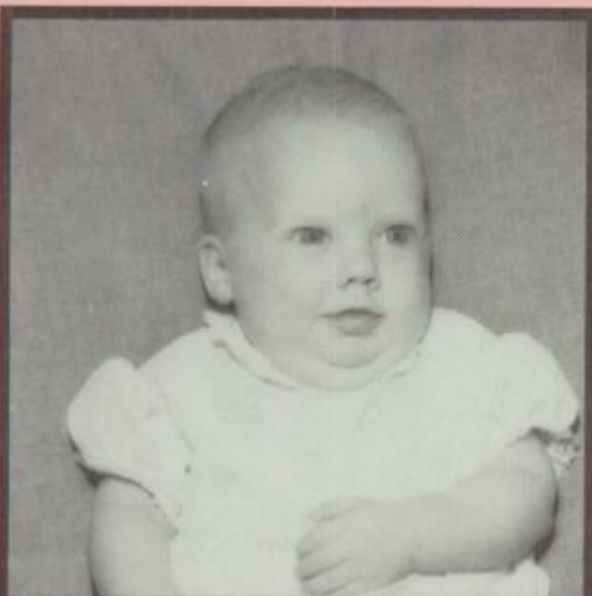

SHELLY WRIGHT

Congratulations Shelly. We are so very proud of you and thankful for the years of pleasure and admiration you have given us. May your future hold only joy and success that you deserve so much. Our constant love and respect will be with you always. Thank you for being you.

LISA EARNEST

Good show! We love you, Mom and Dad.

STACI MANTOOTH

It's been fun watching you grow into a pretty and happy young lady. Thanks for bringing us such joy. We're so proud of you. Continue to serve the Lord for a bright future. You're loved so very much and you'll always be our baby. Love Mom, and Dad.

DONNA DUNHAM

Donna, you have the ability to succeed in anything you make your mind to do. Our prayer for you is to succeed and make the most of your life. We love you very much and are very proud of you. Mom and Dad.

CATERINA LABARDINI

The sun rises, the moon sets; Decades pass, but we cannot forget. That dark eyed beauty without a curl. Our very first little baby girl.

NATALIE KOEHLER

These 18 years have passed too quickly for us. It seems you've gone from dolls to diamonds over night. We are so very proud of you and wish you the best life has to offer. You can always count on our love and support. May God always direct you. We love you. Mom and Dad

CHERYL HANCE

You have come a long way. Congratulations to a very special young lady. You have worked hard throughout the years, and have done well. We are very proud of you. Have a happy, rewarding future and may all your dreams come true. Be happy and keep smiling. Love, Mom, Dad, and Steven.

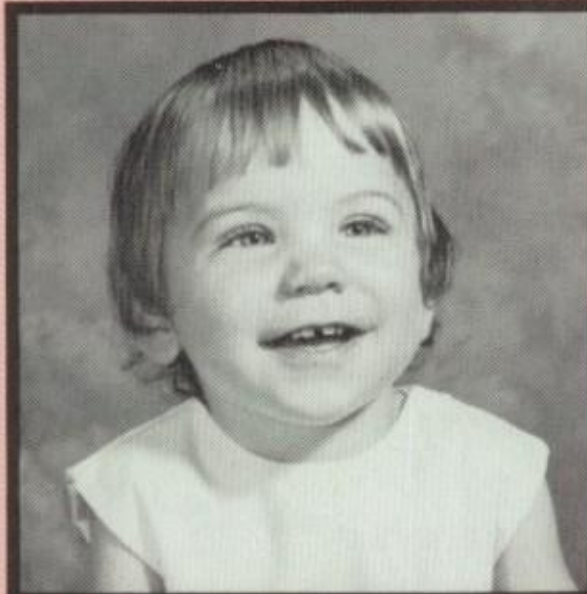

CARMEN M. VALLE

Congratulations!!! I'm proud of the person you have become and all the things you have accomplished. Be sure to always show that sweet smile. Trust God in life for He will give you strength and victory. I love you, Mom.

HOLLY WILLIAMS

"Life is the music that dances through our days, our nights, and our years." You have come out of a time mingled with problems and accomplishments, wiser, happier, and smarter. We are proud of the way you handled yourself, the way you thought out proper solutions, and the strength you used in following through. You are a wonderful person, and a beautiful daughter. We love you, Mom and Dad.

DEBRA McCLUSKY

Congratulations, Debi! You will be starting a new exciting chapter in your life now. I have been blessed to have such a sweet daughter (most of the time). I am very proud of all that you are and all that you have accomplished. Be yourself and strive to be happy. Our wish for you is love, happiness, and much success in every area of your life. God bless you. Love, Mom and Cindy.

TRACY BAUER

Well, darlin', you're on your way out on your own. Scared? Sure! We all are, but you've got what it takes. Quick wit, good looks, and a great sense of humor. Have confidence in yourself. You're a good friend, and we all love you tremendously! Mom, Dad, Brian and Granny.

MICHELLE ALLEN

You've come along way Baby! Congratulations. You made it. Were so proud of you. I know it hasn't always been easy, but your strength and determination has, paid off and it will see you through in the years ahead. Just trust in God and be your own beautiful self. We love you, Mom and Dad.

MELISSA LEMONDS

Congratulations, Melissa. God has blessed us with you, and we are so very proud of you. This is only the beginning of a wonderful life. Follow your dreams and remember that anything is possible. In the past 17 years you have achieved many things, because you had your goal set high. May your years continue to be filled with love, happiness and success; we're proud to have you as our daughter. May God bless you always. Love, Dad, Mom, Talei, Dawn, Misty, Kevin, and Ashley.

KRISTY FRIEND

Congratulations! You have accomplished another goal and we are proud of you. With the gifts that God has given you and your own hard work, you can achieve any goal you set. Thank you for being you! Our love and support is forever. Mom, Dad and Les.

DARLA ROGERS

Congratulations! It's hard to believe our little "Dolly" is graduating from high school. You have been such a joy to us. We are so proud of you and love you so much. Always seek God's will for your life and you will succeed. Love, Mom, Dad, Dale and Dana.

SHANNON SMITH

Play and laugh, and work and yearn, you will live what you will learn. Times get uncertain, people come and go lead with your heart and know what you need to know. We love you and are very proud of you. Mom and Dad.

TRACY CAFFEY

Congratulations on a job well done. Always try to maintain a positive attitude and a sensitive heart. Remember we will be here for you if you ever need a friend. Love, Mom and Dad.

LEAH COMMONS

You've been the baby for so long, to say you're grown somehow seems wrong. The road ahead is rough and long, you won't be here but you'll never be gone! Love and Congratulations. Mom, Daddy, Nana, Donette, Rachel, Blair, and Little Amy.

STACY FORD

In 18 years there are many memories. Our dreams and goals have grown. We've made mistakes along the way. But just wait til you have kids of your own!! Congratulations! Mom, Dad, Amy, and Carly.

STACY FORD AND NICKI COMMONS

ICKIE AND RACY, We've seen you thru to graduation, glasses, braces, infatuations. Volkswagons, boys, skipping school, fussing, fighting, breaking rules. What lies ahead we can only guess. But we wish for you the very Best!! Love your parents.

SUSAN CARTER

Molly ... Lizzie ... our sweet, sweet, adorable BABY SUSAN. We ask ourselves, where have the years gone? You should still be our baby, going to Jack&Jill and riding your bike at the trails in Fairview Park. You have grown up too fast but into such a beautiful young lady. You have set some high goals for your future but with the determination and belief you have we know that you will accomplish each of them. Always remember that whatever you decide to do we stand behind you all the way. We love you so dearly and hope that all your dreams come true. Mama and Papa.

SHELLY IMBERT

You're an 80's lady, fine as they come. Always busy, always having fun! Never in real trouble, but sometimes on the line. Out with the lifeguards having a good time. You swim like a fish with a wet look thats true. But you're our pick of this years crop and we're wishing the best for you! We love you! Dad, Mom, Charley and Gran.

NICOLE ESTERS

Nicole I am very proud of you. You are the light of my life. If there ever was an ideal child you are that child. Continue to make me proud of you. Congratulations, may your future be as bright as you made my life. Love Mom.

What's Happening in Texas?

The stars at night are big and bright," but so were the stories that stole the headlines of Texas' newspapers.

The people of Texas did not forget the thirty people who died in Saragosa when it was hit by a tornado, nor did they forget the warm welcome they gave to Pope John Paul II when he stopped in San Antonio on his American tour.

Texas prisons halted admission twenty-two times when the inmate population topped the legal limit. Prisons weren't the only thing to close in Texas. Fifty Texas banks had to shut their doors in 1987.

So with all the news that happened, how did Sherman fair?

Sherman saw Safeway and Lowe's Building Materials close along with Hitchcock Industries. Luckily, Hitchcock was purchased and reopened. The city also saw the openings of JCPenny and Movies 5 in Midway Mall, Celebrities, the Medical and Surgical Clinic at AMI Medical Plaza Hospital and Wal-Mart in late 1986.

The whole town took pride in the 'Kids Against Drugs' effort by Piner Middle School students.

News is what makes society. Whether it was state wide or just local, the news represented the good and bad of society.

Iran Contra Hearings Top List

From Washington to Moscow, world news rang through radios and TVs, engulfing magazine and newspaper readers and keeping our minds anxiously awaiting each story.

"I'm here to tell the truth, the good, the bad, and the ugly." Those were the immortal words of Lt. Col. Oliver North as he began his Iran-Contra — Senate hearings. Also telling what they knew were John Poindexter, and North's secretary, Fawn Hall.

Political headlines were given a heavy dose of presidential hopeful Gary Hart's and Miami model Donna Rice's affair. Their affair spawned Gary Hart's dropping out of the presidential race, but he reappeared in December.

Now the two Jessicas. Baby Jessica McClure spent fifty-eight hours in an underground well in Midland, Texas. Oil field workers fought bravely to save her and were honored with a parade. Jessica Haun was the subject of a scandalous affair with PTL Club host Jim Bakker. Her "bedside manner" with Bakker brought the decline of the Bakker family and the PTL Club.

News is what kept us informed and enlightened. From the echoes of Congressional benches to religious ups and downs, reporters kept reporting and the truth was told.

The Downside of 1987

It's Only a Matter of Time

Death and disasters are events that no one can avoid. Many famous people died in 1987: some of the more popular included Liberace, Lorne Greene, Jackie Gleason, Ray Bolger and Fred Astaire. Each one of these performers touched his audience in a unique way.

Natural disasters are always catastrophic. Tornadoes, earthquakes and plane crashes caused the big distractions in 1987. Saragosa, Texas was hit by a tornado that left thirty people dead and 160 people injured. An earthquake in the Los Angeles area destroyed parts of surrounding suburbs. One of the worst plane crashes in history happened at Detroit Metropolitan Airport when 156 people were killed during the plane's take-off. Twenty-eight people were killed at Denver's Stapleton International Airport during their plane's take-off.

Death and disasters came quickly in 1987, but the losses will be remembered long after.

Come Home to TV

Comedies are Favorite Programs

Television was a favorite pastime among many Americans. In 1987 and early 1988, seven of the top ten TV programs were comedies. Thursday nights and NBC also were tops as "The Cosby Show", "A Different World", "Cheers", and "Night Court" all came on one after another, on the same channel, and were rated the number one, two, three, and four shows of the year. "A Different World", a "Cosby Show" spin-off starring Lisa Bonet, was the biggest new show of the year. The other three top comedies of the year were "Who's the Boss?", "The Golden Girls" and "Growing Pains".

Cable TV continued to be popular as ever. Movie channels, home shopping channels, and sports channels were just a few types of specialized viewing that helped increase cable popularity.

The major competition TV had was the increasing number of video cassette recorder owners. In 1987, over fifty percent of American households had at least one VCR, and movies on video became easier and cheaper to rent and purchase.

A Major Use of the VCR

Soaps, Games Reach Popularity

Will Steve and Kayla ever marry? What if Vanna White forgets her vowels? Will Judge Wapner give a fair trial? What will Oprah talk about? Questions like these were asked by daytime viewers everyday as they sat down (when at home — school went on while most of these shows were on) to watch popular daytime shows in 1987.

Soap operas were the most popular. "General Hospital", "All My Children", "Days of Our Lives" and "The Young and the Restless" were the most watched soaps. One soap, "The Bold and the Beautiful" made its debut in

'87 while "Search for Tomorrow" was taken off after thirty-five years.

Games shows were not as hot as soap operas, but "Wheel of Fortune", "The Price is Right" and "Jeopardy!" remained favorites of viewers. Talk shows had competition in '87. Phil Donahue, Oprah Winfrey, and Geraldo Rivera all battled it out for the top talk show host. Court shows also had big success. "The People's Court", "Superior Court" and "Divorce Court" all had real-life or acted out cases presented on them.

Bangles, Bon Jovi End Year at #1

Every year, hundreds of new songs make their debut on the radio aiming to be a #1 song or top five hit. For some artists their very first hit, like Tiffany and her remake of "I Think We're Alone Now" became a #1 smash. "Shakedown" by Bob Seger was his first #1 after twenty years of trying. After her first #1 in 1967 with "Respect", Aretha Franklin came back and hit with "I Knew You Were Waiting" with George Michael. The Bangles song "Walk Like an Egyptian" was the #1 song of the year.

Heavy metal artists dominated the album charts in the spring with six of the top ten by artists like Motley Crue, Whitesnake and Poison. Two albums debuted at the top spot in 1987; "Whitney" by Whitney Houston and "Bad" by Michael Jackson were the most awaited albums of the year.

At the year's end, artists donated efforts for the "A Very Special Christmas" album with proceeds being donated to the Special Olympics. Artists participating included Bruce Springsteen, U2, Madonna, Eurythmics, Run DMC, and Bon Jovi. As for Bon Jovi, their album "Slippery When Wet" sold ten million copies and was the #1 album of the year.

- D. Jaws IV

Answer: C

"Let's Go to the Movies!"

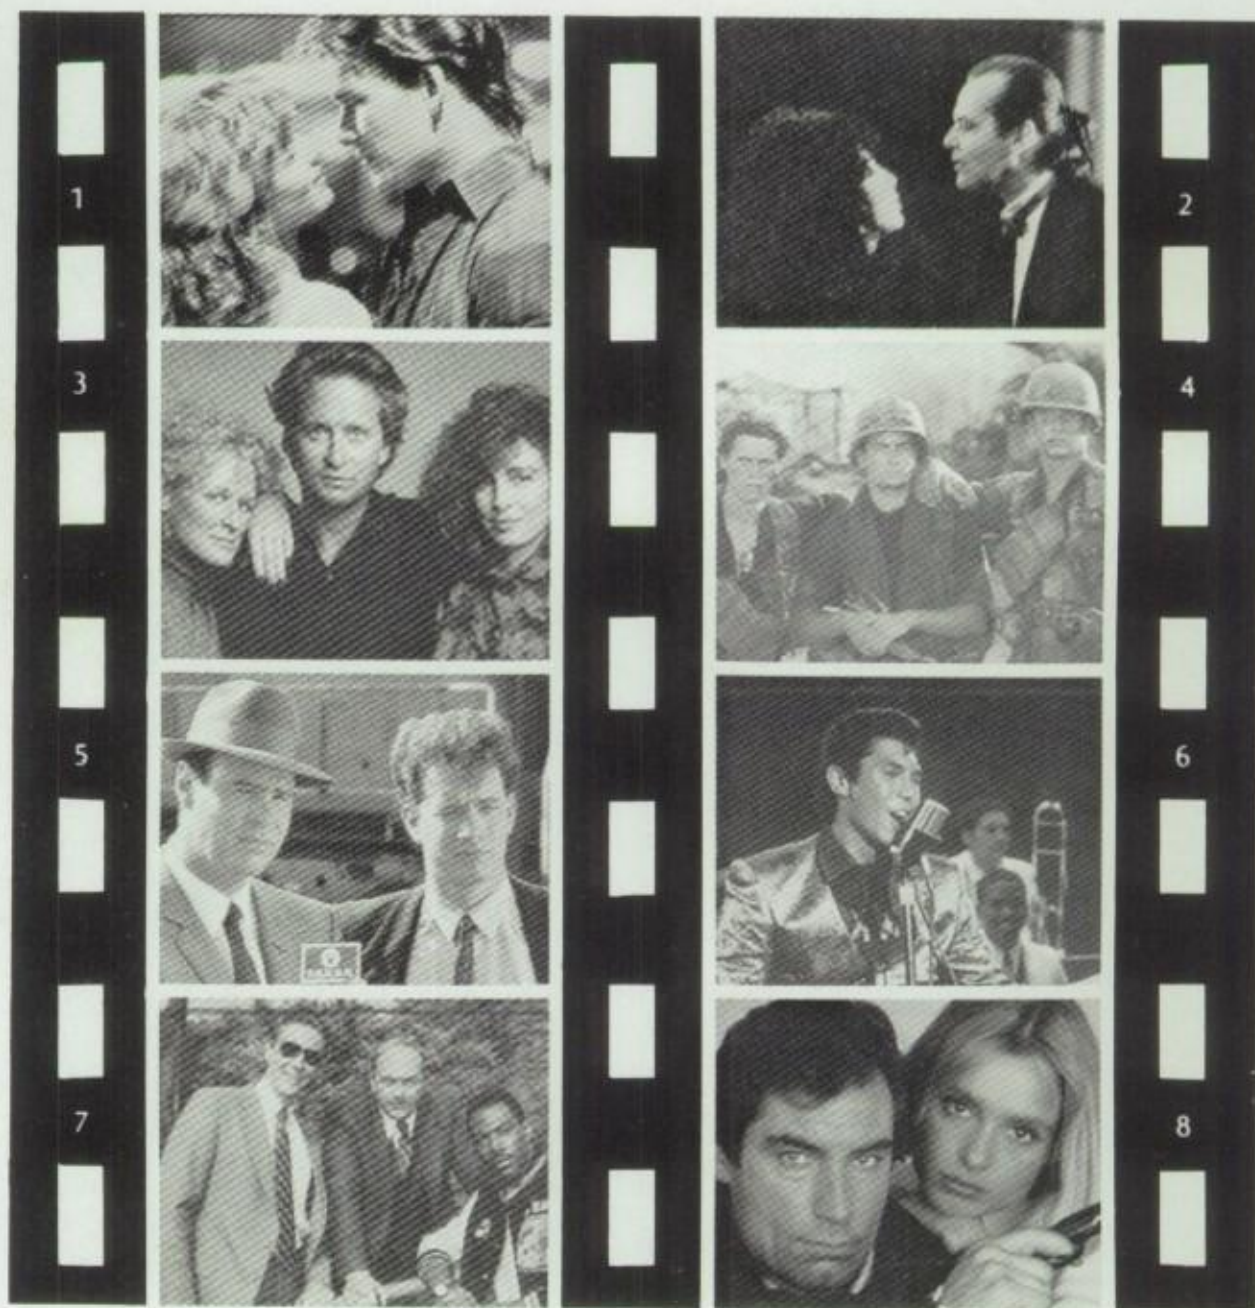

Beverly Hills Cop II-#1 Movie

Very few years in the past have had as many successful movies as in 1987. The ticket prices for movies rose to $7 in some New York theaters, but in Sherman prices were $4.50. No matter what the price, movie-goers continued to flock to see the latest releases. The biggest movie of the year was Beverly Hills Cop II starring Eddie Murphy. Murphy played a cop who had come to Beverly Hills to help capture jewel thieves. The movie earned $154 million in its release and outdid the first big hit of '87 Platoon. A movie portraying the life of American soldiers in the Vietnam war, Platoon earned $124 million at the box office and was named Best Picture at the 1987 Academy Awards.

1987 was the year of the new "Bond — James Bond". Timothy Dalton starred as 007 in The Living Daylights as the British secret serviceman celebrated his 25th anniversary.

Celebrating her 50th anniversary was Walt Disney's Snow White. Disney Productions rereleased the classic as well as the classic Cinderella in 1987.

The two surprise hits of the year were Dirty Dancing, a nostalgic look at the youth in the '60s and LaBamba, a biography of '50s singer Ritchie Valens. A movie still going strong at the end of 1987 was the shocking story of casual relationships. Fatal Attraction starred Michael Douglas, Glenn Close, and Anne Archer in the deadly love triangle movie.

'Guess?' What's Hot!

SHS Gets Addicted to Style

Looking sharply at the students of SHS, fashion experts easily saw that fashions, though varied for individual tastes, still stayed hot. New fads brought sometimes dreadful, other times strange, but often snappy styles to the halls and classrooms.

Individuality was the main key in the 1987-1988 school year. Students wore clothes in ways to make them feel good about themselves. What were the hot fashions of '87 at Sherman High?

Boots were not just for the "cowboy" anymore. Boots went with western wear, evening wear, and everything in between.

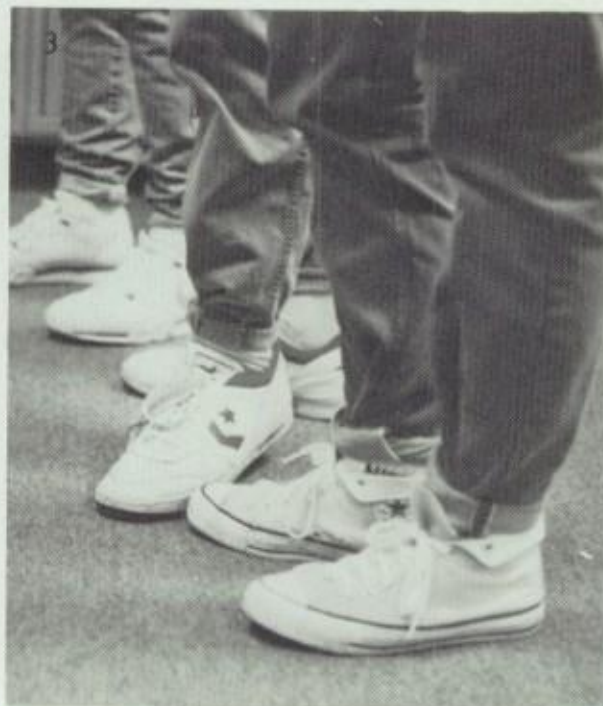

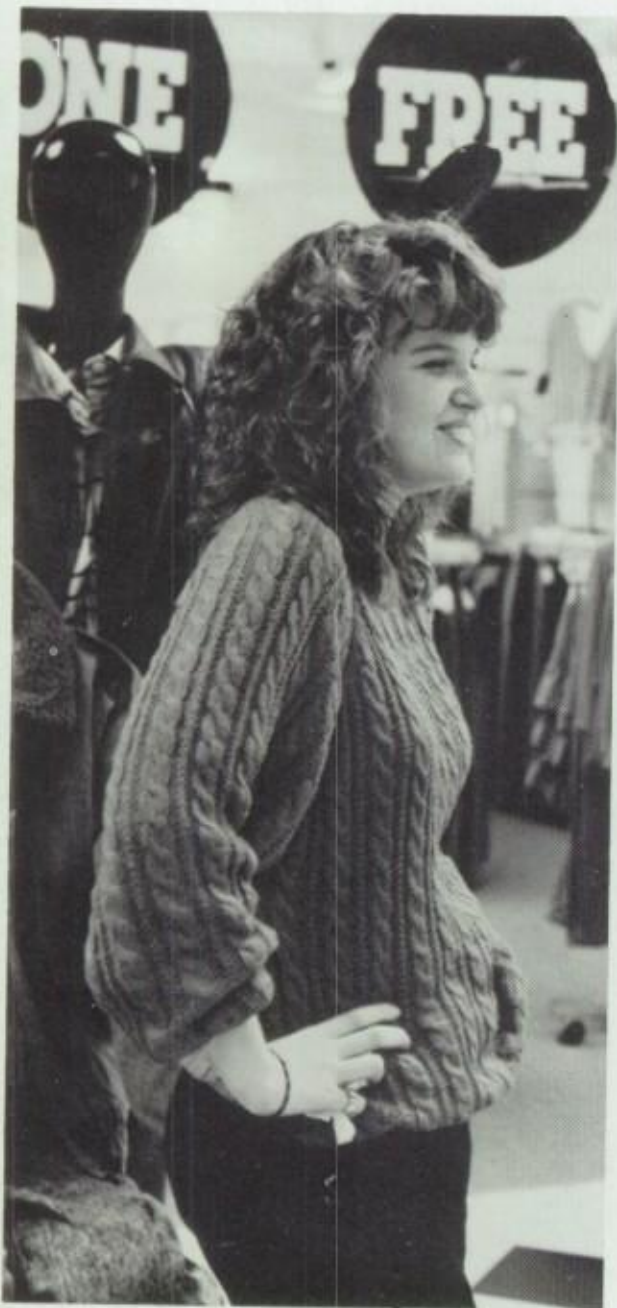

Denim, the oldest fashion material of all, continued to be stylish in any and every way: overalls, long or short skirts, shirts, blouses, tiered minis, shoes, purses, and jackets. Levi's and Guess? were the hottest brands in jeans. The new look of acid-washed jeans was popular, but did not over-rule regular blue jeans, black jeans, or stonewashed jeans. Rolling the jeans up at the ankles again became a popular trend like in the 1950s.

Nike, Reebok, Converse, and Dexters were popular feet apparel while cardigan sweaters, leather skirts and jackets, turtlenecks, baggy pants, large belts and specialized T-shirts such as Corona Beach Club, Spuds MacKenzie, and Hard Rock Cafe hit Sherman High so hard fashion catalogs must have come to the school for fashion tips.

Answer: A

The Cost of Living

Money Earned Was Money Spent

Jobs and allowances were the ways of earning money for the eighties teen-ager. Along with the money came the cost of living.

Things in 1987 were not cheap. Teens mostly spent their money on music, movies, food, and clothes.

Music had a year in price. Albums and cassettes sold for $7.99 to $8.99 when not on sale. The growing sales of compact discs kept the price at a stable $15.99.

The price of a movie was $4.50 at the theater. On certain nights and on week-ends before 6 pm prices were reduced to $2.

Pizza and hamburgers were the foods digested most by teen-agers. A large pizza with toppings cost $10.40 at Mazzio's. A Big Mac at McDonald's cost $1.59 and a Whopper at Burger King cost $1.65.

Clothes were the most expensive items that were bought by an allowance. Jeans, dress shirts, and shoes cost $25 to $50. T-shirts cost $15.

Other expensive items that were furnished by teens were car insurance, gas, and mouth retainers after the first one was "accidentally" lost.

Places to Go, Things to Do

Sherman Does Offer a Good Time

In a city with almost 40,000 people, there were plenty of things to do at boring times after school or on the weekend.

By the end of the summer of 1987, Sherman had three movie theaters; UA Cinema at Sher-Den Mall, Movies 5 at Midway Mall and Cinema 4 (formally the Plitt) on Hwy 75. Each week there were always plenty of movies from which to choose.

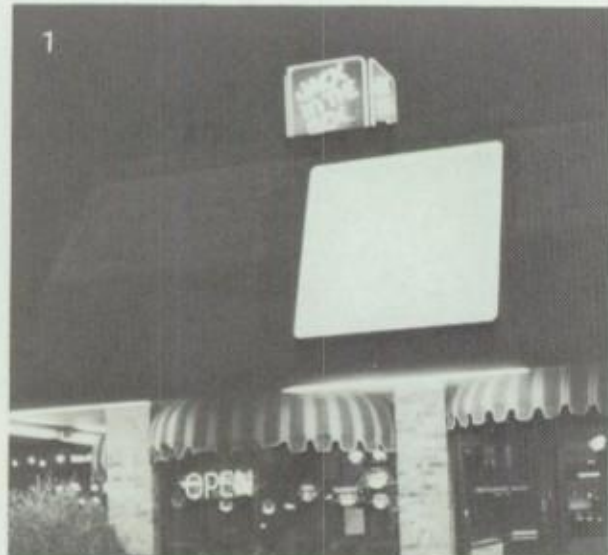

Night clubs were popular to go to for a fun night out. Celebrities was opened for 13-20 year olds for dancing, eating, playing video games, and having conversations with friends on table phones. The Electric Company in Denison held Teen-Night during the summer and on occasions during the rest of the year.

Restaurants were popular meeting places for friends. Jack-in-the-Box and Whataburger were two 24-hour restaurants open in Sherman, and after a night of activities, friends could stop by for a snack before going home ... or somewhere else.

The malls in Sherman attracted the "after-school" crowd. After a hectic day at school, it was great to go to Sher-Den or Midway Mall or a host of smaller shopping centers to spend a few dollars on whatever was needed: records, clothes, cosmetics, books, etc.

Then there was the greatest place of all to go — Lake Texoma. Parties, picnics, sun-bathing, swimming, fishing, and boating were all lake activities of SHS students. Sometimes the peace of the lake was what was enjoyed most.

The Year in Sports

N.Y., L.A., and Twins All Winners

Remember the talk of the scabs, strike, lively balls and homer hankies? Well, those are just a few terms the world of sports provided in 1987.

The new year began with a smash when Penn State defeated Miami to win the coveted national title for 1987. The New York Giants were the big hit in the NFL, slaughtering all opposition to XXI where they defeated the Denver Broncos to win the rings.

The basketball fans of America were treated to another fun filled season of slam-dunks, alley oops, and three-point shots that are usually only dreamed of. The Indiana Hoosiers were the champs of college basketball, while the Los Angeles Lakers outplayed the Boston Celtics to claim the NBA title.

Spring soon came around and that meant only one thing — baseball season was upon the country. Through the hot summer days there were outstanding double plays, homeruns and stolen bases. The season came to a close when the Minnesota Twins won the World Series overcoming the St. Louis Cardinals.

The year wound down with an NFL strike in which "scab" players replaced the regulars, and after a month the strike was over.

Dallas had a good year in sports, despite the Cowboys' and Texas Rangers' losing seasons, but the Sidekicks (soccer) won the MISL title and the Mavericks won their first divisional title.

All things considered, the year 1987 was a great one in sports and the year 1988 promised to be even better.

SHS auditorium rocked from 8:00-10:00 on Wednesday, February 24, 1988, when the awesome group "The Edge" jammed at Sherman High School. The beat began on Monday, when teens finally got to shake it at an assembly, an unexpected treat.

"You thought they were going to talk the whole time, but they didn't — it was bad!," Angie Miller rememberd, "I was impressed." Almost 1000 teenagers packed the auditorium on Wednesday, each paying $5.00 a pop. Was it worth it?

"It was because the singers were really cute and they played a lot of popular music," concluded Sheri Dunn.

The group: Kevin, Bass; Craig, Guitarist; Mark, Lead; Steve, Keyboard; and Chris, Drummer; began with "Just Like Paradise" and ended with "Raise Your Hands."

It was indeed a gala affair.

The End Gets Closer Each Day

Last Months of School Remembered

Even though the Athenian's completion deadline was in February, activities continued to go on the last three months of the school year.

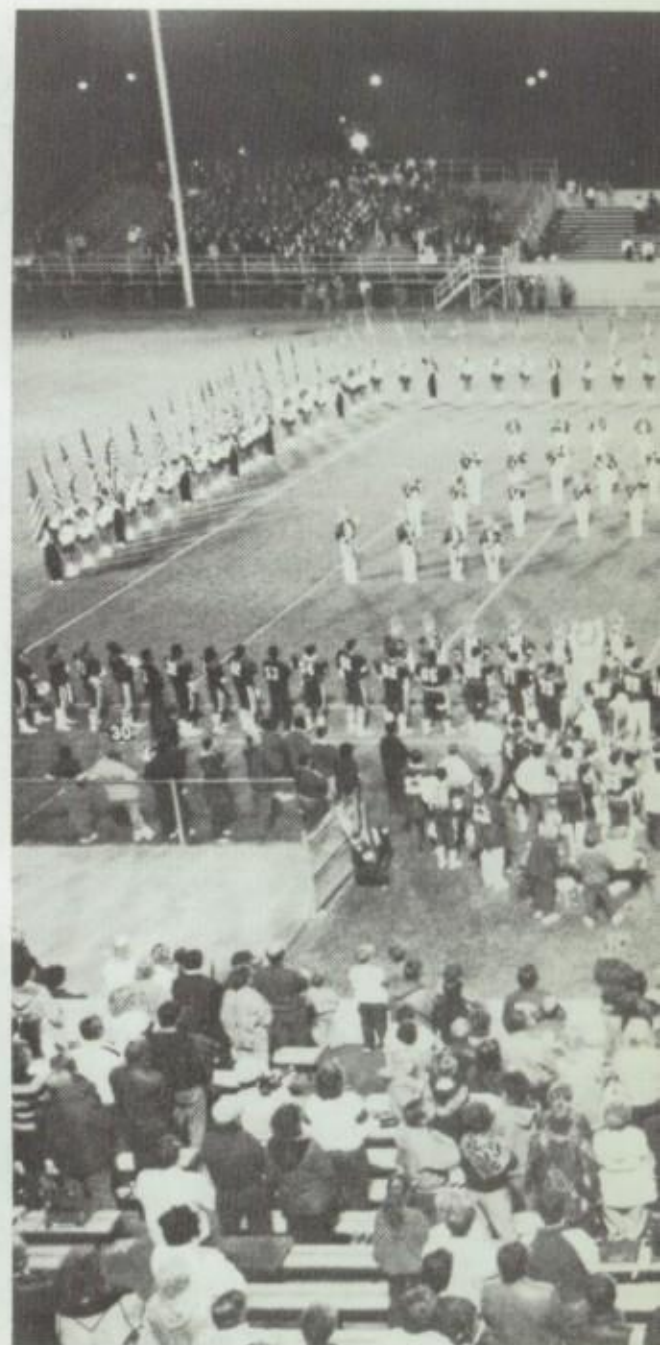

Spring break was the last school vacation before summer. The week long break in previous years had been spent at home or on a trip. Skiing trips to Colorado and trips to the beach at Padre Island and Fort Lauderdale, Florida were taken for relaxation away from home. People returned home from these places with sun burns and tans.

In late March was the "most exciting" event for the underclassmen. Comprehensive Tests of Basic Skills (CTBS Tests) were given for three days on subjects like math, spelling, science, and social studies. While the underclassmen took tests, the seniors were shown a movie, given a dance, and played basketball games between former Piner and Dillingham teams.

In April, all of the seniors gathered together for the panoramic picture. This group portrait was the last time the seniors all came together until the major event in June. Also in April was the Powder Puff football game between the senior and junior girls. The senior and junior guys also participated as the coaches, cheerleaders, and drill team.

The biggest event of all was during the week of June 3. The class of 1988 came to realize that their high school days had come to an end as graduation and the prom approached them.

While Matt Day dances to "Pump Up the Volume" at a school dance, Kurt Meglan takes a moment to salute his country and recite the Pledge of Allegiance.

"I don't think I can handle much more of this." Chimene McElwain can't wait for the day to end so she can rest her hand from note taking.

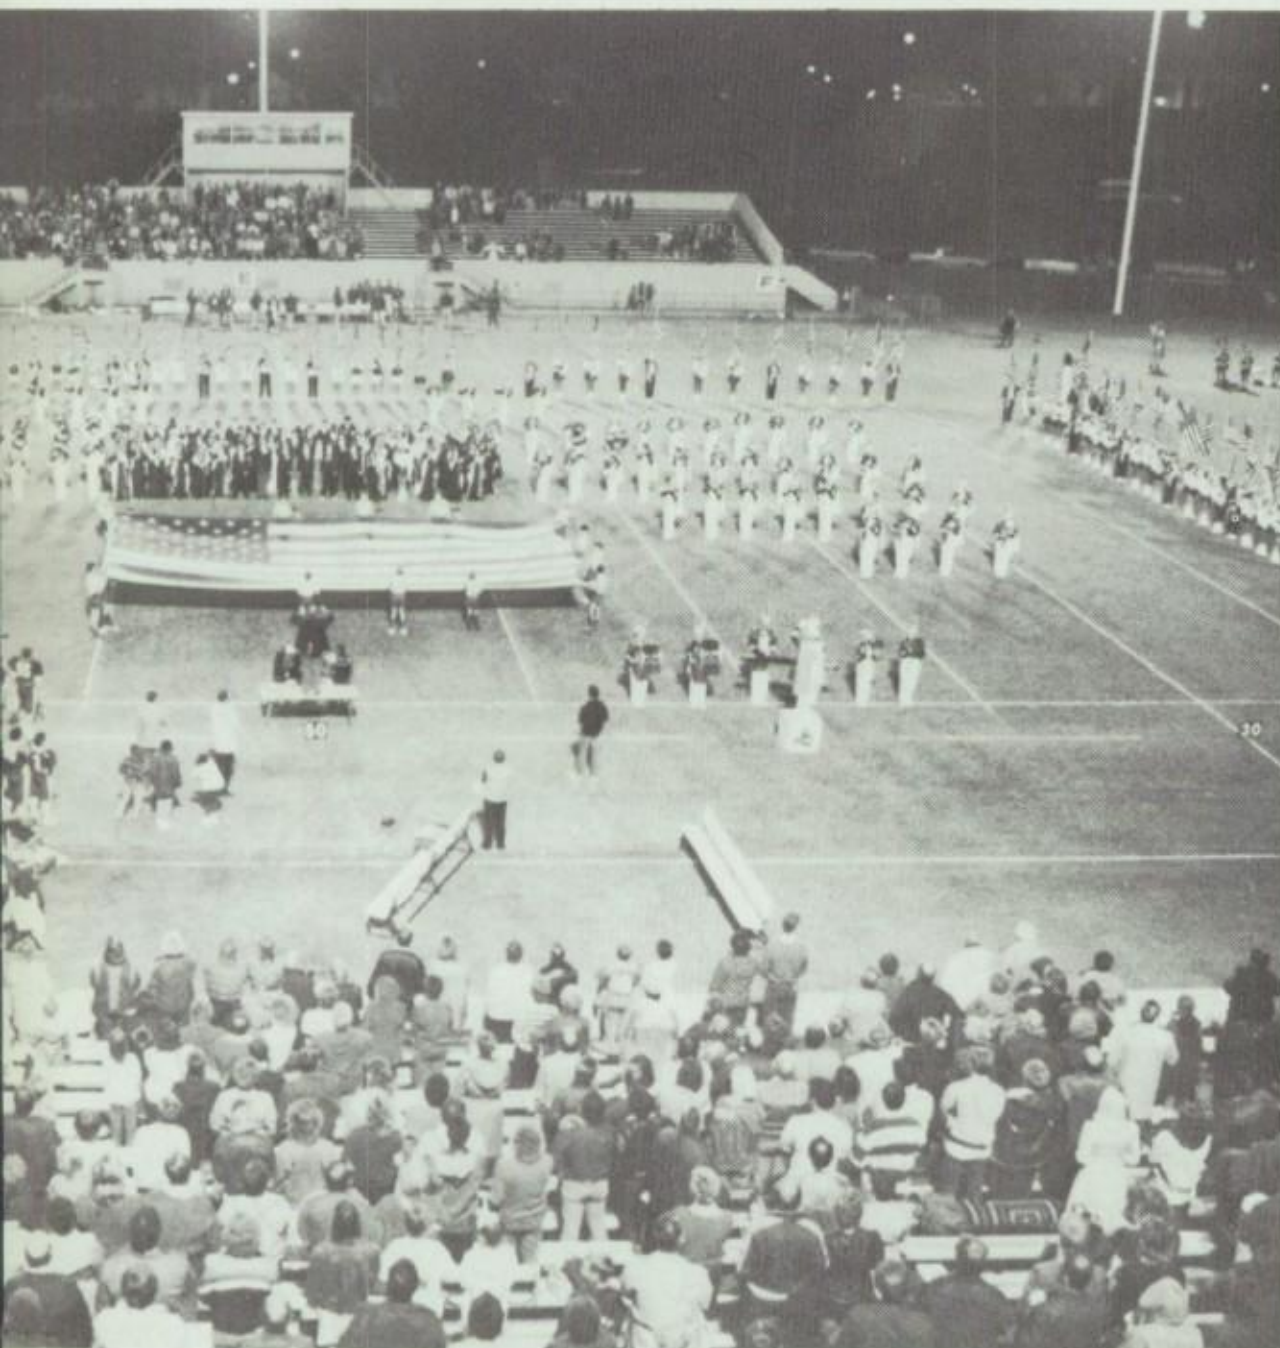

Deborah Hill takes a moment to clean out her purse. Gum wrappers, lost pens, out-dated notes and pocket change are just a few things found at the bottom of a girl's purse.

Susie Gadek, Carmen Valle and Donna Dunham prove that the class of 1988 will always rule the world. The three girls cheered their lungs out at the Senior pep rally earlier that day.

◆ Nikki Nelson proofreads her printout before turning it in to her OEA class. Nikki had OEA third period and found its location convenient for "A" lunch.

At the end of the school year, what senior in Mrs. Bledsoe's first period accounting class had plans to attend UT and become an accountant?

- A. Matt Schaar
- B. Nickie Commons
- C. David Emory
- D. Lisa Kennedy

Answer: B

"I know I put that paper in here." Chris Brown doesn't like to look through folders for his work; he just shakes his folder and hopes it falls out.

Mrs. A. Icsman concentrates on a speech at Josten's yearbook camp last summer. Mrs. Icsman and seven yearbook members spent a week at the camp in Denton.

It's not the dress that counts, it's the look. Shanna Corley, Kelly Williams, and Sonja Watwood model the dresses they wore at the Variety show.

"The thing I enjoyed most about my senior year would have to be all the days we were out for snow." Tara Sutherland

"This year at Sherman High has been the time of my life. It was my first trip to America and I discovered great things and realized how important other things are back home." Alberto No

"Even though I never ate in the cafeteria, I really enjoyed the food." Patty Bowles

"When I return from San Diego in November, I will gladly accept the position of Supplies Editor for Mrs. Icsman." Matt Day

"To that certain someone: Thanks for everything — I'll never forget you!" Amy Rushing

"Trichele and Carmen are Tech-bound so watch out Lubbock 'cuz here we come!!" Trichele Stapleton and Carmen Valle

"My senior year was the best. I was in Co-op, left school at one o'clock, and got home in time to watch "One Life to Live"." Tara Southern

"I think quotes are dumb." Beth Imhoff

"I think Beth Imhoff's quote is dumb." Keri Miller

"My only year at Sherman High was definitely an experience I will not soon forget." Shannon Dubach

"I guess we better get back to class." Katie Banks and Keri Miller escort Bobby Bradley to fourth period after "C" lunch.

"B-R-A-N-D-Y L-E-G-A-T-E". Brandy Legate helps Renee Davis spell her name correctly during picture taking. On rare occasions, some students names were misspelled.

With index fingers and blown-up hands waving during the Alma Mater, the sophomores showed the whole gym that they supported the Bearcats.

Kim Bazan and Serena Johnson pay close attention to Mrs. A. Mason's overhead notes. Both girls had pre-calculus fourth period.

Kevin Seals takes a blueberry muffin taste test in his homemaking class. After much thought, Kevin decided Duncan Hines and Betty Crocker tasted the same.

Natalie Softly gives Tara Southern assistance on an HECE assignment. Natalie works at Mazzio's and Tara works at Burger King.

"My senior year was made great by a special girl. Renee, thanks for the good times and memories." Kurt Meglan

"My most fun time of my junior year was in fourth period when Patty and I teased Tara Southern. (Bubble babies are dumb!)" Penny Miller

"As senior class treasurer, everytime I gave a financial report it was always, 'We have 0 dollars and 0 cents'." Anthony Jones

"Seniors '88 did it well, but seniors '90 do it best!!" Tiffany Wharton

"Uh oh! I can't think of a quote, but going to SHS is an experience if not anything else." Julie Mora

"I love the new drill team skirts almost as much as drill team." Renee Davis

"I want to thank Mrs. Hudgins for her musical clock at Christmas time, even though she made the class stay after fifteen minutes, and to this day nobody knows who did it (Ha! Ha!)." Heath Bope

"I enjoyed being the drill team manager. I got to go to all of the games, meet the new members and talk to the old." Frances Dannel

"My last year was full of surprises. I never knew what to expect at any time." Christina Tucker

"We did the yearbook out of inspiration for our school, not out of desperation." Michael Wilson

Students arrive at school at 7:45. School buses managed to get all bus-riding students to Sherman High's doorstep before the 8:00 bell.

Mrs. B. Gohlke chews her fingernails in hopes the pie-in-the-face joke will pass her by. Cheerleaders threw pies in faculty faces at a pep-rally.

Shannon Dubach "doodles" around with her new friend. After taking the ACT, Shannon went to the mall for her favorite hobby: shopping.

Justin,

Well hasn't Algebra been fun this year? It would've been boring w/out the antics of Jerry & Cliff. (Hey! That sounds like a good name for a comic ~~book~~ series.) Sorry
I didn't have many Jolly
Ranchers for you, but if you come to my house you will surely find some. I would like to tell you that you are a fun person & I enjoyed talking to you in algebra.

Have a happy friend

My Gosh - it's the end of our Junior Year + also the 10th year that we've been friends!
I can't believe it & I love you so much I hope you know that whatever arguments or disagreements we have right now will always be my Special + Best friend & we have more memories than anything & I'll never forget them all!
I'm so excited for you about George!
He's so cute + NOT moving! HEE!
HEE!

I'm looking forward to a great summer at Yale like last year. Maybe we'll have some classes together - Ha! Not even going to finish cause you know when we do Anyway

Kristin,

I really didn't get to know you, but that's life. Keep up your excellent grades and don't be so gullible. (Just kidding) Sorry
'bout that too.

Kristin,
Dosh, I sure do hate writing in those crazy athenians. Only freaks ask people to write in their athenians. (Just kidding)
You are very sweet, Kristin, even though we used to fight a lot when you lived back behind. I'll never forget that not so pretty dog. I hope he lives forever though. Have a good summer and stay sweet.

Love, Tracy

Kristin,
When you used to sit in the back of the room,
I always wondered what you'd all were laughing about.
Now I know, you all are looney
